Thornhill District News

Following a prolonged illness, Mrs. Annie McClumpha, wife of Alex McClumpha, greenskeeper at Thornhill Golf & Country Club, died at her home early Saturday, September 13. Funeral services from Wright & Taylor's Funeral Home were conducted by Rev. S. A. R. Wood of Trinity Anglican Church, and interment took place in Westminster Memorial Park on Tuesday afternoon.

The late Mrs. McClumpha was born in Scotland 63 years ago and came to Canada in 1912, residing in Toronto and Thistletown before coming to Thornhill seven years ago.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McClumpha were members of a Scottish organization while living in Toronto and were subsequently honorary members. A member of the Presbyterian Church, Mrs. McClumpha was an active worker before her illness, and at one time was president of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church at Lansing. While in Thistletown she belonged to a ladies' auxiliary there.

Surviving besides her husband is one son, William, and the community joins in extending sincere sympathy.

Doncaster Community Club
The regular meeting of the club was held on Sept. 9 at the home of Mrs. J. Baker, Clark Ave. A corn and Weiner roast held on Sept. 12 proved quite a success, and the members of the club were very gratified, it being the first event to raise money.

The next meeting, scheduled for Sept. 23, will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Garnett, Morgan Ave. at 7.45 p.m. All ladies of the community are cordially invited to attend.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Ada Emily Bail who died at her Proctor Ave. home on Sunday, Sept. 14.

Rev. Milne of Queensville will preach in Thornhill United Church next Sunday, Sept. 21. Rev. E. E. Kent taking the anniversary services at Queensville.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker on the birth of their little daughter, Gayle Patricia, on Monday, Sept. 8th.

The Junior W.A. of Trinity Anglican Church is again in progress, meeting each Tuesday evening at the Rectory.

The Fortnite Club of Thornhill Presbyterian Church met at the home of Misses Welsh, Centre St. on Tuesday evening of this week. The club is working in conjunction with the Women's Association of the church in preparation for their annual bazaar which will probably be held at the end of October this year.

The W.A. and W.M.S. of Thornhill Presbyterian Church met in the Sunday School room of the church last Thursday to spend the morning quilting. After the regular meeting, held in the afternoon, the quilts were completed and plans made for the commencement of another. These quilts are being made for the bazaar.

The project to be carried on by York Homemaking Clubs this Fall is "Cotton Accessories for the Club Girl's Bedroom", and includes some study of color for the bedroom as well as arrangement. The girls are also taught how to make attractive dresser covers, chair pads and bed spreads of suitable cotton materials.

This is a popular project and open to all girls between the ages of 12 and 26 years. One or two leaders from each club is expected to attend the leaders' training school to be held at Department of Agriculture, Newmarket, on October 9 and 10 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Any girl in the community who may be interested could contact the local Women's Institute for further particulars.

The Altar Guild of Trinity Anglican Church will commence its program again this year by holding its first meeting in the Rectory Thursday of this week to make preparations for the Harvest Festival which is to be held next Thursday, Sept. 25. Rev. F. Jackson, Rector at Campbellville, will be guest preacher at the Harvest Festival service.

A group of ladies from the Women's Association of Trinity Anglican Church attended the Board Meeting held in Newmarket last week.

Derry Giles was the lucky recipient of a luscious cake, the gift of Mrs. Redmond, and a duplicate of the one with which she won first prize at the C.N.E. this year. Incidentally, Mrs. Redmond is to be congratulated on her success in taking other prizes in the baking class.

Election of officers for the Young People's Association of Thornhill United Church was held on Monday evening in the Sunday School room. Following were elected: Hon. Pres., Rev. E. E. Kent; past pres., Ruth Hicks; pres., Betty Bone; vice-pres., Allan Ford; sec., Helen Shoultice; publicity sec., Joan Sharpless; treas., Ernest Kent; convener, fellowship, Ruth Hicks; citizenship, Eric Ford; missions, Jean Morton; culture, Barbara Blake; pianist, Ruth Hicks; committee, Allan Ford, Betty Empringham, Barbara Blake, Dorothy Shoultice, Shirley Kent.

The handsome basque of asters gracing the altar table in Thornhill Presbyterian Church last Sunday was in memory of the late Mr. James Heslop of Willowdale.

Miss Margaret Martin, Centre St., was honored at a miscellaneous and community shower held at the home of Mrs. Talbot Findlay last Thursday evening, Sept. 11. The bride-to-be was presented with a handsome floor lamp, electric iron and aluminum ware on behalf of her friends and neighbors in the district. In addition she received many lovely personal gifts of linen, glassware, etc. Hostesses who also planned the event were Mrs. Talbot Findlay, Mrs. Eehlin and Mrs. Brillinger. Margaret's marriage to Mr. Norman Sweet of Bradford is set for Saturday, September 20.

A minister came upon a member of his flock going home a little unsteady, and gave him a helping hand. Pressed to enter the house, the minister demurred. "Come on in, man," he was urged, "come in and let the good wife see who I've been with tonight."—Northwestern Bell.

LANGSTAFF

Commencement Evening
Langstaff Home and School Association are holding a commencement evening for the entrance graduates at Lawrence Memorial Hall on Tuesday, September 23 at 8 p.m. Mr. G. A. Preston, principal of Earl Haig Collegiate is to speak on "Vocational Guidance". All members, parents and friends are invited.

A large group of friends and members of Langstaff Baptist church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. McLean, Edgemoor Mills, to honor Mr. and Mrs. A. Loverock with a miscellaneous shower. The latter, former residents of Doncaster Gardens, Thornhill, and now of Garden Ave., were victims of an unfortunate fire in which they lost all possessions in addition to their home. Mr. Loverock was presented with a Bible, the gift of the Women's Fellowship. Both he and Mrs. Loverock responded graciously, and a delightful evening concluded with refreshments.

Due to return to his home in Langstaff very soon, Clayton Stone, injured in a motorcycle accident some months ago, suffered an unfortunate setback when a leg was broken for the second time. However, the pluck exhibited by Clayton throughout his long illness will stand him in good stead at this time and his many friends in the community extend best wishes for his speedy return to health.

Miss Gertrude Killam, recent graduate of the Bible College in Winnipeg, was guest speaker at the Young People's meeting in Langstaff Baptist Church last Friday evening. Speaking on "Service", her message portrayed the path by which she hopes to reach her goal. Miss Killam will be returning to Winnipeg this week to fill a position in the office of the Bible College there for the next few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Caines are the proud parents of a second son born on September 7 at Private Patients Pavilion, Toronto Western Hospital.

Mr. Huestis of Richvale, who underwent an operation in Christie St. hospital recently, is expected to return to his home some time this week. Knowing the seriousness of the case, his many friends will be glad to hear he is coming along very nicely.

The Women's Fellowship of Langstaff Baptist Church will be holding their weekly meetings in the church each Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the next few weeks.
