LIONS CLUB (By Lion Bill Wagner, Public Relations Chairman) Last Thursday's meeting of the local Lions Club was one of unusual interest. Close to 100 per cent of the members were present with an additional 30 guests to hear Mr. J. Lance Rumble deliver a talk of special interest on the construction and purpose of the Alaska Highway. Mr. Rumble fully lived up to all promises and was brilliant in his delivery. His unlimited knowledge of places, distances and people was amazing, and this together with his pleasing humor kept the large audience in a constant state of thrill. He indeed, with his warm personality, endeared himself to everyone present and will be a welcome guest speaker at any future meeting. Lion Ned Hill thanked Mr. Rumble for his excellent address and on behalf of the club presented him with a box of Richmond Hill roses.
