YOUR NEIGHBOR

The true value of knowing your neighbor and living alongside him in a friendly way was emphasized in a most interesting address given at the local Lions Club last Thursday evening by Rev. Ray McCleary, the founder of Woodgreen Community Centre, Toronto. With a true sincerity he vividly pictured how in his own community peoples of all classes and nationalities were neighbors in the true sense, sharing each other's problems, helping those more unfortunate than themselves regardless of race, color or creed.

His address made the large audience so conscious of what a grand place this old world could really be if people really tried to understand each other in a neighborly way. His heart and soul is wrapped up in his great adventure in the building of Woodgreen Community Centre which he describes as his future great living room where boys and girls can play good health giving games, read books and enjoy neighborly gatherings instead of playing on the streets and getting into trouble. Lion Paul Angle expressed to Rev. McCleary the thanks of the Lions Club for his most interesting address and as a tangible expression presented him with a cheque in aid of his most worthy undertaking, Woodgreen Community Centre. Rev. McCleary was also presented with a box of Richmond Hill roses.

At this meeting all those who helped in the annual street dance were the guests of the Lions Club and were entertained by a trio of splendid artists, instrumental, vocal and dancers which everyone enjoyed.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Mrs. Currey and her daughter Erla left Tuesday of last week for their home at Central Butte, Sask. They have been visiting with Rev. E. A. Currey and Loretta the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Perkins and family, Richmond Hill, had dinner Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. R. Perkins and Coral.

The W.A. are having a special Thanksgiving service on Wednesday evening, Oct. 15 at 8 o'clock in the Sunday school room. All ladies requested to be present.

Mrs. H. Lunau, Richmond Hill, visited with her daughter Mrs. R. Perkins Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved families in the community. Mr. and Mrs. C. Sanderson and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. Bennett, Mr. Gooderham, Lansing, formerly of Victoria Square, and the family of the late Mrs. J. Freeland.

Very interesting and enjoyable meetings were held Tuesday night at the J.W.I. and J.F.A. gatherings. Warden Chas. Hooper spoke to the boys of his trip through the U.S.A. and the ways of the farmer in that country. Mrs. A. J. McLatchy, Richmond Hill, accompanied by Mrs. G. Yerex and Mrs. H. H. MacKay was the guest speaker at the girls' meeting and the many helpful hints, designs and suggestions were greatly appreciated. Mrs. McLatchy donated three lovely white blouses for a lucky draw and the winners were Misses Betty Snider, Ruth Gooding and Mrs. D. Beatty. It is hoped that Mrs. McLatchy will visit the club again in the very near future. Miss Mable Sanderson gave the motto and Miss Margaret Morton a piano instrumental.

The joint meeting was brought to a close with ice cream and cake, the treat of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rennie.

"It says here, pie should be eaten with a fork. You haven't got a pie I could practice on, have you, Grandma?"
