Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Angle left on Monday for Atlanta, Georgia where they will attend the annual meeting and rose show of Roses Inc. and will return early in November.

Mr. J. B. Lamb, managing editor of the Moose Jaw Times Herald arrived by plane Thursday to spend a short vacation at his home here.

On Tuesday, October 28 the Presbyterian Young People's Society will meet at the home of Misses Shirley and Joan Bowen, 14 Arnold St. at 8 p.m.

A bridge and euchre will be held by the Vaughan and Richmond Hill Veterans at the home of Mrs. Jas. Butler, 30 Wright St. at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, October 29.

The first of a series of winter euchres at St. Mary Immaculate church parish hall will be held this Friday evening, October 24. Everyone cordially invited.

Mrs. F. A. Clark has returned after being in charge of the cooking at the Children's Aid Home at Wilfordale during the illness of the staff cook.

The Explorers will meet on Mondays at 4 p.m. at the United Church school room. Please notice that the time of meeting is changed from 7 p.m. to the above hour.

Gerald Cattanee of the R.C.A.F., now stationed at Edmonton is home after an overseas flight in which he engineered a "Halifax" over to England and a "Lincoln" on the return flight.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vanderburgh of Elstoro, Sask. arrived here Saturday and will be visiting friends and relatives in Toronto and here.

STICK TO EXPERTS

It is as important to understand the positive truths on which genuine health is built, as it is to realize how false are some of the ideas which have grown up about maintenance of well-being.

Accordingly, health authorities advise Canadians to get their information on how to keep healthy only from those fully qualified to advise and to treat them. It is not safe to trifle with such an important matter. Our physical and mental health should be entrusted to specialists—the doctors, dentists, etc., trained and practised in treating human minds and bodies.

In addition to our regular menu, we are now serving

SURE PROTECTION

More than good general health is needed to ward off the communicable diseases. Doctors say that, although disease is less likely to attack a healthy person than one in poor condition, such protection as inoculation, vaccination and other forms of immunization is essential, particularly for children.

As children go back to school this Fall, medical authorities count on parents ensuring their safety by taking advantage of all the special scientific protective measures.

BIRTH

ELDRIDGE—Mr. and Mrs. R. Eldridge, Elgin Mills, announce the birth of a son, a brother for Robin at Mrs. Healey's Nursing Home, Elgin Mills, Ont.

IN MEMORIAM

WARMAN—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Gertrude Emily Barnett, who entered into rest October 25, 1936.

What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once more
In Heaven, that happy life.
—Ever remembered by husband,
son Eric, daughter-in-law May, and granddaughter Gail.

IN MEMORIAM

NICHOLS—In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Archie L. Nichols who passed away October 23, 1941.

Nothing can ever take away
The love our hearts hold dear,
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance keeps him near.
—Ever remembered by mother,
dad and family.
