Thornhill Horticultural Society's Social Evening
On Wednesday evening, November 12, Thornhill Horticultural Society will hold its annual social evening at Lawrence Memorial Hall commencing at 8.15. Outstanding guest artists will be Mrs. Chas. Harding of Richmond Hill (formerly of Thornhill), soloist, and Mr. John Gormaine, magician. Mr. R. D. Little of Richmond Hill will assist in the presentation of prizes.

The W.A. and W.M.S. of Thornhill Presbyterian Church will hold their regular monthly meeting next Thursday afternoon, November 13 at the home of Mrs. Chas. Harper, 82 Deloraine Ave., Toronto. Mrs. L. W.
Zuefelt of Richmond Hill will be guest speaker at this thank-offering meeting for the W.M.S. A good attendance is expected.

The Fortnite Club of Thornhill Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mrs. S. Findlay next Tuesday, November 11 at 8 p.m.
Thornhill Presbyterian church presents a very attractive appearance these days with its fresh coats of cream and brown paint. In addition, a new hot air furnace has been installed.

The bazaar sponsored by the Fortnite Club in conjunction with the W.A. and W.M.S. of Thornhill Presbyterian church, held on Saturday, October 25, proved very successful. Over $200 was realized, and those responsible wish to thank friends of the district who so kindly donated articles and helped in various ways to contribute to the excellent results.

Crouch-McFranklin An attractive Fall wedding was solemnized on Monday, October 27 at Richmond Hill when Inex McFranklin of North Bay and Toronto became the bride of Glen Crouch, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Crouch of Thornhill. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a navy blue suit with dark accessories and corsage of white and rose chrysanthemums.
She was attended by Miss Iris Angelo of Toronto. Groomsman was Ivan Parkes of Thornhill. At the reception held later at the home of the groom, Mrs. Crouch received the bride in a navy blue suit with corsage of red roses, assisted by the bride's mother, also in navy blue and with corsage of red roses. The young couple spent their honeymoon at the home of the bride's parents in North Bay.

The W.A. and W.M.S. of Thornhill United Church will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Russell on Thursday afternoon, November 6.
To further serve an expanding community, an up-to-date barber shop was opened on Tuesday of this week in what was formerly LaGrove Hairdressing Parlor, just north of the Thornhill garage. A young veterinarian, Harry Stephenson of Bayview Ave., is its proprietor. Mr. Stephenson needs no introduction, as he is well known in the district, having lived all of his life here, and the community joins in wishing him every success in his new business venture.
A highly attractive miscellaneous show honoring Miss Jean Hooke was held at the home of Mrs. L.
Short, Jane St. on Tuesday evening of this week. Responsible for the show were Mrs. S. Findlay, Mrs.
Jamieson and Mrs. Campbell. On behalf of the community, Jean was presented with a handsome trilight floor lamp and several pieces of supperware, besides numerous individual gifts of linens, cups and saucers, etc.
The Young Ladies' Guild of Thornhill United Church will hold their regular monthly meeting in the Sunday school room of the church on Thursday evening, November 13th.

Misses Geraldine Wesley and Elsa Marshall will be in charge of the program. The annual bazaar will be held on Saturday, November 22, and members are canvassing for donations to the White Elephant Table. If you have anything to contribute, please get in touch with Miss Betty Bone as soon as possible.

Thornhill Women's Institute have set aside Saturday, December 6, as the date for their annual White Elephant Sale and Bazaar, to be held in Lawrence Memorial Hall.

Friends of the community scarcely need to be reminded of the fine work accomplished by this organization which will soon be celebrating its fiftieth anniversary, but for the benefit of newcomers, the Institute has been sponsoring a French child through the Save the Children Fund for the past two or three years.

Parcels of delicacies have been mailed at various times to this child contracted tuberculosis during the war years. Other parcels of food and clothing have been sent to England, and donations have been sent to such organizations as The Salvation Army. Shut-ins and sick have been visited and sent cards, flowers, etc. and those in need have been helped. In view of the fact that all of these activities can only be carried out when sufficient funds are available, the members organize this annual sale to raise the needed money and at the same time assist the community in its purchase of Christmas gifts. For this reason, its members feel sure that their friends will answer the call for assistance again this year with outgrown clothing, discarded furniture, dishes or any thing saleable. Sales convenor is Mrs. L. Beeston and her telephone number is Thornhill 96.

Mrs. Frank Baumgartner (formerly Renie Rainey) a niece of Mrs.
Geo. Tutt, and a local Bell Telephone operator, was feted at a surprise party and shower last Wednesday evening. Her co-workers joined in the gift of a lovely lace tablecloth and in addition presented Renie with personal gifts.

Annual Meeting, Scouts and Cubs Parents and friends of boy scouts and cubs are invited to attend the annual meeting which will be held in Thornhill public school on Thursday, November 13 at 8 p.m. This meeting is held mainly for the purpose of electing members to the Group Committee, and will be a business meeting. All interested are urged to attend.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
TWP. OF NORTH YORK
HEALTH AXIOMS
Sex Hygiene:

Need of education of young people concerning the vital facts of life has been stressed frequently in our generation.
The finest authorities are now prepared to assist in this important duty, which every parent should see is not neglected.
Such instruction is essential to the well-being of all growing children.

Stamina:
You would not cross a busy street blindfolded, would you?
Well, life is a busy thoroughfare, too. So, take off the blinkers of disregard for your physical well-being. Study your health, learn how to conserve and improve it. Physical fitness is the best form of insurance and pays daily dividends.

FRENCH NOVELIST ALEXANDRE DUMAS
The great French author of "The Three Musketeers" and many a tale of high adventure and romance, was a wonderful cook, proud of his ability in the kitchen. The last book he ever wrote was about cooking.
In it he reveals himself as an expert in the art of preparing good food in the most delicious ways. A great artist with words — and food!
