King City District News

King softball club members were guests of Lake Marie and King Athletic Association on November 12 at a public turkey supper held at the United Church. A large number attended enjoying a full supper of fowl and pie.

Miss Annie McBride spent the week-end in Toronto with her sister Mrs. W. Thomson, where Mrs. McBride Sr. has been ill with influenza. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brodie, residents in Mr. Aubrey Campbell's house, celebrated their first wedding anniversary on Sunday, entertaining Mr. George Brodie of Bracebridge, a brother.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Campbell during the past week or so were Mrs. R. P. Halliday and daughter Jean. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hawkins, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Campbell and daughter Helen and Vivian, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Len Farr, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerr and daughter of Kleinburg.

Farewell Party
Mrs. Tom Wilson and family, Kinghorn district, were honoured by neighbors and friends with a farewell gathering, as they leave for their former home at Kettleby, Mrs. Ed. Kyle convened arrangements assisted by Mrs. Aubrey Campbell, and Mrs. Wilson was presented with a lamp and table by Mrs. Hugh O'Brien and Mrs. Campbell, while Mrs. Kyle read the accompanying address. The evening was spent in games, dancing and refreshments. The Wilsons moved from Kettleby to this district four years ago, and in a little over a year Mr. Wilson passed away, followed a month later by the death of Mrs. Wilson's aged father, Mr. John Anning. The farm which was owned by Mr. James Patton of King has been purchased by Mr. Robert Riddell.

Schomberg Remembrance Service
Despite heavy rainfall on Nov. 11, Remembrance Day service was carried out at Schomberg cenotaph by war veterans and townspeople. It was conducted by Rev. F. V. Abbott and Rev. J. McLean on behalf of the local churches, with scripture read by Rev. McLean and the memorial prayer by Rev. Abbott. The names of the fallen were read by Dr. M. K. Dillane and memorial wreath for the Province of Ontario was placed by Mrs. Ina Birns and Mrs. A. F. Kay. While brief the ceremonies were impressive.

Mrs. Usher addressed Laskay W.I. at the regular meeting held in November at the home of Mrs. Walter Monkman. The talk based on the topic, A girl's value to her country, described the mental powers and capabilities of the young girl of today. Experience of the last war developed courage and stamina in young women, and there are now no professions in which women are not engaged, stated the speaker. While the girl is considered a liability while she is developing, by the time she reaches discretion she is already an asset to her country. Miss Helen Hunter enlarged on the motto, and two minutes silence was observed as a Remembrance tribute.

Laskay W.I. euchre will be held on November 21.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Campbell have made recent trips to Stouffville, Cherrywood, Cookstown and Beeton. Teachers of the local inspectorate held a turkey supper at Nobleton United church on November 13 and were addressed by Dr. Fred Minkler, public school inspector for North York Township and Forest Hill Village.

Nobleton Women Apathetic
Miss Sadie Cairns, 70, and her sister Mrs. George Breeden, 75, were discovered in the former's home about noon on Thursday, November 13, suffering from apoplexy by Mrs. Jack Smith and Reeve L. B. Goodfellow. The sisters were still in bed at that time of day, and Miss Cairns who had suffered a very slight stroke several days previously, had a recurrence, at this time, causing some paralysis. She was unconscious when discovered but Mrs. Breeden aroused sufficiently to open the door when a second call had been paid by Mr. J. Smith, a neighbor. Earlier in the day, Mr. Smith, who frequently stops at Miss Cairns' home to see if she is alright, did not receive any reply at his first visit and later returned with Reeve Goodfellow, endeavouring to make himself heard. Finally Mrs. Breeden in more or less of a daze answered the door. The men said the one-storey house was strong with coal gas, which had apparently escaped from the closely checked range. Doors and windows were opened and the stove pipe partly drawn from the chimney to avoid any further escape of fumes. Dr. M. K. Dillane, Schomberg, attended, and their condition now is reported favourable. Miss Cairns is confined to bed and her sister is allowed up on certain periods.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baldwin, Aurora, Fifty Years Married
Former residents of King district, Mr. and Mrs. William Baldwin celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on North Yonge Street on Saturday, November 15, with an at home during the afternoon and evening. The house was beautifully decorated in gold, chrysanthemums and yellow roses, the gift of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin received the large number of guests, and their daughter, Miss Beth Baldwin attended the door, while daughters Anah and Ruth (Mrs. M. McDonald) assisted at the tea table.

Mrs. Baldwin was formerly Florence Smith of Vaughan township and was reared by her grandmother, Mrs. Hamilton of Laskay, and married at the age of 19, Mr. Baldwin who was then about 26. The Rev. Jos. Watts, Presbyterian minister, performed the ceremony at the home at Laskay and the couple settled there. Later they took up farming at Kinghorn, carrying on a successful trade in wool. Mr. Baldwin had experience in the woollen mills at Laskay and was widely known as an expert in handling this product. Living here for 14 years they moved to Strange, purchasing the Archibald farm, and in 1945 they removed to Aurora. It is now 65 years since Mr. Baldwin first came to Aurora with his parents, migrating from Yorkshire, England.

Their children are Miss Anah Baldwin, on Riverdale Collegiate Institute staff, Toronto; Mrs. Muir McDonald, Sydenham; Miss Beth Baldwin, of Welland High School teaching staff and Dr. W. W. Baldwin of Brooklyn, Ont. There are four grandchildren.

Gospelaires To Be Heard
The Gospelaires are a musical group of Toronto and are very talented in playing various instruments including the vibra-harp, the guitar, saxophone, trombone and piano. They have appeared with great acceptance in many centres, and will be present at the Sunday school anniversary of King City Baptist church on Sunday, November 23 at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. On Sunday evening, November 24, at 8 o'clock motion and talking pictures on the Solomon Islands will be shown in the church by Rev. Norman Rowan, of Second Markham Baptist church. All are welcome to enjoy these events.

Prize winners at King W.I. euchre on November 14 were, Mrs. A. McNair, 1st; Mrs. A. J. Gordon, 2nd; Miss Mae Judge, 3rd; Men, C. Henshaw, 1st; Bruce Hall, 2nd; J. P. Norris, 3rd. The next euchre event will be on November 28. Convening the evening were Mrs. Geo. Brown, Mrs. J. Phillips, Mrs. A. J. Gordon, Mrs. Clarke Archibald and Mrs. F. Gambrill.

The annual bazaar and tea sponsored by King United church W.A. will be held in the church basement at 3 p.m. on November 27. Strange Presbyterian W.M.S. took in $100 at their annual sale of work on November 14 and All Saints W.A. realized well over the $100 mark.
