Thornhill District News

Proud parents gathered in Earl Haig College on Friday evening, November 28 for annual commencement exercises there. Mary Howard and Peter Wade received their honour graduation diplomas in the upper school, and Peter read the valedictory. Peter was outstanding student in the school last year, being the winner of the Codg scholarship, University College, and the O. D. Bales trophy for proficiency, games and leadership. John Humphries and Dorene Holmes received school letters, awarded by the student society, while Sandra Adams won the general proficiency book prize in grade 10. Michael Rochester won the third prize for proficiency in grade 10. In grade 9, Jean Lak took second prize in general proficiency and Douglas Cooper took the 7th prize. In Commercial, Marion Sarabura won the second prize for grade 10. Irene Banas won the grade 9 art prize and Veronica Heraise took the grade 11 History.

Candle Light Service in Trinity Church

The seventh consecutive Christmas Candle Light Service will be held in Trinity Anglican Church next Wednesday evening, December 17th, at 8 p.m. A short address will be given by Rev. S. A. R. Wood. Rev. E. E.
Kent will assist in the service. If you have never attended this service before, a treat is in store for you and if you have, you will need no further invitation.

Thornhill Horticultural Society presented its annual prize-giving evening last month in Lawrence Memorial Hall and the large number who attended will vouch for its success. A surprise feature of the evening was the presentation of gifts to the oldest and youngest member present who incidentally turned out to be grandmother and granddaughter, Mrs. R. Simpson and little Nancy Simpson.

Entertaining were magician J.
Giordmaine who by producing rabbits out of a hat, making things disappear from one spot only to turn up in another, completely mystified his audience and frequently sent them into gales of laughter, particularly the smaller fry who thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the performance. Mrs. Harding of Richmond Hill sang two delightful solos accompanied by Mrs. Echlin.

Following are a list of prize winners: Robert Simpson Co. prize (silver tray) won by K. Mackintosh for best specimen flower in August show; T. Eaton Co. prize (crystal vase, silver deposit) won by Margaret Mc-Keen for total number of points during season; table centre (Percy Bone trophy), won by Mrs. Luesby. Other special prize winners included Miss H. Welsh, Miss E. Welsh, Miss Margaret McKean, Mrs. T. Pherrill, Mrs.
Banks, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Wells, K. Mackintosh, G. Reynolds, Mr. Healy and Miss M. Dean.
Professional class winners were E.
Kohler and Mrs. Banks. Juvenile class winners were G. Brillerman, H.
Gribble, Mary Harrison, Peter Hansen Joy Hansen, Peter Ward, George Styan, George Black, Paul Ward Blackburn, Geoffrey Jackson, Bobby Caesar.

Mr. E. Kohler, the president, welcomed members and guests from Richmond Hill including District Director R. D. Little, North York, etc. and thanked the donors of special prizes. Mr. Kohler was presented with an award of merit from the Ontario Horticultural Society for outstanding work done to promote horticulture.

Thornhill Women's Institute held its final meeting for the year last Friday afternoon at Lawrence Memorial Hall, and although preparation for the sale played the most prominent part, a short business meeting was held first.

It was reported that a parcel containing goods donated by the members had been sent to a family in England who have never received a parcel. Mrs. Aitken provided the name of the family in question.

It was decided to send a letter to the Village trustees regarding the necessity of a sidewalk on the west side of Yonge St., and also that something be done to keep the snow cleaned off present sidewalks in the village.

Regarding the glove making project which is to be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, January 6, 7 and 8, Mrs. Mackintosh was appointed to register members and arrange details. Registration fee for members is 25c, and for non-members, 50c. Anyone wishing to take this three day course, please contact Mrs. Mackintosh at Thornhill 147.
Further details later.

The Schneider demonstration scheduled for Wednesday evening, December 10, funds from which were to be applied to the work of the Institute, was turned into a gala evening, the proceeds to go to the George family of Langstaff who were completely burned out last week. Miss Ada Mizen and Barr Errington of Willowdale were guest singers, while two quartettes from the Lions Club as well as a turkey draw, games and cuche provided a really good time.

Ten dollars was voted a donation to the Scouts and Cubs in the Village and $5 towards the Brownies.
$10 was also donated towards the Halloween party sponsored by the Lions Club.

Their many friends will be glad to hear that $400 was taken in at the Institute annual sale last Saturday, and to those who contributed to its success the sincere thanks of the organization is extended.

Lucky draw winners were: Woollen blanket, Mrs. Harris; woollen blanket, Mrs. Crowhurst; quilt, Mrs. P.
Maude; turkey, David Scarlett of Newtonbrook; ham, Miss Stansfield of Toronto; hamper of groceries, Mr.
Stalter of Markham.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at her home on Yonge St. on Friday afternoon last when Elizabeth Ramsden Eaton became the bride of Alfred Meadows Eccleston, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Eccleston, Amour Heights. Rev. E. E. Kent performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a pale blue dress with silver sequins trimming the bodice. For going away she donned a coat of the same shade with brown Russian squirrel collar and brown accessories.

The reception was held at Chez Paree, Toronto.

On their return from the wedding trip to New York, the young couple plan to live in Thornhill.

Congratulations to the young village trustees who were elected this week.
George Nuttall headed the polls with 104 votes. S. Findlay was second with 85 votes and Mr. Thorne received 74 and David McLean 70 votes respectively.

The Fortnite Club of Thornhill Presbyterian Church held its annual meeting on Monday evening of this week at the home of the Misses Welsh, Centre St., and the same slate of officers were returned to office for another year.

SHOP EARLY

FOR THE BEST SELECTION

Wise housewives know that early Christmas shopping means the best selections. Time slips by so quickly.
Before we realize it, Christmas is only a few days away. Why not plan now and shop early to avoid that last-minute rush.
Early shoppers are rewarded with wider and better selection.
