IN MEMORIAM

PULLAN—In loving memory of my dear mother, Fannie Pullan, who passed away February 12, 1947. With tears I watched you sinking, I watched you pass away, I tended you with loving care, But could not make you stay, I watched beside your bedside, As the lonely hours passed, How my heart was broken, When I saw you breathe your last, God knew that you were suffering, That the hills were hard to climb, So he closed your weary eyelids, And whispered "peace be thine." —Lovingly remembered by daughter Edith.

IN MEMORIAM

HALL—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mary J. Hall, who passed away February 13, 1947. —Ever remembered by husband, son Harold and family.

ST. MARY'S EVENING GUILD

(By Glad. McLatchy)

The changed attitude of adults toward children, was the most outstanding thing noticed by Elizabeth Haldane, in her book of memoirs, entitled "One hundred years of life" and told so humanly by Rev. Dr. Archer Wallace to the Evening Guild last Tuesday.

The hushed atmosphere was evidence enough of how eager we were to digest every particle of Dr. Wallace's address, as he spoke in his sympathetic way, of the appalling conditions that once existed, in regard to child labour and school discipline, enforced by severe floggings, etc.

It was good to note that it was an Anglican minister, Thomas Arnold, who was the instigator of a bill passed in Parliament in 1849 that brought about definite changes resulting in the happy school days enjoyed by youngsters today.

It was also good to note that Dr. Wallace was a man of wit as well as wisdom, and the delightfully funny stories which he told so spontaneously were memorable indeed, and we sincerely hope that we may have the honor of another visit from this learned gentleman in the near future.

Guilders, look at your calendar and ring these dates, February 13, special invitation to the Presbyterian Evening Group to hear Margaret Aitken; February 14, attend the Ice Carnival and help our 'brother club'; February 17, the old grey mares with chariot, await at the hitching post at Leno's for a jolly old sleigh-ride.
