

WEDDINGS

SANDISON-DOUGLAS

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harold Hollinshead of King, when Mary Jane Douglas, daughter of Mrs. Douglas and the late Frederick Douglas, Schomberg, became the bride of Alexander Sandison of Toronto, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. Sandison, Hamilton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. V. Abbott, Schomberg, in a setting of gladioli. Given in marriage by her brother, Murray Douglas, the bride wore a gown of white satin, styled with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Her full length veil of illusion was caught to a net halo and she carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of red roses. The bride's sister, Elizabeth Douglas was gowned in floor length blue taffeta, matching halo headdress and corsage of pink roses. Five-year old Sheena Sandison, niece of the groom, wore a full length gown of peach mesh trimmed with blue and she carried a nosegay of blue flowers. The groom's brother, Frank Sandison, acted as best man. The wedding music was played by June Hollinshead, niece of the bride. For the reception of sixty guests, Mrs. Douglas received in dark blue crepe, navy hat and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Frank Sandison assisted in dark blue, matching hat and pink rose corsage. The bride donned a light blue wool suit, navy hat and matching accessories and corsage of red roses, for the honeymoon motor trip to Montreal, and upon their return will reside in Toronto. Congratulations are extended to the happy couple for a long and prosperous life.

PERRING-GILLIES

On Saturday, June 26, at 4:30 p. m., a pretty garden wedding took place at the home of E. Perring, Carrville Rd., Richvale, when Mildred Belle Gillies, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Everingham of Richvale was united in marriage to Edwin George Perring of London, England. Rev. E. E. Kent of Carrville and Thornhill officiated. The bridal procession crossed the lawn on which an aisle was marked with white ribbons to an arbour of evergreens entwined with peonies and Canterbury bells and banked with masses of flowers. Given in marriage by her son, the bride was dressed in a long gown of mist grey nylon net and lace and wore bud green nylon net gloves. She carried a cascade of Talisman roses and white larkspur and wore a pretty coronet of the same roses in her hair. Mrs. Robert Waters of Toronto was matron of honour gowned in a long periwinkle blue taffeta dress with gloves of matching material. She carried fuschia peonies and pink Canterbury bells with hair band of the same flowers. Muriel-Ann Alexander made a pretty flower girl in lilac organza, carrying yellow roses in a lace basket and in her hair. Mr. Robert Waters of Toronto assisted the groom. After congratulations a dainty buffet was served in the garden to 50 guests. The happy couple left for a trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, the bride travelling in a printed jersey dress with large black picture hat and matching accessories. On their return they will reside at Carrville Rd., Richvale, Ont.

McCONAGHY-HARVEY

Saturday, June 19, at 4 o'clock, Miss Virginia Frances Harvey, daughter of Thomas Bland Harvey and the late Mrs. Marion Bowles Harvey, Roselund, became the bride of John Murray McConaghy, of Richmond and Roseland, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McConaghy, Richmond, Virginia. The groom is a grandson of Mrs. M. L. McConaghy of Richmond Hill. The Rev. A. T. Francis, Roseland, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a white eyelet dress fashioned with high neckline, full sleeves and skirt, with picture hat to match. She wore white lace mitts and handkerchief of imported rose point lace and carried a prayer book and white orchid, showered with Stephanotis. Mrs. E. Floyd Yates, gowned in pink crepe with matching accessories served as her niece's matron of honor. She wore a purple orchid. Mr. McConaghy served as his son's best man. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held.

CHARLTON-HARRIS

St. Andrew's United Church, North Bay, was decorated with spring flowers, Monday, June 21st, when Dr. M. N. Ormond solemnized the marriage of Miss Ruth Irene Harris and Mervin William Charlton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Harris, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Charlton of Richmond Hill. George E. Hale presided at the organ and played the accompaniment for Gordon Burnette, who sang 'Because' during the signing of the register. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a traditional wedding gown of white satin fashioned with a full skirt inset with lace and long sleeves. Her floor-length veil was created with a head-dress embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of deep red roses and wore the gift of the groom, a gold wrist watch. Mrs. I. K. Davis was matron of honor in a gown of pink lace, matching lace mittens and a braided lace headdress. Her flowers were pink roses and baby's breath. Mrs. A. Mellis and Mrs. E. McGirr were bridesmaids in pale green lace and yellow lace, respectively. They wore mittens and braided head-dresses to match their gowns. Their bouquets were of pink and yellow roses with baby's breath. Gail Mellis was flower girl in a pink taffeta gown with a braided headdress and mittens of pink taffeta. She carried a nosegay of roses. Bob Endean of Richmond Hill was groomsman, while ushers were Irving Davis and Aneas Mellis. Kent Davis was page boy in a navy blazer and white flannels. The wedding reception was held at the Marine Room, where Mrs. Harris, who chose a powder blue crepe dress, a navy blue taffeta and white straw hat and a corsage of pink roses, received the guests. She was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore a dusky rose crepe frock with navy blue accessories and a corsage of pale yellow roses. For the wedding trip to Southern Ontario and United States centres, the bride wore a baby blue gabardine suit with white accessories and a white straw hat trimmed with navy blue taffeta ribbon. Mr. and Mrs. Charlton will reside at Richmond Hill.

FAGON-LEGGE

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the parsonage of Rev. W. A. Welcott, Kleinberg, on Saturday, June 26th, of Mrs. Blanche Legge and Charles H. Fagon. The bride wore a suit of battleship blue wool and navy straw hat with heaven blue flower trimming, a rose corsage and squirrel furs, the gift of the groom. Mrs. Frederick Judge attended her sister in a chocolate brown ensemble, with baby pink corsage and brown accessories. Mr. Fred Judge was best man. After the reception which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Judge, the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Northern Ontario. On their return they will reside at 222 Oak Ave., Richvale.

VARDON-BEATTY

Given in marriage by her father, Frank H. Beatty of Lefroy, Frances Faith became the bride of Arthur Vardon of Toronto in a double-ring ceremony at Lefroy United Church on Wednesday, June 30th, 1948. Rev. L. S. Paisley of Stroud conducted the ceremony and Miss Margaret Fockler was at the organ. The soloists were Joanne Johnson and Ann Lawrie. The bride wore a gown of ivory satin with a finger-tip veil gathered to a beaded coronet headdress. She carried a cascade of red roses. Attending the bride was the maid of honour, Miss Jean Morby of Stayner, in blue sheed and the bridesmaids, Miss Marie Donnelly wearing mauve sheer and Miss Doreen Southern wearing yellow. They carried bouquets of roses. Cecil Tuppenney of Toronto was groomsman and the ushers were Stewart Donnelly and Alex Saunter. Mrs. Frank Beatty, assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Kerswill received the guests on the lawn of Cedarvale Farm. For a short motor trip to Lake Huron, the bride wore a rose gabardine suit with white accessories. The couple will reside in Maple.
