With the increase of fire hazards, property owners should review their insurance policies, and due to the increased cost of materials would be well advised to increase the amounts of insurance. Also car owners who think it will never happen to them are caught some time or other without protection. The cost is a minor amount to what it will cost if an accident happens.

Laskay W. I. 40th Anniversary
A program of rare excellence was carried out on June 25th, by Laskay Women's Institute Branch in celebration of forty years' organization, held in Laskay Hall. Present and former members of the Branch, and guests numbered nearly 70, including several young children who regularly attend meetings.
As chairman, Mrs. Whatley Finch received the gathering warmly pointing out the common interest of all women interested in W. I. work and the larger field of world interest the organization embodies.

From records carefully preserved the minutes of the organization meeting held July 2nd, 1908, were read by the secretary, Mrs. Effie Bath. The original enrolment of 25 members was called, seven of whom were present. Seventeen charter members are now living, and the first secretary-treasurer, Mrs. George Atkinson, Schomberg, and Mrs. W. Boys, vice-president in 1908 were present. Present membership is well onto 45, of whom all but three responded to the roll call.

The branch was organized by a Mrs. Miller and according to Mrs. William Boys, a charter member, who later in the afternoon enlarged on its formation, Laskay and Nobleton had organized as one group in February 1908. While this plan proved co-operatively successful, winter weather with bad roads and long distance travel by horses and sleighs hampered attendance at meetings which were alternated monthly at Nobleton or Laskay. Separation of the groups gave rise to more rapid development and convenience to the branch.

As guest speaker, Miss Grace Hamilton, W. I. department, brought greetings from Miss Anna P. Lewis, Ontario Director for Women's Institutes, who was unable to be present. Referring to a quotation that 40 years is the youth of old age, which only comes when there is lack of enthusiasm in life, Miss Hamilton paid tribute to those who had pioneered the local branch, challenging the present group to press forward to greater achievement and wider interests. There is no lack of incentive for the woman of to-day whose communities bear the mark of their influence, because they have lived in it and for it, she implied, stressing the need of organizations made up of persons who have interests and desires as well as facts and understanding to make wise choices in matters affecting the group or community.

An unexpected pleasure was found in the presence of Mrs. J. F. Franklin, a visitor from Windsor, England, who accompanied Miss Hamilton. She extended greeting from her W. I. branch of Old Windsor and proudly displayed the pins she wore, that of the British W. I. and the Canadian W. I. She was agreeably surprised to learn Women's Institutes had originated in Ontario, and from the Laskay president she was asked to carry home to England sincere greetings and fellowship from the Laskay Branch. Mrs. Findlay, a delightful, friendly person, brought a suggestion of British Royalty with her as she passed around a sample cake, the silver wedding cake of the King and Queen.

During this section of the program vocal numbers were rendered by Miss Helen Hunter, and a vocal duet by Mrs. Fred Boys and Mrs. Bath, with piano accompaniments by Miss Marjorie McMurchy.

The strawberry supper was served on the spacious lawn of Mrs. Marvin Hunter, adjacent to the Hall. Among those seated at the head table were Mrs. Finch, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. W. Boys, Mrs. Alex MacMurchy, Mrs. James McCallum, Mrs. John Gillies and Mrs. Ernest Glass, all charter members. Others were Mrs. R. H. Corner, district president, Miss Hamilton and Mrs. Findlay. Proposal of the toast to the King was followed later by a toast to the W. I. at large proposed by the president, replied by Mrs. Boys. From the district Mrs. Corner brought greetings of the branches. Mrs. Atkinson offered her continued best wishes and Mrs. MacMurchy who cut the birthday cake adorned with 40 candles and the gold and blue colors of the branch, expressed the hope that years of success lie ahead for Laskay W. I. "We, the older generation, throw to you the torch, be it yours to hold it high," said Mrs. MacMurchy.

Besides other charter members mentioned who were present for the event was Miss Winnifred Boys. Officers of the original organization were: president, Mrs. Joseph O'Brien; Mrs. W. Boys, vice-pres.; Mrs. G. Atkinson, secretary-treasurer; directors, Mrs. Norman McClure, Mary Ross, Mrs. Joseph Egan, Miss Lizzie Tawse.

Mrs. Charles Eagle, Miss Della Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Abrahams and daughter, all of Weston, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Del Paton.
