King City District News

The farm of William Moseley at Strange has been purchased by Mrs. Frank Marshall. It was originally owned by the late Mr. Ab Marshall and was taken over by Mr. Moseley 21 years ago, who was at that time a building contractor in Toronto. The extensive sale of farm stock, implements, grain and household effects, is being held this week. The Moseley family are moving before long to British Columbia. Their departure from the vicinity is regretted and they leave with best wishes of many. Mr. Moseley has been active for a number of years as trustee for S. S. No. 4, Strange.

Spray Roadside Weeds ... Approximately $1,000 will be expended on roadside weed spraying by King Township council. Reeve L. B. Goodfellow states a spraying machine will be rented for this purpose to be operated by township employees, the project under the supervision of road superintendent Chalmer Black of Kettleby. Officials say selection of sections of roads will be chosen for the experiment, and later examined for results.

Councillor Elton Armstrong has been appointed to represent King township council on Aurora Planning Board. A visiting member of the board to council proposed a specified area in King township adjacent to the municipality of Aurora be defined for planning purposes. Mr. Armstrong will sit in on meetings and report back to King township council. It is understood, Whitechurch municipality has been approached by the Aurora board, to define a similar area in that township. Miss Louise Kelley, nurse in training at St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto, is home on vacation.

Piano Results Congratulations are extended to Shirley Rawlings on success in passing grade 2 theory examinations with honors set by the Royal Conservatory of Music. To her brothers, Roger, honors in grade 5 piano, and Donald, grade 8 piano with honors. They are pupils of their mother, Mrs. Donald Rawlings of King. Peter Rawlings of the same family was host to friends last week on his sixth birthday.

In The Realm of Pies Members of King Women's Institute are reminded by the executive to dwell on pie making for King City Street Dance, July 21st. They are duly requested to bring a pie or pies, preferably the latter, for the Institute refreshment booth at the dance, which is being held in Memorial Park this year. Booths will be arranged in four adjoining sections, as used by King Legion last August. This facilitates management and operation to the advantage of workers and the public. There will be hot dogs, soft drinks, ice cream, chocolate bars, smokes, and other refreshments; pie and hot coffee to no end. Folks get awfully hungry. The dance and carnival features and prevailing good times and pleasant environment are enough to produce an appetite of goodly size. There is a large Institute membership and the shift workers will be used to give the visiting public the best possible service. Proceeds from the sale of household effects of the late A. B. Wells estate brought in good results recently. Nevertheless a note of sadness was felt as it is realized both Mr. and Mrs. Wells have passed on and their home is no longer a part of the community.

Piano Recital At a piano recital held late in June at the home of Mrs. Frank Armstrong, King, pupils of Miss Dorothy Armstrong presented studies which were very favorably received by a large number of parents and friends. Afterward refreshments were served by the hostess to complete an interesting evening. Those taking part were: Stephen Jarvis, Beth Hobson, Ruth Beynon, Phyllis Barker; Bernice Cairns, Joyce Hatley, Mary Ann Moore, Pat Simpson, Joan Burns, Janet Burns, Janet Langdon, John and Jimmy Langdon, Barbara and Ann Specht, Suzanne Grew, Freda Dent, Norma Wells, John Richards, Marilyn Pierson, Joan Andrews, John Dew, Joan Reid, Donna Wilson, Marlene Llyod, May Jones, Shirley Jones, Gerry Campbell, Carol Busby, Johnnie Walker, Betty Beynon, Douglas Hollinshead, Ceinwen Calder, Carol Black, Frances McDonald, Joan Patton, Donald Ash. Julia Bell was unable to be present.

Successful Musicians Pupils of Miss Reta Regan were successful in passing piano examinations: grade 8, John Lawlor; grade 7, Barbara Lawlor; grade 4, Frances Greenwood; grade 2, Mary Catherine Lawlor. Miss Regan has successfully passed the tenth grade piano examination with honors. She is a pupil of Miss Carme Archambault of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto.

Visitor from England Mrs. Lavina Walsh of Blackpool, England, arrived at Malton airport on Tuesday, July 6th, to visit her sister, Mrs. Edgar Bullock of Strange. She will remain until September when Mrs. Bullock plans to return to England with her for a visit to the old land. Fond of travel, Mrs. Walsh, 72, said she enjoyed the flight exceedingly. It is her first visit to Canada.

New Type Homes Are Seen In The District The first pre-fabricated house in King Village has been built by Mr. Frank Curtis. A 24 x 24 foot house of four rooms, was put up in two days by workmen, the roof shingled and floors laid. Hydro and water and interior finishing will be completed by Mr. Curtis.

Mr. Bob Benson is constructing an air lock log house, on the Schomberg-Aurora sideroad. This type of home is fast becoming popular and may run into big figures according to type. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bailey of Woodstock spent the holiday week end with Mr. and Mrs. L. Gillham.

Vacation visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robertson were the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson of Guelph.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robertson, on Saturday, July 3rd, at York County hospital. Mary Jane, 16 months old now, has a brother.

Miss Janet Langdon and brother, Jimmy are holidaying with their aunts at their summer homes in Haliburton district.

Langdon coach lines are exceedingly busy this summer at charter work. A pilgrimage to Mary Lake Shrine on Sunday, drew a large number of people to the scene. Several buses were in service from Toronto to King. The beautiful estate of the Augustinian Fathers provide a restful occasion for many. The summer beauty of the noted Mary Lake is one of Ontario's most favored spots for worshippers.

Mrs. G. Allan, Lefroy, visited her daughter, Mrs. Matt Bell last weekend. Her grandchildren, Julia and Rodney returned home with her for a couple of weeks' holiday.

Mr. Leonard Shropshire has returned home to convalesce after an emergency operation for appendicitis last week at York County hospital, Newmarket. He is progressing very well, and hopes to be at the harvest before too long.

Mrs. Stanley Smith of Kinghorn was entertained by a group of neighbors at the home of Mrs. E. Kyle one evening last week, as she and her two children, Janet and Douglas make departure to join Mr. Smith in their new home at Burlington. A number of household gifts were given Mrs. Smith and the children were also remembered. The Smith family lived in the home of Mr. Aubrey Campbell for some time, and since Mr. Smith found employment at Burlington the family remained at Kinghorn. The evening was a great surprise and thrill for Mrs. Smith, as such things are unheard of in the old land, which the family left last year, flying from England to Canada. She leaves the neighbourhood with best wishes. Janet, 8, had been a pupil at Kinghorn school.

Mrs. Ed Kyle and daughter, Isobel, were guests at Perth, during Old Home Week there from June 27 to July 4th. Born at Smith's Falls, near Perth, Mrs. Kyle was one of the thousands to return to the place where she attended school. Moving events of the week gave happiness to the great home gathering, with 15,000 on one day alone. Mrs. Kyle visited with friends and everything possible was carried out to make the full week a source of never forgettable memories.

All Saints W. A. held a successful afternoon tea and home baking sale on the church lawn on July 7th.

Eversley W. A. was entertained at Mrs. Arthur Bovair's last week. Eversley W.M.S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Alfred Gillham at Strange or the evening of July 20th. The date has been set forward one day due to King Street Dance on July 21st. Mrs. D. M. Ross and Mrs. Arthur Bovair will arrange the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wells, Toronto, on Sunday, who motored them to Oshawa Beach Park where they enjoyed a picnic lunch prepared by Mrs. Wells. This was a surprise treat for Mr. and Mrs. Curtis who enjoyed the outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curtis of Detroit visited the former's sister, Mrs. M. J. Winter. Anticipating the railway strike they hurried home early this week.
