At the last regular meeting of Markham township council it was decided to draw up a new agreement with the police villages of Thornhill and Unionville. The new agreement will define clearly the responsibilities and duties of the police village trustees.

A Scotsman, upon entering a saddler's, asked for a single spur.

"What use is one spur?" asked the man.

"Well," replied Sandy, "if I get one side of the horse to go the other side will have to come w' it."

Doctor: "You must avoid all forms of excitement."

Patient: "Can't I even look at them on the street?"

Clerk: "Here's a pretty card with a lovely sentiment: 'To the only girl I ever loved!'"

Customer: "Good, I'll take twelve of them."

A stop sign has been erected at the intersection on Yonge Street and No. 7 highway at Thornhill. Residents of Thornhill can now cross the street in safety which is an improvement which is appreciated.

If you have any job printing requirements, you are assured of good quality work at the right price at your home paper office, The Liberal, telephone 9, Richmond Hill.

In most cities and towns in Ontario, the legal speed limit is 30 miles an hour. You may drive at that speed (but no faster) provided traffic, road and weather conditions allow this speed without endangering the safety of anyone in your vicinity. Take it easy and live longer.

MAPLE

Miss Edith Caddo and Mr. Glenn Glendinning of Collingwood were week end visitors with Miss Caddo's aunt, Mrs. T. F. Jackson and family.

The "Knit-Wit Club" which was very active during the war sending boxes, knitted goods, etc. to local boys overseas, disbanded at the end of hostilities. However, the girls still stay together more or less, and always honor any brides among their members. On Monday evening, July 26th, the Club held a social evening at the home of Miss Marion Watson in Woodbridge and presented their latest bride-to-be, Miss Marjorie Bailey, with a beautiful mahogany lamp table. This is the seventh "Knit-Wit" member to be so honored on the occasion of her marriage. In these days of high prices, the beautiful, friendly, unselfish spirit which keeps the club together deserves a great deal of admiration.

Mrs. Clare Lake of Binghampton, New York, was a guest of Mrs. Geo. Bailey and family for several days last week.

On Thursday morning, July 22nd, Dr. Stewart W. Armitage of Maple passed away after a long siege of ill health. Dr. Armitage, who was a Veterinarian Surgeon, having graduated from Winnipeg College and a post-graduate course in Chicago, was in his 63rd year. The family moved from Roblin, Manitoba, to Ontario in 1939, living a year in Toronto, then settling in King, Ont., in 1940, later moving to their present residence in Maple four years ago. Dr. Armitage was a kindly gentleman, beloved by those who knew him. He leaves to mourn his loss his widow, Jeanette Riddell, and four sons, George of King, Allan of Manitoba, Harry of Brampton and Tom at home. Interment took place Saturday afternoon in King Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Johnson officiating. The sympathy of the neighborhood is extended to the bereaved widow and family.

Mr. George Harrow is holidaying with his daughter, Mary, for a few weeks.

Maple United Church services will resume August 1st at 11:30 a.m. The special speaker will be Rev. W. N. Charlton, Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Toronto. Sunday School is at 10:30 a.m.

Mr. T. Wilson of Calgary, Alta., visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robson.

The vicar's wife asked after the old man's granddaughter, and was told, "She's not at all well, ma'am; she's in the hospital. There's something amiss w' er throat, and they want to operate on 'er. But I doan't want 'er to 'ave an operation. One slip o' the knife and yer 'ead's off. And when yer 'ead's off yer ain't no more good."

EUGENE S. BRIGGS

Of Enid, Oklahoma, new President of the International Association of Lions Clubs. He was unanimously elected at the 31st annual convention of the association which closed in New York to-day.

The convention concluded one of the most successful years in the history of Lions International. The secretary-general reported the formation of 819 new clubs in the year and the addition of 31,696 members to the roster of the association. To-day there are 6,808 clubs with a total membership of 358,144. Lions International is now the largest and strongest service club organization in the world with clubs in 23 countries on five continents.

York County Lions Clubs include: Richmond Hill, Thornhill, Maple, Unionville, Schomberg, Weston, Aurora and Newmarket.
