OBITUARY

LATE WILLIAM N. PEARSON

William N. Pearson, for twenty-two years a member of the staff of The Liberal, died at the Toronto East General Hospital, Tuesday evening, July 27th, following an operation. Born in Stouffville he learned the printing trade as a young man and worked in Midland, Toronto and Oakville before coming to Richmond Hill in 1926.

A lover of music he played with many musical organizations during his lifetime and was for a time a member of Richmond Hill and Willowdale band.

He was a skilled craftsman who took great pride in his work and was a conscientious workman and a loyal friend. In his passing this newspaper loses a trusted and faithful employee.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from his late residence in Stouffville and interment followed in the Stouffville cemetery.

LATE GEORGE B. REYNOLDS

George B. Reynolds, retired for the past ten years, died suddenly on July 20th at his home on May Avenue.

Mr. Reynolds was born in Trowbridge, Somerset, England. After spending his youth sailing the seven seas, Canada became the land of his choice and he settled in Toronto. He was associated with The C. J. Bodley Company for many years before becoming Postmaster at Langstaff, Ontario. Ill-health forced his retirement from active occupation.

Imbued with a love of things beautiful, Mr. Reynolds began the garden which has become a showplace in the community. His flowers have received the highest awards in showings at the Canadian National Exhibition, Richmond Hill, Thornhill and other centres. His host of friends have in their gardens flowers upon which he lavished attention. All will remember his hearty greeting and the pleasure he received in their visit.

LATE MRS. RALPH WIDEMAN

On July 21st, 1948, a much loved wife and devoted mother left this world of the dying to dwell in that country where death can never intrude. Mary Louisa Wideman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Doner, late of Glendale, California, was united in marriage to Ralph Wideman, Markham Township in the year 1900. Last week after a brief illness she entered heavens gates, where many loved ones awaited her.

In early youth she accepted Christ as her Lord and Saviour and became a devoted member of the Brethren in Christ Church at Heise Hill, always rendering what helpful service she could in grateful return for the abundant Grace and Goodness of God bestowed upon her since her childhood.

She is survived by her husband, Ralph and daughters: (Cora) Mrs. Charles Conner and (Detta) Mrs. Gordon Boyce; and a son, Murray. Two half sisters and a half-brother live in California, Mrs. Delta Cole of Glendale, Mrs. Lucille Melone of Long Branch and Harry Doner of Newhall. These with many cousins remain to share happy memories of her love and comradeship and to wait together for the glad reunion when we all reach home.

A brief service was conducted in the home by Rev. J. R. Steckley of Gormley, and at the Heise Hill Church, Rev. Norman Rowan and Bishop A. Winger delivered the funeral message.

The Henderson Sisters Gospel Trio rendered very effectively the beautiful and well known hymn, "Sometime we'll understand." An impressive committal service followed in the cemetery adjacent to the church, after which a large company of relatives and friends gathered at the Wideman home where refreshments were served.

A pretty lawn wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, when Florence Lillian Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Morrison of Beaverton, became the bride of Gordon William Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Watson of Maple. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Profit of Beaverton, under an arch of evergreen, banked with baskets of peonies and delphiniums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of blue faconne crepe, coronet of lily of the valley and short veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses and wore the gift of the groom, a string of pearls. Miss Irene Caldwell, the bride's attendant, was gowned in pink crepe, with coronet of pink and blue flowers and carried pink roses. Little Miss Helen Morrison, niece of the bride was a dainty flower girl in pale pink and carried a nosegay of blue flowers.

Mr. Lawrence Keffer acted as best man. The wedding music was played by Mrs. William Morrison of Montreal and the bride's brother, Mr. Russell Morrison of Beaverton sang, "I'll Walk With You" during the signing of the register.

For the reception, Mrs. Morrison, mother of the bride, received in grey crepe with grey hat and corsage of pink sweet peas. Mrs. Watson, mother of the groom, assisted in mauve crepe with navy hat and mauve sweet peas.

Before and after the ceremony, Mr. W. Grant of Castlemore, brother-in-law of the bride, in his Highland regalia, piped several selections.

Later the bride donned a rust crepe dress with white shortie coat and white accessories for a trip north and upon their return will reside in Maple.
