IN MEMORIAM

McDONALD — In loving memory of a dear mother, Sarah McDonald, who passed away August 25th, 1947, also our dear father, Murdoch McDonald, who entered into rest September 8th, 1931.

Quiet memories will linger forever. Time cannot change them it's true, Years that may come cannot sever Our loving remembrance of them. O how patient was their suffering, When no hand could them ease God, the helper of the helpless, Saw their pain and gave them peace. — Lovingly remembered by family and grandchildren.

IN MEMORIAM

BROOKE — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Oscar Brooke, who passed away, August 24, 1945.

Time may heal the broken hearted, Years that may come cannot sever But it cannot fill the longing, For the loved ones gone before. Who shall say the grief is lessened Tho' the smiles may hide the tears, Memories keep the wound still open Despite the passing of the years. — Lovingly remembered by wife, family and brother.

Richmond Hill had a brief visit recently from Col. A. C. Taylor, O. B. E., F. R. C. S., son of Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, Arnold St. He had recently returned from India where he held a responsible position as Surgeon to the Viceroy, Lord Wavell, and later to the Governor-General, Lord Louis Mountbatten. He was in India when the transfer took place of India from British to Indian hands, and the two Dominions of Pakistan and India came into being. He was through all the exciting days that followed when widespread rioting took place, and the consequent migration of millions of people from one part of India to the other. During the visit of Lord and Lady Mountbatten to Canada when the former will officially open the Canadian National Exhibition, Col. Taylor will act as His Excellency's Staff Officer and afterward will locate in Canada in medical practice.

Mr. Samuel Wenger wishes to ex-daying in the Muskoka district this week.

Fall, then Winter, but before you fall for Old Man Winter, fall in at the Fall Show, Saturday, September 11th, in the Richmond Hill Arena.

What kind of marrow have you? Did Old Mother Hubbard squash the pumpkin, or did parsnip the last rose of summer? Anyway carrot the garden into the Arena on Saturday, September 11th and lettuce see who can beat.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McLatchy report having spent a delightful holiday in the Laurentians, taking in the various golf courses along the trip, including the Beaconsfield Golf and Country Club where they were guests of Bill Kerr, former Pro of Thornhill Golf Club.
