PRESERVED PEACHES 35 YEARS, STILL EXCELLENT

Mrs. Henry Steckley of Gormley is the proud possessor of a jar of peaches which she preserved back in 1913, or 35 years ago. Mrs. Steckley explained that the peaches had been preserved by her when living in California, and that she had on occasion kept fruit as long, indicating that here is an expert in the preserving class. Similar jars done down over 30 years were found excellent in flavor when opened, Mrs. Steckley explained.

Ironing Trick

For perfect ironing, store dampened clothes overnight in covered cold-pack canner or other large container with lid. The clothes will be evenly moistened and easy to iron.

When using excelsior for packing china or glassware, dampen the excelsior and as it dries it will shape itself to the article, thereby forming a protective framework.
