OBITUARY

LATE MRS. JOHN W. BOWSER
Struck by a motor car while she walked on the highway a few yards her home gate just south of Aurora, Mrs. John W. Bowser was instantly killed last Saturday night. A devoted wife she had travelled widely with her husband who has carried on extensive construction work in many countries of the world. Possessed of a charming personality she was devoted to her home and family, and in her quiet and unassuming way extended many acts of kindness which ever will be remembered by those who knew her. The funeral service held Tuesday afternoon from P. M. Thompson Funeral Parlors, and a wealth of floral tributes were evidence of the sorrow of a wide circle of friends and of sincere and heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved husband, and son, John Jr.

DEATH

BOADWAY — After a lingering illness patiently born at her home in Unionville, Wednesday, September 8th, Martha Ann Stiver, widow of Franklin Boadway, in her 87th year. Resting at above address, funeral service Friday at 2:30 p.m. Interment at Lutheran Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

DIBB — In loving memory of our dear grandmother, Annie Dibb, who passed away September 9, 1947.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last, The world's weary troubles and trials are past; In silence she suffered, in patience she bore, Till God called her home to suffer no more.

Lovingly remembered by her granddaughters, Irene and Laurine.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stephenson of Gormley, Ont., announce the engagement of their daughter Muriel Doeven, to William George Mitchell, only son of Mrs. Mitchell and the late Mr. Hugh Gordon Mitchell of Oak Ridges. The marriage will take place on Saturday, September 25th, at 3 o'clock, in Mt. Pisgah United Church, Gormley.

Miss Meerey will begin teaching again on September 13 and requests any pupils who have not already done so, to make arrangements for their lessons as soon as possible.

Last Thursday evening was the occasion of a very happy event, when a large group of young people of the United Missionary Churches of Gormley and Bethesda gathered in the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Mansbridge, 153 Yonge St., to entertain at a shower in honour of Miss Marie Pike whose marriage to Douglas Mansbridge took place Saturday. Little Carol Mansbridge delighted the audience with several humorous selections in elocution.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Sure Curtain Darn
To darn a hole in a flimsy curtain, cover the hole with a piece of white paper and "darn" it with the sewing machine needle. Run stitching back and forth. When the curtain is laundered, the paper will dissolve and a neat darn will remain.

Keep electric appliances free from accumulations of dust, dirt, food crumbs, rust, water and oil.

Before you clean or examine an electrical appliance, be sure to disconnect it from the electric outlet.

Dry Salt
I find that a small syrup pitcher — the kind with the plastic cover — is perfect on my range as a salt dispenser. The handle and snap cover allow easy, sure pouring. The salt stays dry and is always handy.

THE BROOK
"Babble, babble," says the brook, Running in this meadow nook. Farther up, I see the trees, And very close are honey bees. Listen to the frogs, they're chirping; For in this water they are lurking.
"Babble," says the brook again, "I hope we have an all-day rain: For like I am, I may get dry; Then wouldn't the little children cry?
For ever though I'm just a brook The children think of me as 'King of the Nook!'"

"Here the fish are playing school, They're listening to the Catfish rule; And on the bank green grass shall be Very sweet, because of me!"
And on the bank, a rose looks down, It says, "We both should wear a crown."
