TOWNSHIP OF NORTH YORK DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

The Low Cost of Health

Beset, as we are, by the high cost of living, and more or less frustrated thereby, it is gratifying to know that many of the necessities of health may be had without price, to wit:

It costs nothing to secure an ample amount of fresh air in our homes.

It costs nothing to walk in the open, breathing properly and keeping the body in the erect posture. It costs nothing to exercise properly every day.

It costs nothing to chew and masticate our food thoroughly.

It costs practically nothing to clean the teeth twice each day.

It costs nothing to stop using medicines except as advised by a physician.

It costs nothing to be cheerful and of happy disposition, to stop worrying and to cut out grouches.

It costs nothing to choose wisely the rather costly food-stuffs of to-day. By so doing we may, in fact, favorably influence the cost.

CARL E. HILL, M.D., M.O.H.
