EDGELEY

A very interesting meeting of the Edgeley Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Anderson last Thursday afternoon. The program was in charge of Mrs. Nelson Peelar. A short interesting paper on "Co-operative Housekeeping" was read by Mrs. Clelland Thompson followed by a piano solo "Largo" played very beautifully by Mrs. Gordon Anderson. Mrs. N. Peelar then gave a paper on "Guiding the behaviour of children" which contained some useful hints for the mothers present. The business was then disposed of and one interesting item was the decision of the ladies to hold their next meeting, which will be on the afternoon of October 7, down at the home of "The Society of Crippled Civilians." After the meeting the ladies will be escorted through the building by one of the staff. This will be a very interesting meeting and any ladies interested are cordially invited to accompany the institute. Also the members of the Woman's Association are invited to join the ladies. Those planning to go are asked to be at the Edgeley corner at 12.45 o'clock, where cars will be waiting to take them to Thornhill where they will board the trolley for the remainder of the trip. Remember the date, October 7th, and at Edgeley corner at 12.45. Ladies, avail yourself of this unusual opportunity.

Congratulations are extended to M. and Mrs. Norman Hastings (Shirley Dalziel) on being the proud parents of a baby daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Price and little sons are moving on Friday, October 1st to Macville where they have purchased a farm. Our best wishes go to them for a successful and happy life in the community that is new to them.

A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Joyce Anderson last Friday evening in honour of her approaching marriage to Mr. Edward Whittaker. The gifts were many, handsome and useful. Mr. Whittaker was given a presentation of a beautiful lamp and table on the same evening. After a dainty lunch served by the ladies the friends departed, leaving for the bride and groom to be, their best wishes for a happy wedded life.

Last Tuesday the pictures were shown at Concord school. There will be others shown in about five weeks. The weekly euchre will be held in Edgeley Hall on Wednesday, October 6, at 8:30 p.m.
