EDGELEY

(Held over from last week)

A very interesting evening was spent last Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Price when a number of their young friends gave them a surprise by walking in on them to spend the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Price were caught very much "off guard" which added much to the enjoyment of the visitors and by the smiles with which they were welcomed, did not detract any pleasure from the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Price and little sons, Kenneth and Bobby were moving the following Saturday and their friends took this way of wishing them success and lots of friends in their recently purchased farm in Macville. As a token of this they were presented with a breakfast set of dishes. Mr. and Mrs. Price expressed their deep appreciation of their friends' kindness and invited the same group to visit them at a near date in their new home. The very happy evening was concluded by the partaking of a very substantial lunch provided by the ladies.

On October 14th the ladies of six Institutes, namely: Woodbridge and Blirwick, Kleinburg, Vellore, Maple and Edgeley are invited to attend a lecture given by Mrs. Clarence Hayes of Georgetown on "Aids to effective speaking". This is a little different from the usual but should be very helpful and interesting. A full attendance is urged.

The Anniversary Services of Edgeley Church will be held on Sunday, October 17th, at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., with Rev. J. J. Black, B. A., B. D., of Newtonbrook in charge in the morning and Rev. C. B. Brethren, Richmond Hill, taking the service in the evening. Mr. Brethren will be assisted by the Richmond Hill choir. Special music will also be provided for the morning service. More details later but a real treat is promised and everyone is invited very cordially to be present at both services.

(Not by Ripley)

Toronto has four men on the civic payroll with the title of Bird Disposal Officers.

Their job is to go around at night, shooting off fireworks (firecrackers to you) under trees which, they suspect, harbor starlings.

How they know where the starlings are, isn't revealed.

The pay is $2.50 a night.

Hand me a roman candle, boys.
