

Thornhill District News

Mr. E. Kohler, Mr. and Mrs. P. Bone, Mrs. Geo. Reynolds, Mrs. Ruth Banks, Mrs. B. Heslop and Mr. and Mrs. K. Mackintosh attended the annual Horticultural meeting of District No. 5 held at Scarboro Collegiate recently.

Mr. Bone, as President of the Ontario Horticultural Assoc., brought greetings.

After three years' service, Mr. R. D. Little announced his decision to retire as District Director, and Mr. Tiffin of Scarboro was elected to fill the position, with Rev. Spencer of New Toronto, assisting.

In thanking Mr. Little for outstanding service during his directorship, Mr. John Clarke coupled Mr. Little's name with those of Mr. Bone and Mr. Kohler. "These men," he said "had gone far beyond the ordinary line of duty in promoting the interests of horticulture."

Guest speaker was Rev. Spencer of New Toronto and his topic "The Divine Gardener". He mentioned various instances in the Bible where gardens are mentioned. His talk was a condensation of an address given at the Convention by Dr. Charlotte Whitten.

Miss M. Dove of the North Toronto Society gave a brief history of the first horticultural societies, and went on to describe in detail the method of handling North Toronto's highly successful shows and meetings.

Mr. John Hall spoke for a few moments, as did the editor of "Your Garden and Home."

Colored slides projected by a new machine purchased by the Association were shown by Mr. John Clarke who explained that both machine and slides would be available to societies throughout the province, together with an accompanying manuscript.

Mr. Good, president of the Stouffville Horticultural Society, was asked to explain the astounding increase in membership. This, he said, was due to a highly organized canvass.

On October 16th the Thornhill Cubs will celebrate Apple Day by endeavoring to sell an Apple to everyone in the village. Due to bad weather the Paper Collection by the Thornhill Scouts on October 9th had to be postponed, but will be held later.

For the Parade on Sunday all Cubs are asked to meet at the school at 2.15 in full uniform, with shorts.

Drumhead Service — Scouts Parade
On Sunday, October 17th, at 3 p.m., Thornhill will be host for the York Central District Scout Parade. It is expected there will be 400 Scouts Cubs, Guides and Brownies in the march which will start from Thornhill Public School and finish at the Park. Music will be provided by the bands of 26th Toronto Scouts and the Toronto Sea Cadets. Provincial police will escort the parade.
Scoutmaster Campbell Smith, Cubmaster Mrs. T. W. Jackson, Mrs. J. Sanderson, Brown Owl of the Brownies and Captain Mrs. Duncan Ball of the newly formed Guide Troop will march with their respective troops and packs. These leaders have given unsparingly of their time to make a success of their undertakings, and they are to be congratulated and thanked by a grateful community for the fine work they are doing for our young people.

Local clergy including Rev. E. E. Kent, Rev. Mr. Hirtle, Rev. S.A.R. Wood and Father McMahon, as well as a number of prominent citizens, have been invited to this service and it is expected that the newly acquired Scout Hut will be open for inspection. This outdoor service promises to be an inspiring event and well worth attending. You can show your support and appreciation by your presence.

Mrs. H. Mizen is spending this Thanksgiving week at the home of a son in Northern Ontario.

Thornhill Women's Institute will hold its regular monthly meeting next Thursday, October 21st, in the United Church Sunday school room, at 2.20 p.m. Every lady in the community is invited to see the film which is being presented by a representative of the Blue Cross Hospitalization Plan, and to take part in the Apron Parade which will be a second feature of the meeting. Prizes are being offered for aprons which will be grouped into two classes, one utility and the other fancy, all such aprons to become the property of the W.I., and to be sold at their Annual Bazaar early in December. Anyone may participate.

Fat Collection
Friends of the local Cub Pack will be interested to learn that $11.20 was realized as a result of the latest fat collection. As promised by Cubmaster, Mrs. T. Jackson, another collection will be made shortly, but please save and strain all used fats in clean tin cans — not jars, since these are so easily broken.

On behalf of Mrs. Jackson, many thanks to those friends in the community who went to the trouble of saving this waste fat.
The Cubs had a picnic in the Park later in the day, featured by a marshmallow roast with the necessary bonfire. A treasure hunt by compass directions only, was won by Carl Beaton who found the treasure.

The Young Married Couples Group, a newly formed organization in the United Church here, held their first get-together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Heron, Steele's Ave., on Tuesday evening. Although the evening turned out damp and chilly, thirty-six attended the wicker roast, which had to be held indoors. The program in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Heron and Mr. and Mrs. A. Durant, included games and a lively sing-song. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 27th, in the Church, when the definite constitution will be adopted, and young married couples are asked to keep this date open.

Buttonville W. I. To Present Play
Sponsored by Thornhill Women's Institute, a play will be presented in Lawrence Memorial Hall by a group of members from Buttonville Women's Institute. Wednesday evening, October 27th, has been reserved for the showing of this play, half the pro-

HEADFORD

Sunday, October 17, will be anniversary Sunday at Headford United Church, with services at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. The guest speaker will be Rev. J. Atton. Music will be supplied by the Willowdale Male Quartette. The services at Brown's Corner and Victoria Square United Churches will be withdrawn for the day to enable everyone to join in the worship services at Headford.

ceeds of which are to swell the coffers of Thornhill W. I.

C.G.I.T. Group Soon To Be Formed

A C.G.I.T. group is being formed in the United Church here under the able leadership of Mrs. A. Martindale. Meetings will be held on Mondays at 7 p.m., commencing October 18th. In the meantime, a hike is being planned for this Saturday, October 16th, and girls interested are asked to contact Mrs. Martindale at Thornhill 109W.

The W.M.S. of Thornhill United Church met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Johns, Yonge St. The theme, as announced, was "A View of the Mission Fields, via the Missionary Monthly," and under separate headings, was taken by Mrs. R. Simpson, Mrs. G. Russell, Mrs. C. Johns and Mrs. H. Burke sang two solos. Arrangements have been made for the annual Thankoffering services to be held on Tuesday, November 9th, in the Church.

Thornhill United Church was tastefully decorated, in keeping with the harvest season, for the Thanksgiving service last Sunday. "The Sin of Ingratitude" was the title of the sermon by Rev. E. E. Kent, and the choir rendered the anthem "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" by Maunder.

An announcement was made that anniversary services would be held on October 24th at 11 a.m., with Rev. W. E. Wilson, M.A., of Lansing United Church, preaching, and at 7 p.m., with Rev. P. Jones, Willowdale United Church, as guest speaker. Further announcements next week.

Incidentally, the Stewards have set the financial objective at $1000, proceeds to be applied to the retiring of the mortgage.

Baking Sale by Brownie Mothers will be held in the United Church on Saturday, October 16, at 3 p.m.
