IN MEMORIAM

NICHOLS — In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Archie L. Nichols, who passed away October 23rd, 1941.
 The unseen strings of memory's harp are softly touched to-day,
 Thoughts of you come crowding fast
 And tears we cannot stay.
 Some day, dear Archie, we'll meet again
 When God's great will is done
 We'll stand once more beside you,
 Dear Archie,
 When he calls for us to come,
 In the Garden of Memories
 We meet every day.

Wrestling Bouts At Local Arena

Garner and Hughson versus Trounce and Grant

The wrestling fans are in for a treat on Tuesday, October 26th at the Richmond Hill Arena when the teams of Red Garner and Ernie Hughson with Carlo Trounce and Tiger Earl Grant. The last match was won by Trounce and the "Tiger" after one of the most exciting bouts ever seen in the local sports centre. By popular request this match was remade to give the fans some more red hot action and also to give Red and Ernie a chance to even it up. This bout will be two out of three with no time limit.

Cleve Burton who gave such a very impressive performance on the last card is in against Ed Mangovich, the rugged Ryding boy, the only time that Ed lost a match was against Burton and on this card Mangovich is out for revenge.

Tom "Junior" Cooney, the Richvale wildcat will lock holds with Tommy Haire of Toronto in the Semi-Final which will be two out of three falls, 15 minute time limit.

These bouts are in aid of the East Vaughan Ratepayers' Community Hall Fund so let's see everybody out. The first match will start at 8:30 p.m.

WEDDING

CORNER-JORDAN

In a setting of colorful 'mums, a charming fall marriage was solemnized last Saturday afternoon in Langstaff Baptist church when Margaret Elsie Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Jordan, Garden Ave., became the bride of Mr. John A. Corner, son of Mr. E. G. Corner of Pefferlaw and the late Mrs. Corner. Rev. Albert Jones officiated, assisted by Dr. M. H. Blandin. Mr. Don Marritt was soloist and Mrs. Carter was pianist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a striking gown of traditional white slipper satin with moulded bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves pointed over her hands. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet headdress of orange blossoms and she carried a fan-shaped bouquet of red roses with white satin streamers.

Bridesmaid was Miss Marion Slinn of Toronto, cousin of the bride. Her gown was of blue velvet and her matching headdress was accented with tiny white feathers. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white asters. Best man was Ralph Corner, brother of the groom, and ushers were Bob Jordan, the bride's eldest brother, and Stan Carter.

For the reception held later in the young couple's new home on Yongeview Ave., Langstaff, the bride's mother received in a cinnamon brown gown with matching accessories and corsage of bronze 'mums and white asters.

For the wedding trip to Niagara Falls and points west, the bride wore a navy blue bolero suit with grey shortie coat and matching accessories.

Rev. John McGillivray was the preacher in Langstaff Baptist church last Sunday evening, and the Langstaff Girl's Quartette sang. Next Sunday evening, Rev. W. S. Burke will be the speaker, and Eldon Tuck of Ottawa, guest instrumentalist. On Sunday morning, Miss Ruth Magarry of Willowdale sang.
