King City District News

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jarvis and son, Stephen spent a recent week end at Rocky Island, near Port Sydney.

Misses Eleanor and Merle Cummings, Toronto, spent Saturday here with Miss Eva Dennis at the home of Mrs. A. Badger.

Folliott-Kent
In a setting of autumn flowers, Central United Church, Weston, was the scene of a prettily wedding on Friday, October 9th, when Rev. E. B. Eddy solemnized the marriage vows of Valerie Kent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kent and Harold Folliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Harvey Folliott of King.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride made a charming picture in a white satin gown with fitted bodice, full skirt and long circular train. Her veil was caught to a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible with streamers of tiny rosebuds. Mrs. Audrie Kent, sister-in-law of the bride, was her attendant wearing a turquoise moire taffeta gown with boat neck, a fitted bodice and slight train. Her costume was completed by a matching feather bonnet and she carried a nosegay of roses.

The best man was Keith Kent, the bride's brother and George Bridgeman ushered. Mrs. Isobel Bridgeman was soloist and the church organist accompanied her.

At the Old Mill, the bride's mother received in a wine crepe ensemble with corsage of yellow roses assisted by the groom's mother wearing grey crepe and pink roses. For a honeymoon spent at Hotel Britannia, Lake of Bays, the bride travelled in brown taffeta, with brown and beige accessories. The couple are residing at Weston.

Cooktown Creamery Robbed
Cookstown creamery owned by Max Kaplan, was robbed through Saturday night or early Sunday morning last week and 42 pounds of butter and two motor-operated heaters were removed. P.C. Carl Kreuger who investigated said thieves had forced open an outside door, sawed their way through an inside door heavily barred, and loaded loot in a car for a quick get-away. Manager Joseph Doyle discovered the loss about 10 a.m. on Sunday morning. Mr. Kaplan has offered a reward for clue to the robbers. Creameries oft-times come in for annual fall or spring clean-ups, and Cookstown is one of the first this Autumn season.

King City Bakery
The new bakery at King, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Bob McLeod, is being well patronized. Good home baked food finds ready customers. Mrs. McLeod has recently completed a special cooking course which added to her former experience and knowledge reinforces her skill.

Mr. Herb E. Ross is now convalescing at his home at Stranville in Toronto, and still shock received from a high-way traffic accident last week. He had been treated at Newmarket hospital for several days.

A large amount in sheep claims has been paid out by King township council, totalling $322 for a period of one month. Mrs. Melinda Bryan of Lloydtown was the highest claimant for $191.00. King and Vaughan Plowmen's Association has been granted the sum of $50 by King township council.

Mrs. Len Robb, Allen, Lenore and Russell spent last Friday in Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Huckle of Bracebridge called on Mrs. W. Rolling and Mrs. Alfred Gillham on their way from Toronto to Bracebridge last week, having left their son, Jack, in residence at Toronto University where he begins a course in arts. Mr. Huckle is postmaster in the northern town and paid a call on the King postmaster Wells McDonald. The Huckles had great praise for their own town, and are very active in both community and church interests. Mrs. Huckle has continued her vocal work, remains on reserve teaching staff for the town and nearby districts. She was teacher of King junior room 20 years ago before her marriage, and her sister, Mrs. Jack Archibald of Toronto was principal at the same time, teaching the senior room. The years have made no change in Bill and Birdie.

Library Hours for King
To accommodate many who are subscribers or potential subscribers to King Memorial Library a new schedule of hours has been drawn up by the library board. Wednesdays of each week, from 3 to 8.30 p.m.; on Fridays of each week 7.30 to 9 p.m. Use of Friday evening extends the hours thereby. The board has announced new books for adults and children, noting the popular Pilgrim's Inn by Goudree, Peony by Peal Buck; Two Solitudes by MacLennan; Lardners and Laurel Woods by Kays-Smith and The Bishop's Mantle by Turnbull. 147 new books have been acquired since the spring season for both adults and children and to these have been added a case of books, the gift of Major C. M. Chandler which

VELLORE

The Vellore Sr. W.I. met in the Memorial Hall for their October meeting when a splendid crowd was in attendance to hear and enjoy the three act comedy "Sister Susie Swings It" put on by members of the Institute. Much credit is due those taking part. A bountiful lunch was served to all in the basement afterward. The members wish to also thank those of the Junior Farmers and Junior Institute who visited with us.
