LANGSTAFF
Baptist Church Notes
The Christmas entertainment will be held on Wednesday, the 29th of December.
The Gear Girls Trio provided the music at the evening service last Sunday, and Mabel Baker and Dorothy Spentely sang a duet in the morning. On behalf of Jack Adams in the Muskoka Hills and friends at Langstaff, Rev. Albert Jones thanked all who had brought gifts for Jack's work in the northland. Two large decorated cartons were overflowing.
At the Deacon's meeting recently, it was decided to approach the members of the church regarding the advisability of moving the annual meeting on to the last Wednesday in March instead of holding it in January as formerly. It was felt that the weather in March would be more favourable.
Before the dedication of baby James Caines, Rev. Albert Jones, speaking on the subject, said that dedication is neither christening nor baptism. It is not an ordinance, but is a public decision on the part of the parents to return the child to the Lord to use as He sees fit.
In conducting open session on Sunday morning, Rev. Albert Jones used a jigsaw puzzle to demonstrate the lesson, reading scripture verses printed on the back of each piece to prove that the whole Bible is necessary. Not one word can be eliminated or the whole picture is spoilt.

WIFE CAN BAKE OR BUILD
Mrs. Harry Winn whose husband is building a house on Arnold Crescent is not the type of wife who sits at home in one room and broods about the housing shortage. She does something about it.
When Harry Winn sold his house on Mill St. and had to find another in a hurry young Mrs. Winn volunteered to help him. She has worked with her husband step by step, and has done every job from carpentry to insulation and painting.
"I'd rather have Win help me than any two workmen" said Harry Winn. His opinion is heartily endorsed by the builders of the other houses springing up like mushrooms in the district. Their preference may be due to the fact that as well as her skill in driving a straight nail, pretty Mrs. Winn can bake a mean apple pie. She knocks off mixing paint a little before noon, and mixes up pastry instead in the wood stove temporarily installed in the half-finished utility room.
This explains why the Winns had no difficulty in getting outside help for the specialized jobs of chimney building and plumbing.
Started late in September the young couple are already living in their new home with their cat and two dogs, and Mrs. Winn is planning her Christmas dinner.
"Of course the rooms won't be slicked up to the last coat of trim and wax," she said, "But we're warm and have a roof over our head at last."

CHRISTMAS SUPERSTITIONS
These are some old Christmas superstitions to remember, if you want to be happy all next year.
Remember these when Christmas Eve comes round, and maybe you'll make 1949 a lucky year.
Eat apples at midnight on Christmas Eve and you'll enjoy good health.
Be the first to open wide the door to let Christmas in, and you will be the luckiest person in the house for a year. But you must cry: "Welcome, Father Christmas."
If a dark haired lad is your first Christmas visitor, good fortune is in store for you.
Hear the chirping of a cricket on Christmas Day, and your affairs will prosper.
Don't refuse mince pie at Christmas time or fortune will forget to smile at you.
The schoolmaster was lecturing to a class upon the circulation of the blood. "If I stand upon my head," said he, "the blood will run down to my head, will it not?"
"Yes, sir," assented the boys.
"Then" said the master, "why does the blood not run into my feet when I stand on my feet?"
There was a pause for a few minutes, when a bright youth replied, "Please, sir, it's because your feet ain't empty." — North Bay Nugget.

TRAFFIC DEATH TOLL SERIOUS
Special Holiday Caution urged
To all MOTORISTS and PEDESTRIANS
This is an urgent appeal to all citizens, motorists and pedestrians alike to co-operate earnestly in keeping down the death and accident toll on Ontario streets and highways.
Care and caution in driving and walking are necessary at all times—but particularly so in the holiday season.
December is a dangerous month, with more hours of darkness and changeable weather conditions. Preoccupied shoppers, young and old, are abroad in great numbers. In the excitement of Christmas time, people sometimes tend to forget their customary caution.
As the end of 1948 approaches, let us all join together in determining that for the whole Province we will make it a safe as well as a happy Christmas and New Year.
