On Tuesday last, following the weekly game at the Eglinton Bowling Lanes, the lady members of the Summit Golf and Country Club, met in Coles Restaurant to honour a fellow member and bride to be, Miss Lucy Yerex, who was presented with a Penguin hot and cold Server as a token of the goodwill wished by members of the Club.

On December 28th, Mrs. W. J. Kroetsch, Misses Anne and Rose Kroetsch attended the Religious Reception of Miss Margaret Kroetsch at the Pines, Chatham. Rev. W. T. Kroetsch C.S.S.R. was celebrant at the Solemn High Mass.

The ceremony was attended by members of several Religious Orders, and many of the diocesan clergy. Father Edgar O.F.M., Dun Scotus, Detroit, a cousin of Mrs. Kroetsch, was present for the occasion. Friends from Detroit, Windsor, London, Hamilton and Toronto were in attendance.

The spacious 'rumpus' room, still decorated in Yuletide fashion, at 2 Yonge St., home of Mrs. A. J. McLatchy, provided an ideal setting for a kitchen shower held Monday evening, in honour of Miss Lucy Yerex, popular bride to be. Seated under a traditional white bell in an elaborately decorated pink and white chair, Miss Yerex looked very charming and happy as she received many lovely and useful gifts of kitchen gadgets and utensils, from a number of her many friends who showered her with sincere good wishes for the future.

OBITUARY

MARY JANE DUNCAN SHAY

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon of Mrs. Mary Jane Duncan Shay, who passed away at Oshawa New Year's day in her 92nd year. The late Mrs. Shay, before her marriage was Mary Jane Sanderson, and was born in Richmond Hill and spent most of her long life in this district. Married to the late John Duncan, she resided for many years on the Duncan farm, south east corner of Yonge street and lot 40 sideroad in Markham township and later for many years on Church St., Richmond Hill. Her second husband, Robert F. Shay of New York also predeceased her. She is survived by a step-daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hall of Vancouver, two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Will Duncan of Oshawa, Mrs. Garnet Duncan of Toronto and a number of grandchildren. Interment took place in Richmond Hill.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH OAK RIDGES

A very interesting service will take place in the above church Sunday next, January 9th, at 11 a.m. when a memorial window given by Mr. John Chatterley and his family in loving memory of Mrs. Ida May Chatterley will be unveiled and dedicated.

Mrs. Chatterley was a very staunch member of St. John's and an enthusiastic worker in the Woman's Auxiliary of which she was president for several years.

The window represents Ruth glean- ing in the wheat fields of Boaz and is the work of Robert McCausland of Toronto.

The Rector, Rev. D. C. Michell, L. L. B., will take charge of the service and the Rev. G. I. B. Johnson of Richmond Hill will be the special preacher.

A hearty invitation is extended to all our friends and members to be present at this service.

It takes plenty of gray matter to find out what's the matter.
