 The opening game of the basketball season was played at the local gym last Monday. Richmond Hill emerged victorious in both junior and senior games. The score was 27-18 in the senior game and 17-15 in the junior game.

The senior line-up was as follows: Sandy Neal, captain; Jim Reycraft, Peter Tobias, Willis Stephenson, Murray Stevenson, Bruce Laver and Sil Steffan. Don Bellamy was out of this game with a sore ankle and Marvin Foote took his place on the junior player agreement. According to this agreement a junior may play one game for the senior team and still be classed as a junior.

The junior line-up was as follows: Dave Graham, Marvin Foote, Gord Burbridge, Bruce Murchison, Clarence Kozak, Scott Latimer, Ralph Smith, Art Gaudier, Lennox Wilson and Keith Teetzel, Capt.

The seniors were helped on their way to victory by Jim Reycraft, our lanky centre star, who scored 15 of 27 points.

The junior game was very close and no player was really outstanding with the exception of Bull of Aurora who tried hard to win and helped his team greatly by scoring 15 of their 15 points.

The next game in which Richmond Hill will participate will be at Newmarket next, Tuesday.
