WEDDING

CARLE-ZUEFELT
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lanson W. Zuefelt, Richmond Hill, was the scene of a quiet wedding Friday evening, when their daughter, Jean Carleton was united in marriage to Mr. Patrick Joseph Carle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carle of Midland. Lighted tapers, pink snapdragons and pussy-willow made an attractive setting for the ceremony performed by the Rev. S. W. Hirtle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of cameo blue, a matching half "nat and gloves. Her corsage was of red roses, hyacinth and blue forget-me-nots. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Miss Mary Burgen of Toronto, as bridesmaid, wore navy-blue with matching accessories and her corsage was of pink roses and white hyacinth.

Mr. Jack Brown of Toronto, nephew of the groom, was the groomsmen.

The bride's mother received the guests, wearing a grey crepe dress and matching accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. She was assisted by the groom's sister, Mrs. Albert Zoskey of Toronto, who wore royal blue and a corsage of red roses.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Carle left for a honeymoon in Midland, the bride donning a grey coat with accessories in the same shade. On their return they will live on Raglan Ave. in Toronto.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. William James Oliver, Maple, announce the engagement of their daughter, Isabel Katharine to Mr. Ralph C. Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clare C. Fuller, Watford, Ont. The marriage to take place Saturday, April 9th, at 2:30 p.m. in Maple United Church.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

The annual Public School Oratorical Contest will be held in the Public School auditorium on Tuesday evening, March 22, at 8 p.m.

Besides the usual oratory, various numbers will be contributed by the school choirs and individual soloists, etc., under the direction of Mrs. McIlivray, music supervisor.

At those interested in the activities and progress of our young people are invited to attend. Silver collection at the door.

SEED FAIR AT NEWMARKET

The directors of the York County Crop Improvement Association are busy these days drumming up entries for the York County Seed Fair and Bacon Show which is being held this year in the Town Hall at Newmarket on Tuesday, March 22 and already the directors of the Hog Producers have filled their quota of entries for the competition for Wiltshire sides. Present indications are that there will be a considerable increase in the entries with the enlarged and revised prize list for the seed show. Entries for the seed section of the fair close this week.

WEST AND NORTH YORK DEANERY AT AURORA

A full attendance of Clergy, representing the twenty-two churches of West and North York Deanery gathered at Trinity Church, Aurora, on Monday of this week for the first meeting of this year. The Rev. W. F. Wrixon, Rural Dean, presided, and the proceedings opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion. The chief speaker of the day was the Venerable F. J. Savers, M.A., D. D., Archdeacon of York. Dr. Savers presented a report on Church Extension in the diocese of Toronto and more especially the sixteen new parishes in the vicinity of Toronto. Dinner was served in the parish hall by the ladies of the church and the afternoon was spent discussing several subjects of importance to the Deanery and Diocese. After a full day, tea was served at Trinity Rectory by Mrs. Whatmough, wife of the Rector of the parish.

JUNIORS TO MEET AT O.A.C.

Annual meeting of the Ontario Junior Farmers' Association, will be held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, on April 24, 25 and 26. It was announced last week. Registration will begin at 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 24 in the Common Room of the Administration Building. On the same day livestock barns, greenhouses and Macdonald Institute will be open from 2 to 4 p.m. for those wishing to visit. A Junior Farmer Church service will be held in Memorial Hall at 7:30 p.m. followed by a Fellowship Hour. Opening of the Conference will take place in Memorial Hall on Monday morning. Theme of the conference will be "Working together." Many subjects will be discussed including an interesting review of "Etiquette." Banquet speaker will be Donald F. Sullivan, a young man of Junior Farmer age, representing the United States National Commission of United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization. Mr. Sullivan is an able speaker and from reports will be worth hearing. Among resolutions to be dealt with will be several from county and local associations, while an entirely new constitution for Junior Farmers of Ontario has been prepared and will be presented for approval. Names of all delegates who purpose attending, must be in the hands of the local Agricultural Representative not later than April 13.

Queen's University, Kingston, is appealing for a little more than three million dollars in a public subscription campaign to raise money for essential construction, endowment and maintenance costs.

Building in North York totaled $1,546,425.00 for February 1949. Permits to the value of $2,485,284.00 have been issued for January and February this year compared with $879,925.00 for the corresponding first two months of 1948.

NOTICE

Mr. A. H. Woods, the C.C.F. Federal candidate will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Richmond Hill and district C.C.F. club. Regular meeting to be held Friday evening, March 18th, at the home of T. A. Weaver, president of the York North Riding Association, 6 Hunt Ave., Richmond Hill. *1w38

Girl Guide Notes

It was reported at the latest Local Association meeting of the R.H.G. G., that after all expenses had been paid; the Association realized approximately $80.00 profit on the performance of "Happy Days." The Association also wishes to thank the Guides and Brownies, for their co-operation in sale of tickets. Sincere appreciation was also voiced, of all those Association members and their husbands, who gave so freely of their time and energies in providing the candy and coffee for the sale and also refreshments for the cast.

We feel that the whole evening was a perfect example of what interest and co-operation in a group is capable of achieving.

BUTTONVILLE

The March meeting of the W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. A. Stephenson. Mrs. Newson presided and Mrs. English was pianist. The theme of the devotional was "The Kingdom Come — through the United witness of the Christians of the World." It was taken by Mrs. Walton and Mrs. W. Craig. A quilting was arranged for Monday at the home of Miss Mary Kodick.

Mrs. A. Burns gave a splendid talk on "Schools of China" and gave a detailed account of the government schools and the missionary schools, explaining that Education was far in advance of Christianity. Mrs. Walton and Mrs. Burns gave a question and answer story of Stella Chang, one of China's foremost Christian teachers. Mrs. C. Russell, Temperance convener, gave a report on the meeting of the Temperance Secretaries of Centre, West and East Presbyterians, and ended her report by the statement "45% of the accidental deaths are a direct result of intemperance." Mrs. Stephenson and Mrs. E. Middleton sang in a pleasing duet "Out of the Ivory Palaces." Lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. Stephenson, Mrs. Walton, Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Brooks.

There was a large attendance when the World Day of Prayer was observed at the home of Mrs. Russell Boyington. The following is an extract from a talk given by Mrs. Geo. Kelly, "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of." To millions of women around the world the first Friday in Lent means "The World Day of Prayer." They keep the day in the heart of Africa, in the frozen reaches of Baffin-land and in the bustling port cities of Latin America, in isolated villages of the Orient as well as in thousands of communities in the U. S. and Canada. Thus the World Day of Prayer has become perhaps the greatest single unifying force among all Christian Women everywhere. Mrs. Russell Burns is appointed as Key Woman for the Day of Prayer for next year. We wish Mrs. A. Glendinning a most pleasant stay in Florida during the coming month.
