... Saves You Fuel
Saves You Money!

Think of days when you turned on the furnace draft, forgot it, and had to add more fuel... wasted money! Think of fall and spring when the furnace went out. Had to be relit. And you shook half-burned coal through with ashes... wasted money!

With a Thermostat you avoid this... because it gives you automatic temperature control, all the time, just the degree you want. A Thermostat is easily installed and pays for itself usually, the first year. From then on it goes on saving you money, year after year.

You pay for a Thermostat anyway thru wasted fuel... you might as well have one! Complete details on request.

Young Ladies Guild Donates $25 to Children's Aid Society

Twenty-five members attended the regular monthly meeting of the Young Ladies Guild of Thornhill United Church, held at the home of Mrs. Jamieson last Thursday evening. The speaker of the evening was to have been a Miss Brown, an Interior Decorator from the T. Eaton Company, but due to unfavourable weather conditions, she was unable to be present. Business included final plans for the concert on Tuesday, March 29th, when a musical program to raise funds for this organization's work will be woven around guest speaker, Miss Edna James. It was also decided that $25 would be donated to the Children's Aid Society.

Marion Ellaott Feted at Shower

Miss Marion Joan Ellaott was honored guest at a community and miscellaneous shower held recently by Mrs. Gordon Campbell at the home of Mrs. Grainger, Yonge St.

A set of superhealth aluminum ware and a trillight lamp were presented to Marion on behalf of her friends in the community, and she received many charming miscellaneous gifts from the more than fifty guests present. Marion's marriage to Mr. William Sutterly Stewardson will be an event of Saturday, March 19, at 4 p.m. at Trinity Anglican Church.

Chinese Festival

Thornhill United Church Sunday School hall took on the appearance of a Chinese garden for the festival held on Tuesday evening, March 1, under the auspices of the Evening Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society and the Canadian Girls in Training. Gay Chinese lanterns and streamers supplied the atmosphere for the display of occidental articles, many of which were supplied by Mrs. G. H. Craig and her aunt, Miss B. Cassidy. The C.G.I.T. conducted the worship and Patsy Hunter sang "Jesus Loves Me" in Chinese, the girls joining in the chorus. Slides shown by Mrs. Craig depicted a charming Chinese school, run by missionaries, and emphasized the work of the C.G.I.T. there. To conclude, a very delicious lunch was served by the girls.

The Evening Auxiliary of the W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. N. L. Norton on Tuesday afternoon of this week. The Study Book, "West of the Gorges", was taken by Mrs. Richard Simpson, who dealt with the Christian Church in China. The Supply Secretary gave a report on the sale, announcing that preparations are being made for a quilting in the near future. Mrs. Geo. Russell read an item by Dr. Matchmor on Temperance, and a delightful duet

MAPLE

Mrs. F. Johnson and son, David spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Manning.

The regular meeting of the Presbyterian Girls Club was held at the home of Audrey MacNaughton, Friday, March 11th. Lunch was served by the hostess.

A carol party was given Friday, March 11, in honor of Brian Aiken's fourth birthday. His playmates who attended were: Diane and son McCunns, Terry and Nancy McLoughlin and Michael Sheppard.

Maple Women's Institute met at Maple Villa on Wednesday, March 9. Mr. Willis MacLachlan gave an interesting educational talk and demonstration on Artificial Respiration. The school children who won a first prize at the Kiwanis Festival, sang their two selections for the ladies. Prizes for an Irish musical contest were won by Mrs. Leonard Jennings and Mrs. I. McQuarrie. Mrs. D. Jarret read a story and poem on St. Patrick's Day. Gertie's team won in the attendance contest for this meeting, but Elsie's team is still leading in the total, so come on ladies and support your team next month, at the final meeting of the year. A party is being planned for the school children in honour of their winning the Kiwanis shield.

The committee in charge served a lovely lunch and the social time was enjoyed by all.

The February meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Snider, March 2, with the president in the chair. The worship period was conducted by Mrs. V. Orr and Mrs. E. Keffer. The topic "To whom shall we go," was given by Mrs. G. W. Matheson. Vocal and instrumental solos were rendered by Mrs. Wm. Noble. The meeting closed with prayer by Rev. C. H. Bowman. Refreshments were served by the hostess and committee.

Mrs. F. P. Rumble, Mrs. W. Matheson and Louise were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Anderson, Elia, on Saturday, March 5, on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. This was also in the nature of a farewell to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whittaker, who are moving shortly to their new home near Harrison.

The members of St. Stephen's Auxiliary held a social evening at the home of Mrs. H. Bryan, Tuesday, March 1st. There were 26 members and friends present. Prizes were awarded for games to Mrs. Boswell, Mrs. F. Cooper, Mrs. D. Allen, Miss Jillian Miller, Mrs. H. Taylor and Mrs. Wm. Johnson. A dainty lunch was served and then Mrs. Harry Cooper, read an address to their president, Mrs. H. Bryan, in appreciation of her faithful services and escorted her with a combination waffle iron and grill and a sterling silver knife and fork. This presentation was a surprise to Mrs. Bryan and she graciously thanked the ladies for the lovely gifts.

LANGSTAFF

At the regular meeting of the Langstaff Home and School Association on Tuesday, March 8, Mrs. Sudmore, vice-president, was the chairman.

The speaker of the evening was Mr. H. Miller of the Community Planning Board, of the Dept. of Education. Mr. Miller was introduced by Mrs. Worsdale, the president. The topic of his address was terms of cooperation in conjunction with the school and community. An interesting film was shown which illustrated what can be accomplished in a community with everyone's co-operation.

At the conclusion of the film, Mrs. Jurke sang two num. ers, Life's Love Song and A Winter Lullaby which were appreciated by all.

Mrs. McArthur the hostess for the evening served tea and cookies.

The Women's Christian fellowship has been invited to the home of Miss Grace Trowell for the meeting on March 24th. A good attendance is requested. Miss Trowell has invited the ladies for lunch and to have the meeting afterward.

So many have been on the sick list lately, including Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Bowen, Mrs. Boyes of Garden Ave.; also Mrs. Eggleston and little Joan and many others. We sincerely wish a speedy recovery for all.

We are glad to report that Rev. A. R. Jones is resting well after suffering a severe heart attack last week. He is greatly missed at the church and meetings. During the week, Mr. Gooderman supplied. So far we don't know who will supply next week, but you can be sure of a good substitute. Music March 20 by the McNeil group.

Remember Youth for Christ meeting, next Saturday, March 19th, at the Memorial Hall at Thornhill. You are cordially invited to attend these splendid meetings of music, quiz, etc.
