Presentation at Church

Friday evening, April 8, members and friends of Temperanceville church gathered to enjoy a bountiful supper and to honour Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bovain and Mr. and Mrs. R. Jennings now of Aurora.

In a fitting address, Mrs. Albert Follott expressed the thoughts and gratitude of us all, for the interest these families have always shown in the life and work of our church.

We were pleased to have with us Mr. and Mrs. Bert Andrews of Aurora, also Mrs. Wilkins who has recently returned from Owen Sound.

The Good Friday service for Temperanceville church will be held this year at Wesley Church at 11 a.m. Music will be provided by a combined choir and we are anticipating a very worthwhile service.

Easter Sunday will be observed in Temperanceville Church by two services. At 11 a.m. the guest speaker will be Rev. Merriam and at 7:30 p.m. the pastor Rev. E. C. Modder will be in charge.

The regular monthly meeting of Temperanceville W.A. and W.M.S. will be held at the home of Mrs. Hudson on Thursday afternoon, April 21. Easter Thankoffering will be received and the Roll Call is to be answered by naming a spring flower.

On Tuesday afternoon April 5, a large number of ladies gathered in the Sunday School room to hear Miss Anne Lawson, Home Economist from the Women's Institute Branch and Home Economics Service, Ontario Department of Agriculture, speak on the subject, 'Canning Ontario's Food.'

The W. I. held another successful euchre at the school on Tuesday evening, April 5. Thirteen tables played euchre and the prize winners were: for the ladies, Mrs. Frank Bell, Mrs. R. Jennings and Mrs. F. Hare; for the men, Mr. J. Anderson, Mr. J. Blythe and Mr. R. Jennings.

Following an accident which took place on Yonge Street north of Richmond Hill on March 30th, in which Audrey Allen, 17, Elgin Mills, sustained a fractured leg, a charge of careless driving has been laid against Stanley Winger of Newmarket, driver of the motor bicycle involved in the accident.

The Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. R. Phillips for the April meeting with Mrs. E. Witherspoon, 1st vice-pres., presiding. Twenty members, four visitors and seven children were present.

An interesting paper was given by Mrs. D. Jarrett, on the motto "He who stumbleth twice over one stone deserves to break his shins". Should one at any time show inclination to waywardness, procrastination, lack of interest, be sure to lend a helping hand.

A contest for Mrs. E. Harris, giving names of Games, was won by Mrs. Stevenson. Don't forget the May meeting at Mrs. E. Witherspoon's. Reports of conveners will be given and election of officers will take place.

A LETTER TO MR. T — OF ST. JOHN'S NEWFOUNDLAND

Dear Mr. T —: Thank you Mr. T — of St. John's, Newfoundland for your donation to our Thornhill Swimming Pool Fund.

On this day, Newfoundland is welcomed to our Dominion and we deem your gift of especial significance. There will be donations of greater intrinsic value — donations which will purchase more bricks, equipment and labour than yours, but your gift proves to us that our new Canadians look westward and far beyond the rugged shores of their Island.

Two social evenings recently held at Eversley school sponsored by Eversley Community netted $18.60 toward "Save The Children Fund". The last event was held April 7th.

Eversley Farm Forum concluded the winter season on March 28th, with a social evening held at the school. The forum has had a membership of 25 with Mr. Steve Case the chairman and Mrs. Leonard Sheshine, secretary.

Mrs. Harvey Follott has returned from a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Donald McMurchy of Hillsburg.

Mrs. Arthur Wellesley has successfully undergone a surgical operation at York County Hospital, Newmarket. She entered hospital last Sunday.

The general tax rate for King township has been set at 9.7 mills on an assessment of $4,873,975. The rate is an increase of two mills over last year, one mill of which is accounted for by the dropping of the provincial government subsidy.

The first payment for King village water service for January, February and March is now due at $9.75 less 10 per cent on payment by users on April 15, 1949, equalling $8.78.

There is indication new homes will be under construction here this summer. The attractive 6-room bungalow with basement recreation room built by Hugh Ross, is bringing many persons to inspect the house, very substantially built in every respect on a plan of more than usual convenience.

Grass Fires Rampant

Fine weather at week ends appears to be proper setting for grass fires and the warning comes to "keep them under control". Carefulness is a must, says Reeve L. B. Goodfellow, urging strict supervision in cleaning off property.

A large tract of grassland and woodlot near Aurora sideroad, north of King village extending between the fourth and fifth concession burned over on Sunday afternoon, said to have been caused from spread of a small grass fire, which got far beyond control, endangering 10 permanent dwellings in the Fogwood Farms area.

Two social evenings recently held at Eversley school sponsored by Eversley Community netted $18.60 toward "Save The Children Fund". The last event was held April 7th.

Thursday of this week Lake Marie for a dance in McDonald and Wells' Hall, King. And on Friday, April 29th (note date) dance will be held in the same place, proceeds toward Memorial Hall Fund.

Mr. Christopher Henson of Nobleton, a pensioned employee of the postal service, Toronto, whose death occurred on Wednesday, April 6th, had resided at Nobleton for a year or more. He is survived by his wife, and the funeral was held from W. R. Scott's Funeral Home at Woodbridge on April 8th, interment in the Woodbridge cemetery.

Mr. Alexander Hurst, Aurora, passed away in his 91st year Thursday, April 7. He was buried at Aurora on the following Monday. Mr. Hurst was a blacksmith all his life and had been in the trade at Eversley many years ago, before removing to Aurora where he blacksmithed on Centre Street. Five sons and a daughter, Mrs. Beatrice McMullen, with whom Mr. Hurst lived, are the survivors.

Concluding Holy Week services, the final and final community service will be held in King United church on Friday evening, April 15, at 8 p.m. when Rev. Dr. Orr Mulligan, Aurora, will be the guest speaker. King Juniors choir will contribute music. They have been attending communicants' class conducted by Rev. M. R. Jenkinson. After the service they will join for worship and a brief study, and on Easter Sunday will be received into membership of the United Church.

"The Proof and Power of the Resurrection" will be the subject of Easter Sunday sermons in the Baptist circuit taken by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Smalley. Special music will be provided.

There will be a Children's Service at St. John's Anglican Church, (Oak Stages at Jefferson) on Easter Day at 3 p.m. with a parade of Scouts, Guides, Brownies and Cubs. The children from All Saints Sunday school at King will be present and he First King Cub Pack. A general invitation is extended to children to attend the service and free transportation is being provided.
