Mrs. J. G. Beeton of Arnold Avenue, Thornhill, has been appointed local correspondent of The Liberal for that area. Mrs. Beeton's telephone number is 202 J and she will be glad to receive any personal or news items telephoned to her at that number.

The W.A. and W.M.S. of Thornhill Presbyterian church held a joint meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Porter, Bayview Ave. Mrs. Mizen and Miss Welch gave short readings. A quiz contest was held, Miss Ida Cooper being awarded first prize.

The C.G.I.T. group of Thornhill United Church have been busy for the past three months making articles for their bazaar to be held in the Sunday School room on Saturday, May 28 at 3 p.m. Also featured will be afternoon tea, home baking, white elephants and a fish pond for the children.

The W.M.S. is packing a bale and are appealing for good, used clothing, especially for boys 7-15. Articles may be left at the home of Mrs. R. Simpson, Yonge and John Sts. or at the parsonage.

The Young Ladies' Guild met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Earl Jacques. Mrs. Eleanor Brown, home decorator from the Robt. Simpson Co., gave an illustrated lecture on decorating which was of great interest to the many ladies present.

Scores in the Lions Softball Inter-School League are: Sr., Concord 9, Thornlea 8; Langstaff 23, Richvale 15; Jr., Thornhill 28, Concord 12; Langstaff 27, Thornlea 21; Girls, Langstaff 34, Thornlea 26; Thornhill 13, Richvale 2.

The Thornhill Lions Club has arranged for a field day for Thornhill and district schools to be held Friday, June 10 at 1 p.m. The preliminaries will be run off at the schools.

Registration of pre-school children for Thornhill Public School will be held at the school May 31 at 9 a.m. Pupils to be admitted in September must be six years of age by December 31. All parents with children in this age group are requested to bring them to the school on the above date.

The Thornhill Horticultural Society held their Option Meeting and Tulip Show on Tuesday, May 17 in Lawrence Memorial Hall. To those who worked so hard to assure the success of this event it was gratifying to see such a large display of flowers placed in competition in the various categories. First prize winners were as follows: Three early tulips, single, Mrs. Teasdale; three early tulips, double, Miss H. Barker; three late tulips, Mrs. M. Dolan; six tulips, mixed, Mrs. Bone; 12 tulips, any variety, Mrs. Teasdale; three daffodils, Mrs. Dolan; three narcissi, one variety, Mrs. Horton; six narcissi, any variety, Mrs. R. Simpson; six stem narcissi, multiple flower type, Mrs. Findlay; one house plant, Miss Baxter; one coleus plant, Mrs. Thompson; one African violet, blue, Mrs. Bone; one African violet, pink, Mrs. Healey; vase of spring flowers, Mrs. Bone; 12 pansies, Mrs. Bone; arrangement of spring flowers, front view, A. Boyle; arrangement of spring flowers for dining table, Mrs. Horton; breakfast table arrangement, Mrs. Horton.

Mrs. Banks and Miss M. Dear were in charge of the juvenile section who competed in a poster display. Peter Ward took first prize with Mary Harrison second and Alan Harrison third.

Do you admire a flower garden? If you do, don't miss the opportunity to gaze to your heart's content at Mr. Smellie's on Yonge St. Don't just glance over the fence and breath oh's and ah's — walk in and stroll around. You are more than welcome at the home of a resident who likes to share his wonderful display.

Mr. Geo. Nuttaal has returned to his home to recuperate and we expect to see him around in a short while.

In the recent Peel County Music Festival, John Kimber, one of Miss Marguerite Boyle's juvenile pupils, was the winner of the Gold Medal for his class in Elocution, and recited at the final concert in Brampton.

Mary Sue McGee, a pupil of Marguerite Boyle, appeared last Wednesday evening in a dramatic and humorous recital before an audience that overtaxed the seating capacity of the large auditorium at St. Joseph's College School in Toronto. Her program ranged from grave to gay, consisting of humorous and dialect monologues, dramatic sketches and classical prose and poetry. The popular young artist received rounds of applause and gift bouquets after each number. Beatrice MacDonald, soprano, contributed a pleasing group of songs, and Josephine Jagusiat, the third in this trio of sixteen year old entertainers, delighted her hearers with two groups of piano selections. At the close of the evening Mary Sue thanked Miss Boyle for her help and patience in making possible such an occasion and presented her with a bouquet of roses.

The regular monthly meeting of the local association of the Thornhill Guides and Brownies was held at the home of Mrs. J. E. MacNeill on Tuesday, May 10th. Report on the results of the theatre night showed a profit of $106.95.

Plans were made for a Mother and Daughter Banquet of Guides and Brownies, to be held on June 3rd in Lawrence Memorial Hall.

A motion to donate $15 to the swimming pool drive was passed unanimously.

Brownies Donate $10 To Pool
 The First Thornhill Brownie Pack has made a donation of $10 from their own funds toward the swimming pool campaign.

Charles Sowdon was chosen president of the Thornhill District Lions Club at a nomination meeting on Monday night, and will take office succeeding T. W. Jackson in September.

The three vice presidents, Bill Pocklington, Percy Bone and Bart Edwards also will go into office without opposition. Two of the four directors, Jack Cooke and Les Beeston still have a year to serve, while four names were advanced for the two vacancies, Findlay Ross, George Nuttall, Wilfred Ball, Adam Reiter. The tail twister will be Art Gibson and the Lion Tamer, Lou Reid.

June 29th has been set for the Carnival and Street Dance, and lucky draw tickets are already on sale. Part of the proceeds will be given to the Thornhill District Swimming Pool fund, and there will be the usual quota of games, dancing and lucky draws.

The drive made by the Lions for the Swimming Pool fund has reached $6819., and it will continue another week in the hope of hitting the objective of $10,000. The difficulty of covering so wide a territory has made the canvassing slow work, but the results are regarded as satisfactory at this stage. It is possible for anyone wishing to help this good cause to send a donation to the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Thornhill.

Lin Schaffer, a carter member of the Club and Treasurer since it was formed, who is moving to Mitchell, this week, was given a Past Treasurer Pin by President Jackson. In departing from the Club, he wished it success in its many community services. Bill Lennox will be acting Treasurer until the new slate of officers take over.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH
TOWNSHIP OF NORTH YORK
 Our Aim and Policy
 Because dental preventive and control measures function most effectively in the child population, the basic goal of our Dept. of Health — Dental Division is expressed as follows: "The programme seeks to graduate the child from school with a healthy mouth, a complete set of teeth in good repair, and with a knowledge and desire to maintain the condition."

REV. R. S. MASON BAPTIZES THREE GRANDCHILDREN

A happy gathering of relatives and friends assembled at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, Sunday afternoon, May 15th, when Rev. R. S. Mason received three of his grandchildren into the church. He was assisted by the Rector, Rev. W. F. Wrixon.

The children who were baptised were: Katharine Dorothy Anna Bell Mason, daughter of Dr. Walter J. and Mrs. Mason of Richmond Hill, and Ian Matthews Mason and Julia Marguerite Mason, children of Dr. Herbert S. and Mrs. Mason of Leaside.

Five grandparents and one great-grandmother were among the witnesses at the triple baptism. The baby girls wore long baptismal dresses made by a great-grandmother and were the third generation to use them. They also wore little bonnets made by a great-great-grandmother.

After the service the guests were welcomed at "Elmwood Manor" the home of Rev. R. S. and Mrs. Mason.
