INSURANCE

With the increase of fire hazards, property owners should review their insurance policies, and due to the increased cost of materials would be well advised to increase the amounts of insurance. Also car owners who think it will never happen to them are caught some time or other without protection. The cost is a minor amount to what it will cost if an accident happens.

From The Hilltop

A COLUMN OF VIEWS AND OBSERVATIONS
(By F. J. Pickings)

Is a Chamber of Commerce for Richmond Hill necessary?
Just to prevent misunderstanding let me emphasize that the foregoing is a question — not an assertion.
It is a question which, in view of the rapid development of this area — development which is only in its infancy — demands consideration by business men and taxpayers.
A well-known citizen said to me recently — "I'm not sure that the change which is coming to this district is altogether desirable. It's always been a nice district to live in. As the city comes closer to us it will bring many problems and change our way of living considerably — perhaps in many ways that we don't like. Nevertheless whether we like it or not the change is coming and we have to gear ourselves to it."

Again I ask whether, in view of that inexorably onrushing change, a Chamber of Commerce can serve any useful purpose in our community?
Very much depends, of course, upon the character of the Chamber itself — that is, if such an organization came into being. An active and alert body, intelligently led, could undoubtedly do much to promote local trade, deal with problems which affect local industry and businesses, publicize the community favourably, search for new and suitable businesses looking for locations.
On the other hand an unambitious organization, practically existing only on paper, without any real punch to it, would just be another of those "clutter-up" organizations which business men are expected to support, and which bring them no real benefit. It would be idle to deny that a not inconsiderable number of Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce in smaller centres fall into that category. Such a body is not worth the time, money and effort wasted on its organization.
Is Industry Coming Here?

An examination of the whole situation naturally leads to the question of the future development of Richmond Hill.
Will the community develop as an industrial area, or will it continue as a pleasant residential district — an island of quiet living around which the tide of "big business" flows, to settle elsewhere? If the latter — then there is little use for a Chamber of Commerce.
But if, whether we like it or not, the obvious trend of business and factories to the north of Toronto continues at its present pace, then the sooner something is done along organizational lines the better.

Unquestionably before very long the village will have to face up squarely to such problems as the installation of a sewage system. When that time comes is the cost to be borne by a comparative few or will, by present careful development, there be sufficient businesses to help distribute the heavy expense on a reasonable basis? In other words, an efficient Chamber of Commerce by acting now to secure part in sound development.

Then there is the question of publicizing the village and its advantages — a very necessary step in the development of a community which faces the problem of building itself up. I'm going to go out of my way to emphasize that I am, in no sense of the word, critical of present conditions. Frankly, I like the Hill the way it is. I like its charm, its gracious living, the friendliness of its people. I haven't the slightest intention or desire to belittle the efforts of those who have lived here many years and who have made the community the place it is today.

But, being somewhat of a realist, I'm not side-stepping the fact that to the outside world this community isn't known for what it is and for the advantages it has. Take our biggest industry — rose growing.
I'd be willing to make a sizable bet that out of the tens of thousands of people who poured through Yonge Street last week-end, not two percent knew that they were passing through the largest rose-growing centre in the Dominion — that is, a centre devoted exclusively to the growing of roses. Surely such knowledge transmitted to the world at large would provide an inducement to the type of citizen who would be happy to make his home in such a place — to the business man who is looking for the right type of location for a specialized industry. In that field, it seems to me, an efficient Chamber of Commerce could do a worth-while job.
