Headwork In Business Helps Richvale Man

(By N. McDermott)

It may seem strange to use a person's head as a milestone of progress but in Richvale there is a man who can do just that.

His name is Elmer Raymer and his occupation is barbering. At one time Elmer was a city dweller who had aspirations of a small holding in the country. This dream was realized and Mr. Raymer became a commuter. He raised thoroughbred collies and angora rabbits at his Richvale home and in time put a barber's chair in his basement where he serviced a few of his neighbors.

The community began to grow and so did the hair on the heads in the community, and Mr. Raymer no longer travelled to the city — he had enough to do in the country. It got to such a state that next the rabbits went and finally most of the dogs until eventually Elmer has had to put a sign out on Mondays so he can rest his clippers and his nippers.

Mr. Raymer probably can't outline history as can the notable author, Mr. H. G. Wells, but he can describe progress especially in Richvale and not by counting heads but by cutting them — hair that is.

After Lake Superior, Lake Victoria, in Africa is the largest lake in the world.

Young Woodbridge Farmer Wins Chicago Trip For Proficiency

The York County Junior Farmers' Annual Livestock Judging Competition was held on June 2nd at Newmarket with 35 enthusiastic contestants attending. Guided by local Junior Farmer coaches, young men from all districts of the county competed for the various trophies offered. Favoured by ideal weather a very profitable day was spent.

During the course of the competition the boys travelled to the following farms for the various classes of stock: Pickering College, Newmarket for Holstein Cows and Market Hogs; J. H. Crang's Glenville Farms, Newmarket for Shorthorn Cows, Suffolk Ewes, Market Lambs, Yorkshire Sows, Hunter Horses and Guernsey Heifers; Jack Bowser's, Newmarket for Angus Cows and to Hazelburn Farms, Aurora for Draft Horses.

For the second successive year Mr. and Mrs. John Kudelka of Mr. Crang's farm, provided a wonderful picnic lunch for all. When the vice president of the York County Junior Farmers, Vic Johnson, thanked the hosts, the terrific applause indicated fully their appreciation.

Following the competition oral reasons were taken at the Department of Agriculture, Newmarket, and official placings were given by the five judges, Bruce Beer, Brampton (Beef), Harold Baker, Milton (Dairy), Hubert McGill, Toronto (Horses), Archie Wilson, Uxbridge (Sheep) and Jim McCullough (Swine).

Winners Announced

In the evening a very fine banquet was provided by the Scout Mothers' Auxiliary in the Scout Hall, Newmarket. A short program consisting of a sing song led by Jack Dev-ins and humorous stunts provided by the Juniors, was presented and met with approval from all. Following this Mr. W. M. Cockburn, Agricultural Representative who acted as chairman for the evening, announced the following awards:

The special award to the coach of three highest scoring competitors, one a novice, went to Russell Boynton, Woodbridge and his team consisted of Carl Boynton, Woodbridge; Archie Cameron, Woodbridge and Ken Sanderson, Kleinburg.

York Jr. Farmers Hold Picnic And Dance At Musselman's Lake

A sports program under convenorship of Ray Ingleton, Archie Cameron and Bob Petch kept the crowd happy throughout the afternoon. An excellent lunch, under the direction of the presidents of the Girls' locals was enjoyed on a shady bank of the lake.

In the evening more than 600 Junior Farmers availed themselves of the opportunity to dance to Glenn Smith and his Merymacks. Credit should go to the Dance Committee Norman Tyndall, Bruce Hoiles and Evelyn Hare for the excellent manner in which the dance was conducted.

When the smoke of the day's battle had cleared away the following results were obtained:

The funeral service took place in Brown's Corners United Church which Phyllis had attended and had been at one time a member of the Sunday School and choir. Rev. E. Currey was in charge of the service. The flowers were especially beautiful.

Interment took place in Buttonville Cemetery and the pall bearers were Murray Walton, Wm. Fisher and four friends from Toronto.

Mrs. McEachern, superintendent of Kirkland Lake hospital, was a Sunday visitor with Mrs. S. English.

Remember the Friday evening (of this week) recital in the church when the pupils of Mrs. English entertain their parents and friends. Time 8 o'clock. A social hour follows the recital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stephenson and Mr. and Mrs. H. Collard left on Sunday morning for western points. Their immediate destination is Brandon for the wedding on Thursday of Miss Lauraine Hargrave, a niece of Mrs. Collard's. After the wedding further west and well — we will report later.

Mrs. Smellie of Fergus, mother of Mrs. John Black, was a week end visitor with the Black's. She was accompanied by an aunt and cousin of Mrs. Black, all from Fergus.

Mrs. E. Fraser is a visitor for the summer months with Mrs. W. Craig. Miss L. Fraser is holidaying at Wasaga Beach accompanied by Master Fraser Craig.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. E. Walton is in the Private Patients' Pavilion for an operation. We wish her a speedy recovery.

We are very proud of our Buttonville girls and their achievements on "Achievement Day" last Saturday. Under the very capable and untiring leadership of Mrs. Geo. Kelly, they won the cup from sixteen competing teams. This is their second year in competition and only four of the girls were in the group last year.

The group consists of 13 girls: Aileen, Jocelyn and Sylvia Easton; Gloria Shenfield, Francis Baker, Hazel Clarke, Marion and Isobel Hood, Yvonne McGee, Joan Stephenson and Beverley McQuay.

They were judged on many points. Thirteen girls started and thirteen girls completed the course. Their note books, work done during the year, and their ability to judge certain articles of sewing, baking, etc. The skit "Being Well Dressed and Well Groomed" also counted for points.

Congratulations girls, and a special word of congratulation to your leader.
