'WAY BACK WHEN

(Excerpts from the LIBERAL Files of Aug. 15th & 22nd, 1889)

The T. Eaton Company, 190 Yonge Street, Toronto, advertised: "Boys' All Wool Suits reduced to $2.00; Ladies' Lace Mitts from 25c up; Five Button Kid Gloves, all shades, 50c; Children's Cotton Hose at 5c a pair; Ladies' Black Cashmere Hose at 25c, 35c and 40c; Boys' Ribbed Hose, large size, double knee, at 25c; Coloured dress goods, was 12 1/2c, reduced to 5c a yard; Cotton Shirtings in good colours and newest patterns, 8c, 8c, 9c, 10c and 12 1/2c per yard."

"Twin children belonging to one of the locked-out miners of Springfield, Ill., died on Friday of starvation."

"Insane through smoking cigarettes" was the verdict reached by Justice Duffy of New York on Saturday in the case of Mr. Cassterly, a pale-faced young man who was found wandering along Grand Street."

"Are the number of people who are weary of life actually increasing or do the papers make more of the suicides nowadays? It may not be easy to say. One thing is evident. The suicide roll is a very large one and isn't it curious that so many of those unfortunates are either farmers or farmers' wives? That does not say much for the supposedly healthy independent life which is to be had on the farm."

"One of our citizens, a sincere lover of the national game, went to the city on Saturday to witness the championship match between the Toronto and Cornwall Lacrosse Clubs. The match not being finished when the Northern train started he was obliged to walk up Yonge Street arriving home shortly before twelve o'clock. His feet were pretty sore the next day and he walked just like a shoe-maker."

"General Grenfell with the Egyptian forces attacked the Derivishes on Saturday in Taski and defeated them with great slaughter, some fifteen hundred being killed."

O. J. Brown advertised: "You can get one can apples for seven cents — three cans corn for 25c — three cans tomatoes for 25c — three cans beans for 25c — three cans peas for 25c — two pounds pure honey for 25c and one pound excellent coffee for 25c."

From the "Personals" column: — "Mr. Gid Moody of Eckhardt, Kyle and Co., Toronto, is spending a week in the village." "Dr. L. G. Langstaff of Brooklyn, N.Y., has taken charge of the office and practise of the late Dr. James Langstaff."

Reporting the village council meeting, it was stated that "Mr. Sanderson introduced By-law No. 131 authorizing the treasurer to borrow the sum of $400.00 to meet the current expenses of the village corporation. The bylaw was read a first, second and third times and passed. Moved by Mr. Savage, seconded by Mr. Sanderson that the Reeve and Councillors Sanderson, Atkinson and the mover be a committee to treat with the Richmond Hill and Yonge Street Agricultural Society in regard to the erection of a hall on the public park. Carried."

"A garden party will be held in the grounds of Mr. Edward Barker, Lot 7, rear Concession 3, Markham, on Thursday, August 29th, 1889. Tea served from four to five p.m. by the ladies of Thornhill, Zion and Buttonville. Tickets 25c each. Proceeds for the purpose of repairing the Methodist parsonage at Thornhill. Melons, ice cream, etc., will also be provided. Games of a very interesting nature will be selected for the amusement of those present."

"Ontario fresh beef shipped to Saint John, N.B., has given great satisfaction and bids fair to drive out the Chicago article."

"Three negroes at Birmingham, Alabama, walked into a furnace at the command of an old negro who pretends to be a prophet and he persuaded them that they were representatives of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego."

"Mr. Luke Crawford of Thomas-ton, Ga., may well claim the belt as a champion horse trader. He had one day three horses altogether not worth $200, and during the day traded fifty-five times and quit with one horse, it being one of the same he started with. He also had as a result of a day's work $300 in money, a bull and a buggy."

Currant Culture

There is good news for those people who are interested in growing currants. Thanks to the persistent efforts of plant breeders, the long-dreamed-of black currant resistant to white pine blister rust — a very serious disease where the five needed pine is grown extensively for timber — may soon be a reality.

Currants should not be planted in districts where white pine is considered of commercial importance, as they are hosts to white pine blister rust. This bush fruit can, it is pointed out in a Dominion Department of Agriculture pamphlet, Currant Culture, be grown successfully where white pines are of no economic importance, if timely and careful spraying is practised.

Currants are natives of cool, moist, northern climates; are hardy and will withstand extremely low temperatures if windbreaks are provided. Black currants thrive well under the climatic conditions that prevail in central Canada, particularly on heavy well-drained soils and yields up to four tons an acre may be obtained. Red and white currants yield even heavier crops than the black.

The life of a currant plantation is at least 15 years if it is properly cared for.

The pamphlet, Currant Culture, gives full information for the three kinds, on cultural methods, proper fertilization, pruning and suitable varieties. It may be obtained from the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. Ask for it by name.

...well

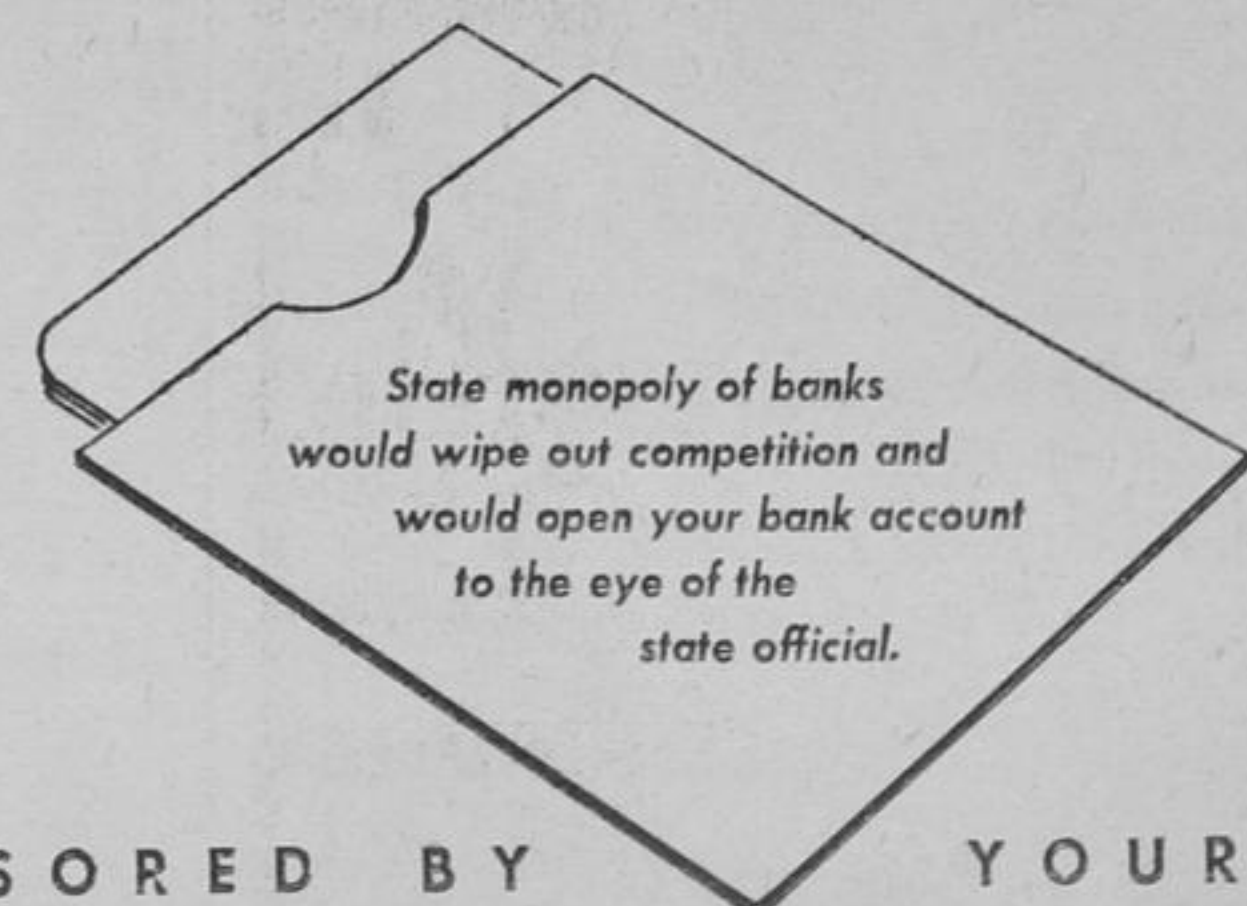

practically unanimous

YOU CAN still find people who "don't believe in banks" ... who keep their cash in old coffee pots, or hide it in the woodpile, or carry it around.

But most folk nowadays keep their money in bank accounts. They can get it whenever they want it; and they can pay their bills by cheque. Canadians have more than seven million such deposit accounts. In terms of Canada's adult population, that makes it practically unanimous.

The banks, in turn, know they must earn this confidence by giving you the best service they know how.

Today you can take your account to any bank you choose. And what is in your bank book is strictly between you and your bank. It is your own private business.

State monopoly of banks would wipe out competition and would open your bank account to the eye of the state official.
