LANGSTAFF

Correspondent: Mrs. S. Worsdal Phone Thornhill 257r12
Having just returned from a motor trip to Winnipeg, via Michigan, Wisconsin and North Dakota, this correspondent regrets that this week's news is sketchy. She would be glad to report your own holiday experiences, so let's hear from you please.
In the North York Major Softball League last Tuesday Langstaff visited Newmarket and defeated them, we are glad to report. However, Aurora came here Thursday and our loss to them was 7 to 3. Next week's game is scheduled for Saturday, July 23, at Langstaff against Newmarket.
Our girls in the York Centre Ladies Softball League, lost their game at Victoria Square on Thursday. Their next game is Thursday, July 28, at Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Carter and family are leaving Ruggles Avenue this week to live in Northern Ontario. Bob, an active member of the local Lions Club, has worked very hard in the interests of the community, and will certainly be missed. On behalf of their friends and neighbours in Langstaff, we wish them good fortune and much happiness in their new home.
At the time of writing, Mrs. Boyes of Garden Avenue, is expected home from hospital, having had a finger amputated. We are glad to learn that the operation was successful.
Congratulations to our successful High School Entrance candidates and to Mr. David Smith, Principal, on an almost perfect result, there being only one failure. We are proud to publish the names of Harry Ablett, Barbara Baker, Donna Banks, Joan Boyes, Harry LeMasurier, Roger Matthews, June Ross (Honours), Gwen Smith and Vance Worsdale (Honours without writing). The Home and School Club plans to honour the graduating class at the Third Annual Commencement in the school Tuesday evening, September 13, when Mr. A. S. Elson, Principal of Richmond Hill High School, will give the address. More details will be given later.
Mr. Ronald Baker of arden Ave. has been appointed assistant swimming instructor at the Princess Alice Sea Cadet Camp, Georgian Bay, where he will spend the remainder of the summer.

Church News
About 200 attended the annual picnic last Saturday at Woodland Park. Everybody reported having a good time.
Rev. A. R. Jones is spending three weeks at Muskoka Baptist Camp near Huntsville. Services at Langstaff will remain the same. Bible School at 11 a.m. every Sunday with classes for all Teen-age, Bible Study at 3 p.m. Evening Service 7 p.m. Mr. Foster is in charge of the services during Mr. Jones' absence. Prayer meeting every Wednesday at 8 p.m.
The Women's Fellowship will be held this week at the home of Mrs. J. Marritt, Richmond St., Richmond Hill at 2 p.m.
Congratulations to the men of the Langstaff Baptist Church who defeated the men of Elgin Mills in a baseball game at Elgin Mills last Monday evening.

ELGIN MILLS

Correspondent: Barbara Jones Phone Richmond Hill 482
Last Thursday the girls defeated Woodbridge with an overwhelming score of 26-2. We also defeated Victoria Square girls last Wednesday by 15-9. This was an exhibition game.
Monday night the ball park was the scene of an exciting game. The Aurora girls lost by 1 run. We were neck and neck throughout the game until Irene Mashinter got the winning run in the last inning. Rena Morrison drove her in. The final score was 6-5.
On Tuesday, July 19, the boys played Teston at the home diamond. The visitors defeated Elgin Mills by 1 run, 10-9. There is a big league game at Elgin Mills playground with Stouffville girls next Monday, July 25.
We have been invited to play at Richmond Hill Lions Carnival on Aug. 1.

Mrs. Eric Martyn and daughter, Heather, of Port Arthur, and Mr. Arthur Locke of Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. Locke and family over the week end.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Macalpine and son Malcolm of Thornhill and Mrs. Frank Correa and daughter Eleanor of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. B. Locke Sunday.
We are very glad to hear Joanne McLean is progressing nicely in the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto and expects to go to Thistletown in a few days to convalesce.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyke, Gordon and Mrs. Dyke of Vancouver motored to the United States over the week end.
Miss Dorothy Wilcox, Bedford, England, is spending a few weeks with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bowdery.
Miss Norma Stewart, Brampton is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Colin Crawford.
