LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT — MRS. S. W. WORSDALE

Telephone Thornhill 257r12

The ball game on the 4th played at Schomberg with five innings overtime lasting until midnight, was particularly exciting. Bill Bowen pitched an exceptionally good game and Morty Charles scored the winning run, the final tally being 9 to 8.

After playing the first two innings of the August 9 game without a full team, the Langstaff lads lost at Aurora by 7 to 4.

Please watch The Liberal for the North York Major Softball League Play-off Schedule which will probably appear next week.

Langstaff's team in the York Centre Ladies' Softball League, coached by Norm Bowen, has not had sufficient players or support to maintain a full team this season and so will not appear in the playoffs. We think the faithful few deserve a hand for their conscientious efforts and we wish them better luck next year.

The past week has been saddened by the passing of the father of Mr. Howard, organist and choir master of Trinity Anglican Church.

On Sunday an illness of several months duration was ended for Mr. George Nuttall and a zealous community worker was lost to us all. Our children in particular benefitted from his constant work to give them some added pleasure and they will surely associate him with many happy memories, and their parents will recall numerous occasions when they felt grateful for his efforts.

On behalf of many Langstaff families, we would like, through this column, to extend sincere sympathy to Mrs. Nuttall and to Mr. Howard and their families.

Is Langstaff growing? That may sound like a silly question when one looks around the district. New sub-divisions, new houses, are springing up like mushrooms.

And, in keeping with that development, The Liberal — "Home Paper of the District Since 1878" — has made plans to give Langstaff its "place in the sun."

More and better coverage of local news items is being planned. Mrs. S. W. Worsdale, Langstaff, whose telephone number is Thornhill 257r12, will continue to act as local correspondent. She and this paper will appreciate the co-operation of Langstaff and district readers. Items should be telephoned to Mrs. Worsdale at — we repeat — Thornhill 257r12.

By the time this appears Mr. and Mrs. Tom Insley and 4-year-old Norman who had an apartment with the Langilles, will have moved. Friends and neighbours are sorry to see both families leave.

The Langilles sold their house to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richard of Glenholme Avenue, Toronto, and we are glad to welcome them and their three children. John is in 4th year Senior at DeLaSalle College and Donald and Patsy will be attending St. Mary's School in Richmond Hill. The Richards have a novel way of getting to know their neighbours. Their twenty-eight-year old parrot sits out in the garden and calls out their names in turn, until you just have to call and find out who all these people are and Polly performs the introductions quite graciously and bids you a calm and dignified good-bye as you depart.

A meeting of the Executive Committee and Conveners of the Home and School Club is to be held at the home of the president, Mrs. R. Cudmore (Stop 18, Yonge St.) Tuesday evening, August 23, to make final plans for the Commencement, September 13. The Hobbycraft Convener, Mrs. Wes Blackburn, and Mrs. Stan Worsdale recently took a six-day course in weaving and woodcrafting at the Ontario Department of Education Summer School held in Danforth Technical School.

Ditching activities on the Langstaff Road West, better known as the Langstaff Side Road have raised hopes for improved road conditions. The increased traffic, particularly at week-ends, makes the dust conditions deplorable.
