Rev. E. Currey was welcomed back after holidaying during August. His Sunday sermon was a timely one. Its theme, the fisherman of Galilee fishing all night without any luck and the change that the coming of Jesus made in the result of their work. Would it not work the same in our lives?

Sunday, September 18 is Rally Day in Brown's Corners Sunday School. For the occasion Mr. Norman Reid, our assistant superintendent has secured Rev. F. F. Fidler of the United Church of five as the special speaker for the Sunday School hour from 10.15 to 11.15 Sunday morning. Try to make this a real rally day and if you have been an absentee from Sunday School for a time plan to start once more on rally Sunday.

Yonge St. Sidewalk Delayed By Failure To Find Contractor

At a recent meeting members of Vaughan Township council were advised that plans and specifications for a sidewalk on Yonge Street south of Richmond Hill had been completed by Harold Babcock, township engineer, but that he had been unable to obtain persons to construct the sidewalk.

Instructions were given to Nelson Kerr, township road superintendent, to endeavour to obtain competent people to do the job as soon as possible.

Brownies and Guides

At last we can tell the girls the date for the opening meeting of the Brownies and Girl Guides. Much has been accomplished to arrive at this point and the same determination will assure the success of this important phase of training for the future mothers and career girls who will claim Richvale as the scene of their youth.

The group will meet each Wednesday evening in the basement of dear old S. S. 24, Richvale school. The first gathering will be Wednesday, September 21, with the Brownies starting at seven o'clock on the dot, and the Guides falling in at eight. The Brownies will be in charge of Miss Ruth Lane and Miss Joyce Barraclough. The Guides will have as leaders Mrs. E. Smith and Miss Helen Davies. Don't forget the date, girls — Wednesday, September 21, and be on time for much is to be done. The Brownies have a welcome for all girls ranging from eight years to twelve years of age and the Guides take over from twelve on up.

To Hold Bake Sale

The Mothers' Auxiliary of the Guide and Brownie groups will have a meeting this Thursday, September 8, at the residence of Mrs. R. Paul, 187 Spruce Avenue. All mothers in the district are cordially invited to attend.

At this meeting final arrangements for the bake sale will be made. The sale is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, September 24, and will take place in the Richvale school basement at 2.00 p.m. Included in the afternoon's festivities will be a white elephant sale and a lucky draw. Proceeds will be for equipment and regalia required by the girls.

Canadian Legion Meets

Last Wednesday, August 31, the members of Branch 375, Canadian Legion, held a regular meeting at the school. At this meeting under the jurisdiction of Mr. W. J. Adams as chairman discussion was indulged in concerning the Poppy Fund and a sick committee. Both of these will be under the chairmanship of Mr. Adams aided by members of the branch. There will be a church parade in October — the exact date of which will be announced in the near future. This was the first regular meeting of Branch 375 since its reorganization meeting last month and it was very gratifying to introduce four new members to the comrades. The branch is endeavoring to obtain an evening each week at the school for business and entertainment. The school is going to be a busy place this winter but the school board will do its best to arrange time and space for the men.

Rangers Open Season

This Friday evening will be the opening session of the Ranger Club. The school grounds are levelled off now and a sizable playing area it is indeed. We have it that for the opening meeting, as daylight is still with us fairly late, the boys will be playing soccer with Mr. Harold Ince doing the honors both with the instructions and with the whistle. The meeting is called for 7.00 p.m. and the boys are urged to be on time — Friday evening, that is, September 9.

Operation For Postmistress

The many friends of Mrs. L. Fenner, Richvale Postmistress, were indeed sorry to hear of her impending hospitalization. Owing to a series of unfortunate mishaps Mrs. Fenner has been obliged to be confined to the Toronto General Hospital for a rather serious operation on one of her eyes. Mrs. Fenner will be absent from the post office for at least a month. In her absence a member of the staff of the Richmond Hill office will carry on with the mail. Our best wishes go to Mrs. Fenner for a complete and satisfactory recovery.

Auxiliary President III

Mrs. C. Lord of Spruce Avenue who has been summering at Newcastle is confined to Brighton Hospital for an operation. Mrs. Lord's many friends in Richvale tender their best wishes. Best wishes are also sent by the ladies church auxiliary which was organized just last winter and of which Mrs. Lord is president.

The roll call "Aids to shopping" was answered by the members. The motto "Manners are the happy ways of doing things" was given by Mrs. N. Peelar.

After a lengthy business discussion Mrs. Agnew gave an interesting demonstration on spinning and weaving. The meeting closed in the usual way after which luncheon was served by the hostess and committee. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. Phillips, Woodbridge. Roll call to be answered with something for bazaar.

It's back to school again. Mrs. Rattle of Oakwood and Dufferin district will be the teacher at Edgeley School. We wish her every success.
