Wells McDonald, King Postmaster Dies Suddenly Of Heart Seizure

Death came suddenly to Wells F. McDonald, postmaster at King for the past 14 years, early on Wednesday evening, September 14, at his home in King village, following a heart seizure. Mrs. McDonald was on board the C.N.R. evening train bound from Toronto to King at the time. The entire community was shocked by the loss of a worthy, public spirited personality, highly esteemed in all walks of life.

operated by his grandfather, later his father and latterly his mother until 1935. In that year he followed his mother as King postmaster. The position had passed on down from his father and mother, and in his hands was efficiently and capably carried out. He was until recently a partner of the McDonald & Wells general store. Like his mother Wells died without much warning in the same home and is mourned by a wide circle of friends and relatives.

Deceased was born and educated at King, and at Aurora high school. Earlier in life he was interested in the recreation and sports of the village, and had fine musical talent which he used in orchestral work. He was a member of King United Church, a past master of Robertson Masonic Lodge, A.F. & A.M., and a former King school trustee. At the time of his death he was a director on King City Cemetery board, and a member of Lake Marie and King Athletic Association. Mr. McDonald's work as postmaster was carried out with utmost efficiency and cordiality in his service to the public. His mail couriers commended his management and associate postmasters spoke highly of his ability.

Expressions of sympathy and regards, were conveyed to the family and sisters of the deceased in many numerous floral tributes. A very large number of friends and acquaintances called at the home where the remains rested until Saturday afternoon, September 17, when the funeral service held in the United Church was conducted by the Rev. M. R. Jenkinson, with interment in King cemetery.

Surviving are the wife of the deceased, the former Ethel Edwards, two daughters, Mrs. David Anderson (Beth) of Toronto, Gerry at home and a son, Jim at home; two sisters, Miss Jean McDonald and Mrs. Edward Knowles (Edith) Bangor, Maine.

Church Services

At the anniversary services of Teston United Church the choir was attired in gowns for which they had raised the funds.

At All Saints Anglican Church on Sunday, October 2, at 9.30 a.m., in place of the usual 10 a.m., Harvest Thanksgiving Services will be observed to include Holy Communion. Rev. D. C. H. Mitchell will preach and the choir will render one of Stainer's anthems. At 7 p.m. Evening Prayer, the Rev. James Harvey, assistant at St. Anne's Church, Toronto, will preach and there will be special music by the choir.

On Sunday, October 25, Harvest Thanksgiving Services will be observed at St. John's, Oak Ridges, at 11.15 a.m. and at St. Stephen's, Maple, at 7 p.m.

King Memorial Library Notes Miss Marjorie Jarvis, chief librarian for the Memorial Library at King has this to tell the public. "Checking over the July 'Best Sellers,' in the current book sellers, I find six of the fiction, and four of the non-fiction on the list are in King library. These are as follows:

The Big Fisherman, L. C. Douglas; Dinner at Antoine's, P. P. Keyes; Point of No Return, P. C. Marquand; The Chain, P. Wellman; High Towers, T. Costain; Prairie Avenue, A. Meeker; Cheaper By The Dozen, F. Gilbreth; Seven Story Mountain, T. Merton; The Plague and I, B. McDonald; Great Story Ever Told, F. Oursler.

"News for all expert quilt makers of King come in the contents of a beautiful book on quilts and quilting that you'll enjoy. There are simple directions and patterns in it too for those who would like to join the ranks of 'experts,' or have secret ambitions in that direction."

"The new Literary Guild book is Taylor Caldwell's 'Let Love Come Last.' This was reviewed in last week's Saturday Review of Books in the Globe and Mail, under the heading 'Spare the rod and spoil the child.' It gives a refreshing and interesting twist to the old story of spoiled and ungrateful children. The story ran as a serial in the Ladies Home Journal."

Photography and art in any medium done by juniors and seniors of three local public schools, including those who have entered high school from these schools, will be on exhibit on Wednesday, October 19. Prizes are to be distributed to winners at the Library Open House Night in Memorial Hall, King.

Chest X-Ray For King Twp.

The Free Chest X-Ray Clinic for King Township will be set up by a mobile unit as follows: October 13, Nobleton; Oct. 17, King village; Oct. 19, Kettleby; Oct. 21, Schomberg village. Sponsored by the National Sanitarium Association, the survey is available to everyone free of charge, with the exception of children six years and under. All children 12 years and under are expected to be accompanied by a parent or guardian. The equipment which is set up in a specially equipped bus will operate near a public hall or church building. The X-ray work will take place in the special bus and those waiting may be accommodated in the nearby building for convenience. The time in each locality is set from 1 p.m. till 9 p.m.

At a public meeting held at Nobleton on September 14, organization was planned by H. G. Rose, secretary for the township board of health. A. S. Patterson, field secretary for the National Sanitarium Association spoke, again emphasizing the importance of accepting the survey opportunity. "It is now two years since a survey was made and while it may seem like only a year past, it is vitally important to step into the picture and guard health, the most precious possession, regardless of the past X-ray survey." Represented at the meeting were Church groups, Women's Institute branches, school boards and others. It was agreed to send out letters of information to each family in the township, and to the schools therein. In 1947 2,640 of the 5,000 King township population took the survey. This figure does not include those who were X-rayed at Aurora or other points, more convenient to their homes. This year Aurora will conduct the survey near the dates set for King Township.

As heretofore it is up to leaders or workers of organized groups to assist in management of the surveys in each township centre. Organization and facilities was reported satisfactory or money refunded.

Lasky Entertains Gormley

Lasky W. I. entertained Gormley of which Mrs. R. Baycroft is president, at the home of Mrs. P. Forester on September 13. Twenty-eight visitors came in a Langdon chartered bus and gave the program consisting of a paper by Mrs. Baycroft, dealing with "Trees" There are 400 different varieties in North America and each one with a story," she stated. "They introduce us to the skies, and are the subject of poems and songs. They are spoken of in the book of Genesis in the Bible, and always have they formed a chief industry. From them are life-giving things, from ships to cradles, and their fruits are wonderful and necessary." With Mrs. Jack Gamble presiding, others contributed: A J. M. Walton poem by Mrs. Brown; reading on picking by Mrs. G. Boynton; reading, Mrs. A. Monkman; solo by Mrs. Roy Smith; vocal duet by Mrs. W. Smith and Mrs. Roy Smith accompanied by Mrs. H. Smith.

At King, on Sunday, October 25, the annual drumhead service will be held on the lawn of All Saints' Anglican Church commencing at 3.30 in the afternoon. Various units of the zone with color parties will be present. A band will attend and the chaplain, Rev. D. C. H. Mitchell, will speak.

King City Social and Personal

Mrs. G. Hately took first place for coconut macaroons at the C.N.E. baking contest.

Mrs. Ella Campbell, Toronto, paid a recent week end visit to her son, A. E. Campbell, to see her new grandson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tawse of Eversley and her sister Mrs. W. Shropshire attended the marriage of their niece, Lois Tawse, held in Toronto last week. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Malcolm Tawse.

Prior to her marriage on Saturday last, Mrs. Harold Ferguson (nee Ruth Brown of King) was showered with gifts and best wishes. The Goodwill Club of the Canadian Pacific Express Co. of which the bride was an employee, gave her an electric tea kettle and sandwich grill in a presentation party. The office staff girls gave a gold colored Kenwood blanket and blue linen sheets and pillow cases. Mrs. A. E. Kelley and her daughter, Mrs. James Snelgrove of King entertained girl friends and other close friends and relatives of the bride presenting her with a china base table lamp, with jars of jams and jellies from "mothers and aunts" connected with her friends. The community shower planned for Thursday, September 15, has been postponed until the couple return from their honeymoon because of the death of Mr. W. F. McDonald.
