Bus Passengers Top Two Million

The number of passengers carried by the North Yonge buses for the first eight months of 1948 has set an all-time high, going over the two million mark, the report submitted to the municipalities which own the line by the T. T.C. indicates.
 Travelling 355,639 revenue miles, as compared to 307,362 in the same period in 1948, the buses have carried 2,020,709 passengers as against 1,671,330 up to the end of August, 1948.
 A noticeable drop in operating expenses per mile has been effected. For the January-August part of 1948 this amounted to 43.27c. The figure for 1949 has been 39.03c.

Mrs. Baker spent nearly four months in Richmond Hill this summer with her daughter Faith (Mrs. Rollinson) and Miss Jean Baker. Mrs. Baker made many friends while on her visit to Canada.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Barber, Victoria Square, Ont., announce the engagement of their second daughter, Betty Eleanor, to Walter Jeffries, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jeffries, London, Ont. The wedding will take place in Victoria Square United Church on Saturday, October 22, at 3 o'clock.

WEDDINGS

YAKE-FORREST
 Maple United Church was the setting on October 1 for the wedding of Ina Margaret Forrest, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Forrest, Maple, Ont., and Blake Andrew Yake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Yake of Ringwood, Ont. Rev. A. C. Forrest of Pt. Credit, brother of the bride officiated, assisted by Rev. P. Lambert of Maple.

Given in marriage by her brother, the bride wore an ivory satin gown. The high neckline featured a net yoke and the full hooped skirt was caught at the hemline by a bow knot which revealed the lace trimmed underskirt. Her full length embroidered veil was held by a pearl encrusted coronet and she carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias with stephanotis and bouvardia. The matron of honour was Mrs. Hugh Todd of Richvale, sister of the bride, who wore a yellow taffeta gown and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and mauve gladioli petals with matching flowers in her hair. Ann Forest, niece of the bride in blue taffeta and Carole Weir, niece of the groom in mauve taffeta were flower girls carrying nosegays of sweetheart roses and pom-pom mums with coronet of sweetheart roses in their hair. The wedding music was played by Miss Margaret Fockler of Keswick and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Archie McIntyre, cousin of the bride sang "I'll Walk Beside You." Mr. Harry Baker was the groomsmen and the ushers were Mr. Hugh Todd and Archie McIntyre. At the reception supper held in the Sunday School room, for which the W.A. catered, the bride's mother wore a wine crepe dress with corsage of yellow roses and gladioli petals. The soloist sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a blessing and during the supper a telegram of good wishes was received from the bride's nursing associates at the Red Cross Hospital at Beardmore, Ont.

For travelling to Northern Ontario, the bride chose a navy crepe suit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses and white gladioli. On their return they will live in Maple.

ROBB-JONES
 The marriage of Florence Jones, daughter of Mrs. E. Best and the late Mr. Best, Toronto, to Lorne Robb, son of Mrs. Fisher and the late Mr. Robb, Edgeley, was solemnized in Donlands United Church by the Rev. Irvin B. Perkins on Saturday, October 1. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. George Webb. She wore a blue street-length dress with cerise accessories. Mrs. Gwen Webb was bridesmaid and Mr. Lorne Madill acted as groomsmen. The reception was held at the home of the groom.

BIRTHS
JOHNSON — Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Johnson, New York City, wish to announce the birth of a daughter, Jennifer Anne, on September 26, 1949, at the Women's College Hospital, Toronto.

TAYLOR — Mr. and Mrs. John F. Taylor, Elgin Mills are happy to announce the birth of a son on Wednesday, September 28, at Private Patients Pavilion, Toronto General Hospital. Mother and son doing well. *1w14

PRATT — Gordon and Raymond, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pratt, wish to announce the arrival of their baby sister, Lorraine, Thursday, September 29, 1949, at Mrs. Stanford's Nursing Home, Richmond Hill.

"Why does the editor call himself 'we'?"
 "So the fellow who doesn't like what he says will think there are too many of him to lick."

CARD OF THANKS
 The family of the late John S. Lawson of King, extend grateful appreciation to friends, relatives and neighbors for acts of kindness, sympathy and fine floral tributes rendered during their recent bereavement in the loss of a kind and loving father.

CARD OF THANKS
 Mrs. Wells, F. McDonald and family wish to express to their many friends, relatives and neighbors, their heartfelt thanks and appreciation for acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral tributes extended them in their recent sad bereavement in the loss of a dear husband and father.

IN MEMORIAM
VALLIERE — In loving memory of our mother, Elizabeth Valliere, who passed away October 8, 1930.
 You can only have one mother, Patient, kind and true,
 No other friend in all the world Will be so true to you.
 For all her loving kindness She asks nothing in return,
 If all the world deserts you To your mother you can turn.
 Nineteen years, and still we remember
 For her love remains with us yet, For she was ours, and we remember
 Though the rest of the world forget.
 — The family. *1w14

Tennis Notes

Harry Hill was unanimously acclaimed president of the Richmond Hill Tennis Club for the second consecutive year at the club's re-organization meeting Friday evening. It was felt that due to his experience with tennis activities, he was the natural one to hold this position. George McLaren received the office of vice-president by acclamation. Eleanor Smith, our Junior Champ, was elected to be the new Secretary-Treasurer for the coming year. The committees for the year 1950 were drawn up and they are as follows:
 Grounds Committee: Chairman, Bob Baglow, Tim Saul, Terry McCauley.
 Games Committee: Chairman, Tim Saul, Don Wilson, Alvy Smith.
 Membership Committee: Chairman, Keith Teetzel, Lloyd Grainger, George McLaren.
 Don Wilson was appointed chairman of the committee to organize a party for the tennis members. A financial report of the club was read by this year's secretary-treasurer, Doreen Horner and is listed below.

You Can't Hire A Hall In Richmond Hill

Large enough to hold all the people who regularly sit down at home each week and read The Liberal — "Home Paper of the District Since 1878" — from front to back page.

But you can, at small cost, reach all those people through the advertising columns of the paper, either in display space or through a classified advertisement.

If you want to reach that big audience when you have something to sell — something you want to buy, — just call at the Liberal office or telephone Richmond Hill 9.

Our advertising staff will gladly co-operate with you in giving your message the "punch" that brings results.
