Women's Institute
The regular meeting of Maple Women's Institute was held in Maple Villa, Wednesday evening, October 12. We were honoured with two guest speakers — Mrs. Baty who spoke on "Citizenship" and Mr. Horton of the Department of Education, showing slides "This is Our Canada" and "Ballot Boxes" which were both interesting and educational. In closing Mrs. Baty urged us to listen every Thursday evening to Citizen Forum over the C.B.C. network. Current events were given by Mrs. F. S. Rumble. Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Hodge favoured with lovely piano duets also a reading by Mrs. V. Orr entitled "Preserving."
Lunch was served by the committee in charge.
Don't forget the Bazaar at Edgeley on October 29. Cars will meet in front of Maple Villa at 2:30 p.m.

St. Andrew's Anniversary

On Sunday, October 16, St. Andrew's Church, Maple, celebrated its 120th anniversary. Services were conducted morning and evening by Dr. J. A. Ross of Woodbridge. His sermons "Filling the Gap" and "Taking Things for Granted" were much appreciated by congregations which filled the church to capacity. The choir of High Park Presbyterian Church was present on both occasions and its well chosen numbers added greatly to the enjoyment of the day.
St. Andrew's Church will be closed Sunday, October 23, owing to anniversary services at Maple United Church. Sunday School will be held at the Manse at 1:30 p.m. Please note these changes.

Hope United Church

Mr. Gordon Orr, superintendent of the Sunday School of Hope United Church presided at the Rally Day service in the church on Sunday.
He was assisted by three children who read the Scripture lessons. Mrs. P. J. Lambert was the special speaker at the service and brought a fitting message for the day.
The service of praise was led by the Junior Choir who brought a delightful message of song. They were under the leadership of Mrs. Huls with Mrs. Gordon Orr presiding at the organ.
Maple United Church Rally and Promotion Day was held in Maple Sunday School on Sunday, October 16. Mr. M. J. Kinnee, the superintendent presided. The special speaker for the occasion was Mr. Carter of Toronto, whose works were brought home in a very real way to his listeners through the medium of Lights. In this he was assisted by six boys of the Sunday School.
The Junior choir of twenty-one voices was under the leadership of Mrs. Wm. Woods who presided at the organ. Jill Nufeld sang a fitting solo. All musical numbers were greatly appreciated.
Maple United Anniversary Rev. P. J. Lambert, B.A., B.D., will be the speaker at the morning service of Maple United Church on Sunday. He will be assisted by the church choir with Mrs. R. Clegg at the organ and Mrs. E. Brown, soloist.
At the evening service, Rev. Peter Gordon White, B.A., of Toronto will be the guest preacher. The service of praise will be under the leadership of the Ambassador Quartette also from Toronto. A hearty invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

Miss Anne Young and Mr. David Hall of Toronto visited over the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Walker.

Overflow Attendance At Edgeley Church Anniversary Service

Edgeley United Church was tastefully decorated for the Anniversary Services on Sunday. Rev. P. J. Lambert, B.A., B.D., the newly inducted minister, was the preacher at the morning service, taking as his subject "Going Forward with God." His message was much appreciated.
He was assisted by a choir of seventeen voices who rendered two anthems, and by Mrs. Kerr-Taylor, who rendered in beautiful voice the sacred number "The Stranger of Galilee." Mrs. Elmer Stong presided at the organ. All musical numbers were appreciated by the large congregation.
At the evening service, Rev. Hunnisett, B.A., was the guest preacher and in his own inimitable way brought a message long to be remembered.

He was assisted by four musicians from his Church in Toronto and also by "Little Johnny" of radio fame who rendered a sacred number.
For this service the church was filled to capacity. Chairs had to be brought from Edgeley Community Hall to accommodate the congregation.

"360 EGGS IN 365 DAYS"

(Canadian Official R.O.P. Record)

Ful-O-Pep Feed

This hen owned by DONALD McQ. SHAVER Galt
HER OUTSTANDING RECORD

This hen laid 301 eggs in 305 days (official record) and went on to lay 360 eggs in 365 days — a new Canadian official R.O.P. record. She was one of a pen of 180 and received no special handling. Over 20% of the Ful-O-Pep fed Shaver flock produced better than the 300 egg production mark. Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash has many extras — Extra protein, now 20%. Feed more grain. More animal protein. Available in mash, crumble and pellet form. Available in 50's paper. Nicer handling. A reasonable priced mash with results.
