Public Library
 As an additional service to our members without any further charge we have a selection of pocket book mysteries for circulation. The only ruling is for a member to bring one in order to take one out. This should appeal to the men in particular.

All the new books purchased for the fall are now on the shelves.

The subscription is still only $1.00 a year for adults and 25c for 6 months for children.

Do all the parents of Thornhill Public School children realize the great convenience and opportunity which this library affords at such little cost. We should gladly welcome any new members from the children of the school.

United Church News
 A large congregation and inspiring services marked the 97th anniversary of the Thornhill United Church at its present site. It is the 146th anniversary of the congregation which first met in a small church built in 1838 and located at Langstaff. In 1852 this was moved to its present site on Centre Street.

The Rev. M. R. Jenkinson of King United Church was guest preacher at the morning service and used as his theme "What A Man Lives By." Anthems were sung by the Junior and Senior choirs, and a solo was rendered by Mrs. L. Burke, contralto.

A special feature at this morning service was the presentation by Mrs. E. McKean, on behalf of the Ladies Guild, of a pulpit drape with the United Church crest embroidered on it, a runner and a brass cross for the Communion Table, and a Bible mark. The embroidery on these gifts is the work of Miss Muriel Dean and Mrs. Therrell, members of the Ladies' Guild. Dedication was made by the Rev. Jenkinson while appreciation of the articles was offered by Mrs. M. L. Morton. Words of welcome were given by Mr. G. Giles, chairman of the Board of Stewards, who told some of the history of the church.

A large congregation also attended the evening service at which the Rev. D. E. Bradford of Lawrence Park Community Church was guest speaker. The theme of the service was based on "The Abuse of the Sacred."

The wonderful response of the congregation to these services helped to make this 97th anniversary a very special occasion.

The annual Thankoffering services of the W.M.S. took place in the church on Tuesday afternoon, October 11. Mrs. E. Kent, president of the afternoon auxiliary presided at this service. Mrs. Howe was guest speaker, the theme of her talk being on the "Call of Jesus." She challenged the congregation to do the best with the talents they have. A beautiful solo was rendered by Mrs. Burke. Refreshments were later served in the Sunday School hall.

A number of the members of the afternoon W.M.S. attended the W.M.S. Rally held in the King United Church last Thursday afternoon.

The Young Ladies Guild met at the home of Mrs. R. Jeffreys, of Thornbank Road, last Thursday evening with Mrs. Sharpless presiding. The guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. M. Russell of Castlefield Baptist Church who was introduced by Mrs. Burke. On completion of her interesting talk special thanks were offered by Mrs. E. Kent on behalf of the lad-

The local branch of the Canadian Legion, Branch No. 375, Richmond Hill, which has been holding its meeting in the Richvale School wish to bring to the attention of the neighborhood the fact that an Auxiliary is being inaugurated.

A meeting of this auxiliary is to be held in the school basement at 8.30 next Monday evening, October 24. The mothers, wives and daughters of veterans are cordially invited to take part in this affair.

The secretary of Branch 375 of the Legion, Mr. Doug Horton of Yongehurst Blvd., announces that he has application cards for medals in his possession. Veterans are requested to contact Mr. Horton so they may obtain the cards necessary to receive their medals from Ottawa.

Cubs Outing
 The boys in the 1st Richvale Cub Pack had been looking forward for some weeks to an outing at Camp Samac and last Sunday their dreams were realized to the fullest extent.

Thirty-two boys accompanied by some of their parents made the trip and transportation was provided by eight cars which were driven by Mr. Speigh, Mr. Underhill, Mr. Nicol, Mr. Williams, Mr. Martin, Mr. Baskerville, Mr. Harold Ince and also Mr. Jackson Taylor who acted as a driver by the courtesy of Mr. Al Baker of Baker's Service Station who was kind enough to provide a car.

The Cubs were under the supervision of their leaders, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Millard, Mrs. Smith and Misses Melba Baker and Carol Nicol. Everyone was very much impressed with the camp whose buildings are constructed of hand hewn timbers. In all there are 7 sleeping huts which house twenty boys each with a large assembly or council hall in the centre. There is also an artificial lake with quite spacious grounds to complete the picture.

The boys played a number of games with the parents participating in some of the fun.

The boys held a paper fashion show and costume display which were won by Fred Barker and David Ince, Ian Cool and Joe Barton; while in the parents' section, Mrs. Williams with Mrs. Ince took the honors closely contested by Mr. Turnbull and Miss Melba Baker and Mr. Ince and Miss Martin.

The happy group left in the early evening for a pleasant journey home through the autumn twilight — full of plans for another visit in the near future.

The auxiliary of the boy scouts and cubs wish to announce their next meeting which will be Thursday, October 27, at the residence of Mrs. Harold Ince, Spruce Ave. Mrs. Williams and Mr. Smith of the cubs and scouts thank the residents of the community for their splendid response last Saturday on Boy Scout Apple Day.

A demonstration by the Wear-Ever Brush representative was given by Mrs. Bliss of Toronto at the home of Mrs. Doug Carter. Nineteen guests were present and played bingo. Refreshments were served and enjoyed by all.

Mrs. D. Carter and Mrs. J. Angiers spent the week end with S. Carter at Bala.

QUEEN'S RECTOR QUOTES FIGURES

"Today, in Britain, about 200 of every 100,000 go to a university," Dr. L. W. Brockington, Rector of Queen's University, points out. "In the U.S., about 1,800 are given that opportunity. In Canada, about 900 out of every 100,000 attend our various colleges of higher learning. There is an ever-growing place for the great Provincial universities, which have opened so many doors of opportunity to the sons and daughters of Canada."

CHILDREN NEED a nourishing diet with plenty of "building foods" such as milk, fruit, vegetables, meat, and eggs, for growth and for strong bones.

REGULAR EXERCISE develops muscles, improves posture, and stimulates the functioning of all parts of the body.

SUFFICIENT SLEEP is particularly important. Most children, between the ages of 5 and 12 years, should have about 12 hours sleep every night.

AS EITHER underweight or overweight may affect good health, it's wise to try to keep a child's weight about normal for his age and build.
