Telephone Richmond Hill 9

Mr. and Mrs. T. Taylor, Yonge St., spent the week end in Ottawa.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Young of Belleville were week end guests with Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Young.

James Butler, J.P., of Richmond Hill, member of the Central Executive of the York County Veterans and treasurer of that organization, will visit Midland on November 13 and will speak at the joint Remembrance Day service in that town, in which all organizations will be taking part.

Dr. Taylor, Sunday morning Adult Bible Class of the United Church, was recently entertained at the home of Mrs. Gee, Centre St. E. Miss Irene McCordick of Clarke Irwin Publishing House gave an interesting talk on books from the author to the buyer. New members welcome.

Mr. Wilson Beresford who has been on the sales staff in Toronto of Libby's Products, has been transferred to Ottawa where he will have charge of sales for a large section of Eastern Ontario and Quebec. He took up his new duties Monday and his many friends join in extending congratulations and best wishes for continued success in his new position.

DEVINS FAMILY MOVE
After seventeen years' residence in Richmond Hill Mr. and Mrs. David L. Devins have sold their Benson Avenue home to Mrs. A. Savage and have moved to Emery to property which has been in the Devins name since 1792, their children being the sixth generation of the name to live there. Abraham Devins and his son Isaac, who came from Pennsylvania, were the original settlers and it is claimed that Isaac's daughter was the first white child to be born in York County.

WEDDINGS

Ferguson-Gale
Rev. P. Lambert officiated at a quiet wedding in Maple United Church parsonage on Wednesday, October 19, when Margaret Beatrice Gale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gale, Maple, became the bride of Watson Norman Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Ferguson, King. The bride who was attired in a pale blue suit with navy accessories and a corsage of mauve "mums", was attended by her sister, Louise Gale, in a grey suit with grey accessories and a corsage of bronze "mums". Charles Beaton, Oro Station, was groomsmen. After a motor trip the couple will reside at King.

Cameron-Cundiff
Effectively decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums in tall white standards, Chalmers United Church, Mount Dennis, was the scene on Friday evening, October 21, 1949, of the marriage of Audrey Bettie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cundiff, Mount Dennis, and Archibald Kenneth, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Cameron of Woodbridge. Rev. Arthur Eagle officiated for the double ring ceremony.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her bridal gown of ivory moire, with off-the-shoulder neckline, encircled by a bertha, and fitted bodice with button trim. Her finger-tip veil fell from a matching head-dress, and she carried Lester Herbert roses. She was attended by the groom's cousin, Miss Kathryn Bryson, as maid of honour, wearing a floor-length gown of dark turquoise moire, of design almost identical with that of the bride and carrying a bouquet of briarcliff roses and stephanotis.
The groom was assisted by his cousin, Delbert Bannan of Malton, and the ushers were Carlyle Cundiff of Mount Dennis, only brother of the bride, and the groom's cousin, Mr. Bruce Maltby of Woodbridge. The wedding music was played by Miss Mary Lillow. "Through the Years" and "Because" were sung by the soloist, Mrs. Winnifred Boyd.
The reception was held in the church parlours and later in the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Cundiff received her guests wearing navy needlepoint crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses and bouvardia. Mrs. Cameron received with her wearing Queensborough blue crepe and corsage of Talisman roses and bouvardia. About sixty guests partook of the wedding dinner.
For a honeymoon trip to Louisville and Lexington, Kentucky, and to Corydon, Indiana, the bride travelled in a dress of cocoa brown wool tricotine, dark green coat and brown hat and accessories. On their return, they will reside on the Cameron homestead at Vellore where they will be the fourth Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Cameron to occupy this farm which has been in the Cameron name since 1842.
Following the reception a very pretty gesture on the part of the bride was the presentation of her bouquet to the groom's great-aunt Mrs. Louie Taylor of Weston, who, previous to a second marriage, as Mrs. Archibald Cameron, resided also on the same homestead.
Out of town relatives and friends were present from Woodbridge, Markdale, Wareham, Dundalk, Maple and other points.

RECORD CENTRE
DECCA RECORDS
Comment on a recent phase in record buying, noted recently in Down Beat magazine, admitted western or folk music is outselling popular hits and jazz. This trend in popularity has been obvious for many months in Richmond Hill and district, and it is interesting to find that a representative community can reflect country-wide public taste.
"Slipping Around" by Ernest Tubbs, Western star on Decca records is in great demand these days and his latest release, "My Filipino Rose," promises to be equally popular.
Red Foley's latest release, "Tennessee Polka," coupled with "I'm Throwing Rice," is another popular western hit.
Don Messer and His Islanders record exclusively on Apex records — distributed by Decca Records.

Beynons Observe Silver Wedding

One of the season's loveliest affairs was held on Saturday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Beynon on the occasion of their silver wedding. Many friends and relatives called to wish them well and they were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. The spacious living-room was a bower of beautiful flowers and the tea table was tastefully done in silver, pink candles and pink roses. The anniversary cake was daintily decorated with silver in honor of the occasion. During the afternoon Mrs. Harold Murphy and Miss Alida Beynon presided over the tea table and during the evening, Miss Gladys Leverton and Miss Elizabeth Smith both of Toronto. The gala affair was climaxed by dancing and cards. Guests were present from Newmarket, Aurora, Schomberg, Toronto, Maple and other points.
