Mrs. Hugh Ross spent last week at Brantford with her aunt, Mrs. James with whom she returned home following Mrs. James' visit to Kinghorn. On Sunday, Mr. Ross motored to Brantford.

Mrs. Harry Edwards visited friends at Weston last week.

Mrs. Ivan Specht is returning to her home this week after some time in York Memorial hospital, Newmarket.

At York County hospital Newmarket two births are recorded. To Mr. and Mrs. Earle Scott of King, a son born on Friday, October 7. He is the seventh son of Mr. and Mrs. Scott and according to tradition should be endowed with nothing but "good luck."

On Friday, October 21, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McMurchy who now have three children.

Mrs. Frank Piercey, Teston, spent a day in King last week attending a group meeting of King and Kettleby ladies at the Baptist parsonage and King Y.P.S. in the evening.

Mr. Clarence Marchant of Schomberg held his farm sale last Friday. Vacating the place next spring, Mr. Marchant is building a home on a lot in Schomberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Benson have taken an apartment in Mrs. G. H. Stone's house in King while their new home here is under construction. At present they and their young son are spending a week's vacation in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Scott, Toronto, have sold their home on Pepper Ave., and soon will move in to King to occupy the house which had belonged to Mrs. Scott's father, the late John S. Lawson. Born near King Mrs. Scott will return to her home town, and with her husband and son Douglas are heartily welcomed as residents of King.

Mrs. T. L. Williams is spending a week with her cousin, Mrs. Bert Boyd, at Hamilton. Mrs. Ross Sinclair, Toronto, a sister-in-law, spent a few days with Mrs. Williams last week.

W. Clarence Monkman, 62, head of the stenography department at Central High School of Commerce who died suddenly at his Toronto home, recently was born at Maple.

Mrs. Donald Ferguson, Woodville attended Eversley Church on Sunday with her nieces, Mrs. Fred Curtis and Mrs. Charles Gordon.

Miss Jessie Monkman and her sister, Mrs. Alfred Smith, Toronto, have returned to King after an extended visit with their brother, Dr. Harvey Gellatly at Fort William.

Turkey Theft
Two men were apprehended late Sunday night for theft of turkeys allegedly stolen from a flock owned by James Cooper, near Schomberg. P. C. Arthur Moody said Frank Bradley, 30, of Schomberg and Fred Mitchell, 24, River St., Toronto, each had possession of one bird in his home at the time of the arrest. According to police the men had inquired for Mr. Cooper who was not at home. Melville Botham, an employee said the suspects took 2 20-25 lb. turkey in the laneway as they drove away in a truck. Botham, sighted the vehicle licence number, and it was later turned over to police. Constable Moody said one turkey was hanging up in the Bradley house and the other fowl was being plucked at the Mitchell's Toronto home.

Placed in No. 1 police station, Toronto, the suspects appeared in court on Monday, and will answer charges of theft in Newmarket court this Friday. Constables Moody, Schomberg and Fleury, Aurora, investigated.

Lake Marie and King Athletic Association will hold the first dance in McDonald and Wells' hall on Oct. 28.

Laskay Old Boys' Association will hold a dance in Laskay W.I. hall on Friday, November 4.

Mrs. Elizabeth Follitt will officially open Eversley bazaar and afternoon tea in King United Church basement on Friday, November 4, at 3 p.m., where things one expects to purchase at a bazaar will be found, from lots of aprons on down.

King United W.A. bazaar will be held on Thursday, November 24, at the church.

A very large crowd attended Laskay Turkey Supper held last Friday at the church. One man came from Angus, Ont., because he had enjoyed the same event so much last year. Others came from Richmond Hill, Toronto, Aurora and many other centres. The concert provided by Deer Park United Church Choir was exceptionally well appreciated. The event was given by the W.M.S. of the church of which Mrs. Louis Marwood is president.

Mr. J. Muir, East Toronto, a student of Knox College preached in the Presbyterian pulpits on Sunday. With him was his wife. They are originally from the Priceville district.

Benefit Bingo Success
King Legion benefit bingo drew not less than 65 persons last Friday despite several other events that night. A future bingo night is again being planned.

W. Douglas
Funeral service for William S. Douglas, 27, son of Mrs. Rose Douglas and the late Frederick Douglas, New Scotland, was held from the King Township residence on October 19, conducted by Rev. F. V. Abbott of Schomberg, with interment in King cemetery. Deceased passed away in Toronto General hospital where he had spent a month. His illness began in February. He was a member of St. Alban's Anglican church, Nobleton, and belonged to Schomberg Junior Farmers' club. His was the first break in this circle of associates. Besides his mother, survivors are three brothers, Frank of Schomberg, Fred of Toronto, Murray at home; three sisters, Mrs. Harold Hollinshead of King, Mrs. Alexander Sanderson, Toronto and Elizabeth at home.

Orion Hess
Mrs. Alex Gray and her sister, Mrs. Frank Piercey of Teston, received word during the week end of the sudden passing of their brother, Orion Wesley Hess, of Union Bridge, near Baltimore, Maryland, in his 79th year, on Saturday, October 22, after suffering a stroke the previous day. He was the son of the late John David Hess, who lived at one time at Markham, and was born at Dayton, Ohio. Mr. Hess was a carpenter by trade and lived at Union Bridge for a great number of years. He was a member of the United Church of that place. His sisters here did not attend the funeral. Mr. Hess had visited here when his sisters lived at King.

Nonagenarian Born in Vaughan
Mrs. James Reynolds of Aurora who was 94 years of age on October 22, was born in Vaughan township the daughter of David White and lived near Maple on the fourth concession. Fifty-two years ago the family moved to Kettleby and there she married James Reynolds in 1921. He passed away 10 years later. She has lived in Aurora for about 28 years. Mrs. Reynolds has good health except for the inconvenience of arthritic lameness, which nevertheless does not hinder her indefatigable labor for the Red Cross. During the war she knitted numbers of heavy seamen's socks, made quilts and other sewing. She has already 125 baby blankets to her credit and will increase that number greatly as the winter months come on. She is actively interested in the work of the Junior Red Cross branch of Aurora. As a former teacher of the United Church she was greeted by its members on her birthday. Mrs. Reynolds is a life member of the W.M.S. of her church. Residing with her at her Catherine St. home is a sister, Mrs. Jennie Langford.

Teachers Elect Officers
Mr. Paul Wagar, principal of Eversley school, was named president of King Township Teachers' Association at the first seasonal meeting held at Temperanceville school last week. Mr. R. C. Flynn, principal of Schomberg Public School is vice-president and Miss

Canadian Pacific Requests Closing Elder Mills Stn.

Approval of the township council in connection with the closing of the flag station at Elders Mills was asked by the Canadian Pacific Railway and considered by the council at a recent meeting. No action was taken, pending further investigation.

Direction was given by the council at the same meeting for the holding of a court of revision for the assessment rolls for 1950 at the township office in Maple on Saturday, November 5.

Also dealt with were three applications for Hydro contracts which were refused on the grounds that the parties resided in buildings of smaller size or contrary in some other way to the provisions of by-law 1611.

By-laws to raise the sum of $3,363.64 for school purposes by way of loan, and to amend by-law No. 1526 to permit the erection of a school on part of lot No. 27, first concession of Vaughan, were passed.

Misses High Tension Wires
When the steam shovel of a tractor float caught the guy wire of a hydro and telephone pole south of Churchill hill, highway 27, late Friday night, Murray Judges, Oak Ridges, was fortunate to escape mishap. He was proceeding south on No. 27, and is employed by an Aurora Construction Co. P. C. Bob Chappel of Bradford OPP investigated.

Obituary
Ivan Marks, former well known resident of Richmond Hill, died last Friday at Sunnybrook Hospital, following an operation. The late Mr. Marks came to Richmond Hill back in 1924 and established a large squab farm on Mill street where he lived and carried on business for several years. In 1937 he moved to Toronto and was engaged in the insurance business before enlisting in the Armed Forces in 1940. While serving in Alaska he became ill and has been hospitalized much of the time since. He also saw service in the First World War. He is survived by his widow and one son, Selwyn, a second year student at Toronto University. The funeral was held Monday afternoon and was attended by several from this district.
