IN MEMORIAM

PARKINSON — In loving memory of my dear grandfather, Harry Parkinson, who passed away January 29, 1950, also my loving grandmother, Berta Parkinson, who passed away May 1, 1944.
They are gone but not forgotten
And as dawn another year, In my lonely hours of thinking Thoughts of them are always near.
Days of sadness still come o'er me Friends may think the wound is healed
But they little know the sorrow That lies within my heart concealed.
— Sadly missed by granddaughter Arlene. clw30

Joseph E. Weaver Veteran of five year's service in the last war, Joseph Edwin Weaver of Maple died in Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto, on January 11.
He was born in Fleming, Sask., in 1912, later moving to Brantford, Ontario. During the war he served from 1940 to 1942 with the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals.
In the latter year he was seconded to the Transport Command of the Royal Air Force and ferried bombers to many parts of the world, including India and Africa, serving as Radio Officer. While stationed in London, Ontario, he helped in testing Mosquito bombers.
For the last two years Mr.
Weaver had been with the Department of Lands and Forests at Maple. He was a member of Antiquity Lodge No. 1 Montreal, and a Masonic service was held on Sunday, January 13, when his funeral was held from the chapel of Wright and Taylor, Richmond Hill, with interment in Richmond Hill cemetery.
Besides his wife, the former Virginia O'Connor of Huntingdon, Quebec, he is survived by his father, F. E. Weaver of Brantford and by two sisters and two brothers — Mrs. Morley Abrams, Nut Mountain, Sask., Mrs. R. G. Baker, Cooksville; Mr. Russell and Mr. Robert Weaver, both of Brantford.

CARD OF THANKS

Home and School Your correspondent would like to draw the attention of all those who are interested in Home and School

The Richmond Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, January 29 and 30.

John Bradshaw Speaker
Thornhill Horticultural Society feels fortunate to have been able to get Mr. John Bradshaw to speak at its first meeting of the year which is to be held on Monday, February 12, in Thornhill United Church.

Mr. John Bradshaw is well known by his Saturday gardening column in a Toronto paper and by his farm broadcast at 6 a.m. on week-days. This was the only date the speaker had available and in view of his being so much in demand, the directors of the society hope that as many members as possible, and others who are interested, will make a special effort to attend.

This will also be the annual meeting for election of officers and receiving of reports.

Guide News
In an impressive ceremony which took place at the last meeting of the 1st Thornhill Girl Guide Company, Nancy Simpson, Sandra Sowden and Penny Reid were indicated as Guides, after successfully completing their Tenderfoot or probation. The Divisional Commissioner, Mrs. D. R. Gunn, officiated at the enrollment.

A skating party at Richmond Hill Arena is planned for next Saturday, January 27.

There are at present a few vacancies in the Guide Company. Girls between the ages of 11 and 14 are eligible and those interested can see the Guide Captain, Miss Joyce Healey, at the Scout Hut on Saturday mornings at 10 o'clock, at which time the regular meetings begin.

Brownie News

On January 18, 1951, the ladies of Thornhill Women's Institute presented Mrs. E. G. McKean with an embossed non-tarnishing silver tea tray, in recognition of the way she carried out her duties during the time she was president and catering convener and in appreciation of the great amount of her time which was involved.

Mrs. David Kennedy of Thorn-bank Road was admitted to St. Michael's Hospital last week for an operation. We are glad to report that on Monday he was making a little improvement.

Ralph Nuttall had his tonsils removed on Tuesday of last week and is at home now enduring the painful stage which lasts so much longer for grown-ups than for children.

Many local residents will mourn the loss to the community of a well-loved and wonderful personality in the passing on Sunday, January 21, 1951, of Mrs. J. R. Peave Robinson at her home in Thornhill.

Mrs. Robinson, the former Carrie Elizabeth Elson, was born at Headford almost 86 years ago. Following her marriage, she set up house with her husband on the 3rd cession of Markham, where they farmed until they moved to the house next door to the United Church Parsonage on Yonge Street.
Mr. Robinson passed away in August of 1943.

Mrs. Robinson's cousin, Rev. Albert Elson from Hyde Park, London, Ontario, conducted the funeral service on Tuesday, assisted by Rev. E. E. Kent, and interment was made in Thornhill Cemetery.
The pall bearers were a nephew, Percy Elson of Watford; Gordon Topping of Oriole; Alvin Robinson and Joe Robinson of Thornhill; Earle Buckle of Queensville and Carson Robinson of King.

ture was invested as Sixer of the Gnomes. Further Secondors to receive stripes were Sharon Burgess, Shirley Dean, Caroline Richan and Elaine Pretzel.

Another feature of the meeting was the presentation of Service Stars as follows:
1st Year: Mary Adam, Sharon Burgess, Marion Davis, Anne O'- Brien, Helen McNeice, Barbara Newman, Carol Payne, Bonnie Robertson and Jane Simpson.

2nd Year: Catherine Carruthers, Shirley Dean, Martha MacNeil, Elaine Pretzel, Carol Richan and Nancy Lee Short.

3rd Year: Linda Bresnehan, Catherine Harvie, Linda L'Avrenture, Jill Wishard and Catherine Wood.

Golden Hand
Jill Wishard is the first Brownie to earn her Golden Hand this year.

Trinity Church Thornhill

Vestry Meeting
On Monday evening, January 29, the Annual Vestry meeting of Trinity Church will be held at 8:15 p.m.

At this meeting reports will be received from the Church Officers and from the various organizations dealing with every phase of Church life during the year 1950.

Officers for 1951 will be elected and plans presented for the new year.

Parish Council
At a recent meeting of the Parish Council, the last for 1950, financial reports were received, and the budget for 1951 was prepared.

The Council is made up of all Church Officers and two representatives from each of the organizations.

A report was received from the organisations.
A report was received from the organist, Mr. C. R. Devey, and the organ builders, Lye Bros. showing that the organ could be replaced in the church only at a cost which would be prohibitive considering its age and its utility in the very much enlarged church.

The Council decided that the organ should be rebuilt using everything possible in the old organ, and that it should be considerably enlarged and improved, with an electric action and three new stops.

A sub-committee, composed of the Rector and Wardens, Messers Devey, Ross and Healey, and Mrs.
Len Wood, was set up to deal with ways and means and to report to the vestry on January 29th.

Parish Guild

The first meeting of the Parish Guild was held at the Rectory on Tuesday, January 16th.

Plans for 1951 were discussed and the Guild decided that its first venture would be to sponsor a Cookery School which would last three evenings and will be put on by Robin Hood Flour Mills. The dates will be April 17, 18 and 19th.
The sale of tickets will be managed by a Committee convened by Mrs. Bill Lennox.

Substantial sums of money were voted towards the expenses on the rebuilding of the Church organ and towards new equipment in the kitchen.

Grade 3 Pupils Visitors To Plant

Ten girls from Miss E. C. Shav-er's class of the Public School, which is now located in the municipal Building, visited the Liber-al's plant last Tuesday afternoon and were taken on a tour of the composing room, where they saw the current issue of the paper being prepared for publication.

The visiting group, all of whom are in Grade 3, were Doreen Guest, Ruth Cannon, Jean Cole, Phyllis Harding, Ruth Percival, Ilga Peterson, Helen White, Ruth Guppy, Katherine Koenig, Ardelin Wyer.
They were accompanied by Miss Shaver.
