INSURANCE Cont.

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS

With the increase of fire hazards property owners should review their insurance policies; and due to the increased cost of materials the amounts of insurance. Also car owners who think it will never happen to them are caught some time or other without protection.
The cost is a minor amount to what it will cost if an accident happens.

LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT — MRS. STAN. V. WORSDALE Telephone Thornhill 257r12

Mrs. H. LeMasurier, vice-president of the north area, York County Home and School Council, is one of those who have made requests to the local theatre, The Richmond, for the showing of special films they believe would be of particular interest to the community. The manager, Mr. Ned Hill, has co-operated whole-heartedly and the next such featurette can be seen on Monday and Tuesday of next week.
It was filmed at Forest Hill school is entitled "Family Circle" and will appeal to those interested in Home and School.

Sports
Langstaff contributed its fair share to the OMHA Juvenile Hockey team's first win of the present season when Morty Charles scored the second goal in their 3 to 0 win over Stouffville. Don Watt and Tommy White, the other two locals performed admirably, unfortunat-

Health Unit Leader Speaks To Headford H. & S. Association

The monthly meeting of the Headford Home and School Association was held on January 16, at the Headford Public School. Mrs.
Stewart Rumble, president, opened the meeting.
Mr. Cross showed a film on how to prepare appetizing, nourishing school lunches, also a typical school day in the country which emphasized the teacher critically inspecting each pupil re clean hands, neck, etc.

Mrs. Elmer Leek introduced the speakers, Dr. King from the new County Health Unit, and Miss Topper, one of the Health Unit school nurses. Dr. King gave an interesting and informative talk on the newly organized Health Unit.
Many folk had asked him the why and wherefore of such a unit.

The need for medical help was recognized in 1880 after a cholera outbreak in the St. Lawrence Valley, this help was dropped until some time later, cholera broke out afresh and the Medical Board of Health was formed once more on the lines of the Public Health Act of Great Britain. Canada recognizing her great responsibility for the health of her people, and through its provincial governments and local municipalities, local Boards of Health were set up.

The new County Health Unit was formed in July last with headquarters at Newmarket, its chief aim to protect as far as humanly possible the spread of any communicable disease in each community.

Dr. King said his was a full time job and he hoped in time to have seven nurses working in the interests of school children and sanitary inspectors to advise and solve problems re water, sanitation, etc.

Miss Topper spoke briefly and advised that the immunization programme at Headford School would start in April.
Mrs. Vizely thanked Dr. King, Miss Topper and Mr. Cross, on behalf of the Headford Home and School Association for such interesting up-to-the-minute information on the new County Health Unit and the much enjoyed slides.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. George Barker and helpers.

Outstanding Picture Is "Family Circles" Coming To Richmond

A film of special interest, to Home and School Associations, teachers and all those interested in the development of children will appear at the Richmond Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, January 29 and 30. Yet, even with this appeal to a specialized group it still has a decisive "general audience" attraction.

"Family Circle" is a National Film Board production and runs ring homes, dramatically emphasizing the influence which the attitudes in those homes have on the development of the lives of "citizens of the future." The frustrations which come to childhood, the effect of friction in the home, the value of patient understanding and co-operation, weave into a pattern which raises the picture far above the level of a stuffy "instructional" film — make it a powerful demonstration of the reality of human values, properly and sensibly balanced in the tempo of today. It is distinctly a film worth seeing.

EDGELEY NEWS

Correspondent:
Mrs. Sydney Steventon
Edgeley, Ont.

The annual meeting of Edgeley United Church was held in the church on Wednesday evening, January 17. All reports showed favourable progress. More children attended Sunday School, during the last twelve months which is a very encouraging sign. Mr.
J. A. Mitchell moved a vote of thanks to Rev. P. J. Lambert for his work during the year.

The regular monthly meeting of Edgeley W.A. was held on Thursday, January 18, in the home of Mrs. E. Phillips of Woodbridge.
Mrs. Phillips was in charge of the meeting and Mrs. Charles Snider was the guest speaker.

After the business was dealt with the positions filled for the year ahead, the scripture was read by Mrs. Summerfeldt and the lesson thoughts by Mrs. Steventon.
Rev. P. J. Lambert played a piano solo "The March of the Triads."

A message by Mrs. Snider which was based on the story of Elijah and Elisha was very inspiring.

Roll Call was answered 100% — it being "How we spent Christmas Sunday and New Year's Sunday."

A duet by Rev. and Mrs. Lambert "The Old Rugged Cross" was enjoyed by all and brought to a close an interesting afternoon.
Lunch was served. There were 13 members and Rev. Lambert present.

On Friday, January 19, the ladies of the Community held a "shower" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greenley for their daughter Joan, who was married on January 13, at the United Church Parsonage at Maple, to Mr. A. B. Chapman of Pine Grove. Rev. P. J. Lambert performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dove grey suit with navy accessories and wore a corsage of roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Audrey Down of Weston wore a royal blue dress with wine accessories and wore a corsage of carnations. Mr. Bruce Colton of Woodbridge was groomsmen. A wedding dinner was held for the immediate families at Pinecrest Park. The couple have returned from a trip to Buffalo and Rochester and are residing in Edgeley.
A good number of ladies attended the shower and the happy pair received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The Y. P. Fellowship meeting scheduled for Friday, the 19th, was cancelled because of the shower. The Group will go skating on Saturday evening this week.

Two sound films "Let There Be Light" and "The House I Live In" will be shown during the 38th Anniversary party of the Edgeley Women's Institute on Friday evening, January 26.

For further details see the Coming Events column.
The next meeting of the Women's Institute will be February 1, at the home of Mrs. A. Bagg. Program in charge of the Home Economics convener, Mrs. R. Stuart.

Your Commerce Branch

Keystone of Main Street

Our town has come far! It was once just a wave-lapped cove of the Pacific.
Now it is part of the vast lumbering industry of Canada's west coast.

And serving that industry... and us... is a branch of the Commerce. The manager is our friend — knows us well — gives service that comes with long acquaintance.

Our town depends on lumber.
And you can depend on the men and women at the Commerce — they are good people to know.
