Saturday To Be Big Event For Guides Scroll, Log Book, To Be Drawing Card

At the 13th World Conference on Guiding, held in England last fall, delegations from each of the twenty-seven member nations present received from the hands of Princess Margaret an illuminated scroll, bearing a message of friendship to the Guides of their country from the Rangers, Guides, and Brownies of Britain.

Each Scroll was accompanied by the gift of a beautiful log book, done by hand, covering guiding in Britain.

On Saturday, as announced elsewhere on this page, the scroll and book will spend some time in Richmond Hill and Richvale.

These prized gifts, after their presentation by the Princess, were brought to this side of the Atlantic by the Canadian delegates and have already travelled 9,000 miles by Trans-Canada Airlines from Newfoundland to British Columbia. They are now in Ontario for a few weeks.

After spending Saturday morning in The Liberal's office window they will be taken to Richvale at 1.30, where they will be on display in the school there. Returning to Richmond Hill a few hours later, they will be in the Public School Auditorium at 4.30 p.m. when Mrs. D. R. Gunn will present the scroll to Miss E. Izzard, District Commissioner. Also present will be Mrs. John MacNeil, District Commissioner of Thornhill, Guides and Brownies from the district and guides from Agincourt and Oak Ridges.

An invitation is extended to members of the public to attend the function at the Public School and to see the scroll and log book.

The showing of the articles at Richvale will coincide with the joint Scout-Guide-Brownie and Cub Hobby Show to be held in the school there on Saturday afternoon.

"Pay Us A Visit" Say Curling Club Members

"Best season for many years in spite of disappointments caused by mild weather in the earlier part," is the report given by Bert Barber, president of the Richmond Hill Curling Club. Local rinks, he says, have played against Thornhill and Unionville and hope to play Woodbridge soon. One local aggregation covered itself with honours when it went to Sutton Bonspiel, members coming home with a lamp piece.

Membership of the club is now 45 and, says President Barber, new curlers and new residents are invited to pay a visit to the club, which is at the east side of the arena. He stresses that the invitation is a friendly one and there is no compulsion towards membership.

Auditors' Report Reveals Magnitude Of Work Done By Lions Club, Thornhill

Submitted by a firm of chartered accountants, the auditors' report covering operations of the Thornhill Community Memorial and Recreational Centre discloses again what a big job was done in the building of that community's swimming pool.

Started by a contribution of $30,000 given by Gordon C. Leitch through Rev. S. A. R. Wood, the project was enthusiastically backed by members of the Thornhill Lions Club with, as the report shows, $74,767.27 finally being raised from other contributions. One most effective source, it was revealed by the report was the $19,610 brought in by the car raffle sponsored by the Lions.

Impressive as the figures are they do not include the amount of work and material contributed to the venture.

The statement follows:—

Wide Range Of Problems Handled By School Board In Extra Lengthy Session

Members of Richmond Hill's Public School Board again burned the midnight oil at their regular February meeting when, in a session ending at 1 a.m., they discussed subjects ranging all the way from a site for the new school to estimates for 1951 operation.

The owner of the property at the northern village limits which had been selected by trustees as a suitable site for a new school, and on which expropriation proceedings had been started, appeared before the board asking for reconsideration of the plan. The subject was referred to a special committee.

Another special committee was appointed, with Trustees Ed. Butlin and Mrs. Langstaff as its members, to study various proposals placed before the board regarding protective insurance on pupils of the school.

The new fluorescent lights which are being installed in one room of the Public School as a test of lighting improvement at a reasonable cost would, it was stated, be in operation shortly.

Thanks From Teachers

Expressing thanks for the consideration given to them in view of the increasing cost of living was a letter signed by all teachers. Its receipt by the board followed a recent upward adjustment of teaching salaries.

Also decided on was an increase in the rate paid supply teachers of $1.50 per day.

A vote of appreciation to Manager Ned Hill of the Richmond Theatre for making the National Film Board picture "Family Circles" available locally, and for inviting trustees and teachers to its showing was adopted.

Fencing of the school grounds would be completed this year, it was decided by trustees. Provision had been made in last year's estimates for $1,000 of this work and the fence had been bought but not erected. It will be done this year and the balance of the property fenced at the same time, the whole job to cost approximately $2,200.

Four Cars Involved In Oak Ridges Crash Richmond Hill Hairdresser, Husband, Hurt

Residents of Richmond Hill and Oak Ridges received injuries in an unusual double accident at Oak Ridges last Saturday night when four cars were involved.

Gordon Rowe, well-known member of the Oak Ridges Lions Club, was sitting in his car facing north in the centre of No. 11 Highway, waiting to turn into Capt. E. C. Hawman's Wheel House service station and lunch room. A southbound car driven by Robert Rostance, 19, of York Mills, for which Rowe was waiting, had just passed him when a car driven by Stuart Acheson, 20, of Oak Ridges, hit the rear of the Rowe car, carried off it into the Rostance car.

While the drivers involved in the triple crash were endeavoring to straighten out the affair a car driven by George McEwan, of Oak Ridges complicated matters still further by crashing into the previously wrecked cars. He was blinded by headlights, McEwan told police, and did not see them until he hit. Riding with them were his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McVey of Richmond Hill. Mrs. McVey is the owner of the Roylan Studio of Hairdressing, 55A Yonge Street, which she just opened last week. Heavy property damage was caused to the four cars involved.

Joyce Sleeth of Toronto was riding in the southbound Rostance car and suffered a badly bruised right knee and facial cuts. Mr. Rowe, who was alone, had just returned from taking Tommy Hulme to a dance at King.

In the McEwan car the driver suffered a badly cut lip and multiple bruises. Mrs. McEwan suffered severe shock. Mr. McVey had cracked ribs and multiple bruises. Mrs. McVey suffered a badly bruised right leg and hip.

The accident was investigated by Constables E. W. McBrien and E. Whitehead of the OPP. The Wheel House spent a busy hour looking after injured, police and reporters. "I couldn't keep the teapot filled up," said Marilyn Hawman, who helped ward off the effects of the cold night for those involved.

Aviation Expert To Be Speaker At R.C.A.F. Association Meeting

Only reporter to have flown in the Canadian jet fighter, Avro CF-100, Ronald A. Keith will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of No. 419 (Richmond Hill District) Wing, Royal Canadian Air Force Association. It will be held at Pony Crest Lodge, Monday, February 19, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Keith has another first to his credit — he is the only writer to ever achieve the distinction of being a Director of the Air Industries and Transport Association.

Learning to fly in 1937, Mr. Keith has been writing about aircraft and aviation for 12 years. He spent three years in the RCAF during which time he flew Harvards and Ansons mostly in the Air Training plan.

Since the war he has flown a total of almost 35,000 miles on world airlines, including jaunts to South Pacific Islands and Australia, Panama and Peru; England (twice); France; the Northwest Territories and the West Indies.

A number of these trips have been made in connection with his position as editor of Canadian Aviation — a Maclean-Hunter publication which has won a place of authority in aviation circles. On several occasions Ron has scored "scoops" on developments in civil and military aviation circles that have won him a number of editorial awards from his company.

Ron not only writes about aviation but he keeps in touch with flying by using light aircraft on many business trips.

At the Wing meeting, details of the forthcoming Ontario Group convention to be held at Toronto, March 3 and the National Convention scheduled for Ottawa, May 18 and 19 will be detailed and delegates chosen.

Scout Meeting On Thursday

District Commissioner Frank Worth will be present when the Group Committee of the Scouts and Cubs holds its annual general meeting in Richmond Hill Public School Auditorium on Thursday night, February 15. An invitation is being extended by the committee to all those interested in scouting and cubbing to be present.

Please Stay Away...

If you are not interested in the future of Richmond Hill.

But if, as a member of the Business Men's Association, you are, then make a special point of attending the general meeting of the Richmond Hill Business Men's Association at the Public School Auditorium at 8.15 p.m. on Tuesday, February 20. Three most important matters affecting the future of the association and the community are to be discussed.

A cordial invitation is extended to all business men and women who are not members of the association to be present.

Is He Really a Goat?

No. The mountain goat is not a true goat! The mountain goat is more closely related to the antelope family than the true goats. He has some features of each. The mountain goat is one of Canada's most colorful game animals. Intelligent hunting by conservation minded sportsmen has helped keep him from extinction. Nature unspoiled is yours to protect.
