Maple Women's Institute

The regular meeting of Maple Women's Institute was held on February 14, at the home of Mrs. Andrew Snider, with the president, Mrs. Norman Payne, presiding. The roll call "Bring an antique" was well responded to, and members enjoyed viewing the articles and pictures of long ago.

Mrs. Payne thanked the committee and members for their response in making the baking and apron sale such a success. The sum of $54.00 was realized. A discussion was held as to whether Maple branch would compete in the quilt competition, quilts to be first shown at the district annual then the prize winners to go on to the convention area in the fall. It was decided to compete and the committee in charge of this are Mrs. D. Allen, Mrs. A. Snider, Mrs. Dahl.

Mrs. A. Snider and Mrs. W. I. Noble visited with Edeley W. L. when they presented a short course on "Lets Cook It Right." Mrs. A. Snider gave a short talk on this.

The topic "Historical Research and Current Events" was ably taken by Mrs. F. S. Rumble. One of the items spoken of in her paper was the murder of Mr. Kinnear and his housekeeper in 1843 on his farm on Yonge Street across from the Orange Orphanage. She read a letter written by Mr. Kinnear to a friend and also showed his snuff box which had a coat of arms on the cover. The murderers were caught as they were heading for the States and were the maid and hired man of Mr. Kinnear.

The hostess and the committee served lunch.

Mrs. Pete Wagner of Toronto called on Mr. and Mrs. Heber Cook during the week.

A joint meeting of Thornlea and Langstaff Home and School Associations was held in Victoria Hall, Thornhill, Mr. T. H. Covell, Thornlea president, gave a welcome to the newly formed Powell Road and Thornhill associations. Incidentally Thornhill is the one hundredth Home and School Association to be formed in the York Council. Mr. H. LeMasurier, president of Langstaff Home and School, welcomed Mrs. P. McClelland, York Council president, who presided for the evening, and gave timely counsel and advice, by saying "as neighbours so close together — we can band together for a stronger organization." Dr. D. Tanner introduced Dr. Robert King, our M.O.H. for York County Health Unit, who explained what the Health Unit is. A film shown by Mr. N. Gage, illustrated how a public health centre was being operated in British Columbia.

Pupils from Richmond Hill High School and Thornlea Public School provided good entertainment. Don Leno gave two very delightful piano solos. Olga Zubik gave a charming Ukrainian folk dance in costume, accompanied by Jane Twanbiw at the piano. Two Scottish lassies in kilts, Dorothy Fraser and Elaine Cousins from Thornlea school delighted the audience with their Scottish dances, accompanied by Mrs. G. Fraser at the piano. June Ross gave two very amusing readings "Clarence at the ball game" and "Archie's reading lesson."

Mrs. LeMasurier conducted the impressive candle lighting. Mrs. P. Poole and Mrs. Cudmore lighted the candles for Langstaff and Mrs. A. Caesar for Thornlea. Mrs. LeMasurier lit her candle for the Future. Tribute was paid to the memory of the founder of Home and School associations, Mrs. A. Courtice, who organized the Home and School on her home in 1916. Mrs. P. McClelland cut the birthday cake.

Those responsible for the evening's success were Mrs. Guy Fraser and Mrs. J. Curtis for Thornlea and Mrs. Bell and her committee for Langstaff.
