INSURANCE Cont.

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS

With the increase of fire hazards property owners should review their insurance policies, and due to the increased cost of materials would be well advised to increase the amounts of insurance. Also car owners who think it will never happen to them are caught some time or other without protection.
The cost is a minor amount to what it will cost if an accident happens.

RICHVALE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. JACKSON TAYLOR

Phone Richmond Hill 367R22

This is "Thinking Week" During the recent successful paper drive the number who had securely tied their papers was noted with much appreciation. The next paper drive will be held in April, but during the middle of March there will be another pickup to assist those who may have difficulty in storing their papers and magazines until the April date.

The Scroll and Log Book for Canada with the beautiful handwritten pages, many embellished with original paintings and line drawings, drew many interested persons who literally risked (life and) limb to attend the showing, and the joint Hobby Show put on by the Guide and Scout organizations, last Saturday. A full story appears elsewhere in this issue.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the 1st Richvale Troop will elect its officers for the coming year at the meeting this (Thursday) evening at 8:30, in the home of Mrs. A.
Baskerville, Oak Avenue.

Richvale Anglican W.A. will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. George Allison, Oak Avenue, on February 28, at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Ratespayers are asked to get out and vote at the next regular meeting on March 1 in the school when the election of officers will be held.
Please note that the time is half past eight.

The Pee Wees played a good game with Langstaff Pee Wees on Thursday. There were two ten minute periods, and finished up 1-0 in favour of Richvale. Robbie Martin scored the goal with an assist from Bill Baskerville.

On Friday the Senior Boys played Langstaff to a 3-all tie. Richvale seemed to have the play over on penalties when Langstaff tied it up, in the last period. Richvale goals were scored by Frank Martin with two assists from Donald Robinson and one by Norman Sutcliffe.
The Langstaff scores were made by David Ellison, Carl Beeston and Jack Robeson.

On Thursdays' game with Lang-staff the Senior girls played to a one-all tie, Betty Garner scoring for Langstaff and Norma Turnbull for Richvale.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Durie and Beverly were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Case in Aurora last Wednesday.

Mr. Fagan is making good progress since his return from the hospital.

Among those who have been quite ill recently is Mrs. A. Baskerville.

Mrs. Percy Sparkes is around again after a month's illness.

Richvale School is doing very well in the midst of the various epidemics currently raging. The principal reports that only about fifteen per cent of the children are absent at present.

David Ince suffered a slight concussion following a toboggan accident last week.

BUTTONVILLE

Correspondent:
Mrs. Walter Craig
Phone Agincourt 358J1

The World Day of Prayer service was held in Brown's Corners Church with ladies from Victoria Square and Headford joining in the service.

Mrs. Geo. Kelly and Mrs. W.
Craig were in charge of the service, the theme of which was "Perfect Love Casteth Out Fear." Mrs.
F. Leaf gave an informative talk on "What Your Money does" which told the purpose for which the collections taken at these services was used.

Mrs. A. Stephenson pleased with the solo "Dear Father, whom we cannot see."

At the end of the beautiful service of prayer three ladies were put in charge of the Day of Prayer for next year. They were Mrs.
Huston, Mrs. Acreman and Mrs.
Baker.

Buttonville Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Purvis for a delightful social evening.
Court Whist was played and those winning were Mrs. Francy, Mrs.
Craig and Mrs. J. Robinson.

Lunch was served by the social committee after which the presentation of a life membership pin and a large picnic basket was made to Mrs. J. Rodick as a small recognition of her sixteen years of faithful service as secretary-treasurer of the Buttonville W. I. Mrs. J. Robinson read the presentation address, Mrs. R. Boyington presented the pin and Mrs. McGimpsey presented the picnic basket. This basket was completely outfitted with knives, cups, plates, etc., for six people.

Members of the W.I. were reminded to send in ideas on the W. I. Essay which is being compiled at the present time. It is entitled, "Democracy Begins With You."

LANGSTAFF NEWS

CORRESPONDENT — MRS. STAN. V. WORSDALE

Telephone Thornhill 257r12

There is so much illness around just now that a list of the names and addresses would read like a street directory but we do hope that the flu attacks being endured will be short ones, that the premature spring (?) will last and that everyone will soon be out enjoying it.

Continuing last week's item about babies which should have been entitled "a new Day is born," we're glad to say that mother and 10-lb. son came home after staying in the hospital only four days, and that both are going well; Mrs. Day's mother has been taking care of things for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duffy, whose daughter was born on February 10, have named her, Susan Mary.

After a month in bed, Mrs. Ernie Brennan is looking forward to getting up soon. Several years ago she injured her back in a fall, and her present condition is a recurrence of the trouble.

YOUR COMMERCE BRANCH

Keystone of Main Street

The towns of Canada are great places.
Our town was a fur trading outpost in the early days—now it is part of a great forest industry.
And serving that industry—and us—is the bank . . . a branch of The Commerce. Our manager is your friend—he knows how to give the type of service that comes with long acquaintance.

Yes, our Canadian towns are great places . . . and the men and women at your Commerce branch are good people to know.
