"Education Is Everybody's Business"

Conservation Conciousness Feature Of Richmond Hill's Public School Grade 7 Pupils

Cur Grade Seven says -Conservation -

Means

prosperity.

Means

Means

living.

Means

Canadian industry.

Means

comfort.

A FULL CANADIAN LIFE. Its teacher asks -

How can he with his insignificant but a second in the hour of unborn generations insist he owns his land and can do with it as he wishes?

His deed only represents provisional tenure for the untold generations of tomorrow.

How can h with his insignificant allotment of time feel he has the believed and it deserves this fate, right to steal the heritage of mil- owing to its fantastic contents. lions who will follow?

any preparation to establish any- is our character old Kate. thing for the future.

ridges of our county. A fortune the St. Lawrence market in Torusually dissipated in one genera- onto. When I say "works" I ex-mas examination in English by Carol E. Babcock, IXB, Richmond tiest debutante in the city, she is child who is given assistance at Hill High School.

Christmas Day

are tasting the bitterness of battle ed?" The answer is simple. Many method rather than the oral meth- attempting to teach him more new with him and making sure he rec-Christmas trees, and gaily wrap- ing before their eyes. ped gifts. Their Chirstmas will In every person's life, no matter be spent on a battle-field soaked how low she sinks, she has a tion of piercing the enemy lines money and Jake and Kate both fight on. On Christmas Day, aso buy many things for Kate and amidst the clash of battle, may be Jake. Thus live two characters heard the familiar greeting: "Mer- few people dream are living. ry Christmas! Merry Christmas!" my story still fantastic?

future is shaped.

with pleasure all its life.

Ition leaving a worthless inheritance for the increasing population of the future.

We, the government of the pres-Trees, jobs, money, Canadian ent, are struggling to open our eyes to the scars of erosion that our temporary leaseholders are Moisture, life, growth, Canadian leaving across the face of Canada's future greatness.

The present, however, can never Rainfall, crops, food, Canadian heal the past, it is always left as a duty to the future - so, let us teach this generation - this gen-Water, power, manufacturing, ration which is to be the government of the future - let us teach what other generations have failed Pleasure, lakes, parks, Canadian to teach us - LET US TEACH THEM CONSERVATION.

H. Grant Nighswander

Old Kate

By Joanne Johnson Grade XIA Richmond Hill High School

This story is one that will not be

This very day most of the re- eenth century character in a bus maining bush of our townships is city market? You think this is being indiscriminately cut with funny? It is not funny; it is pa

Old Kate is a wretched woman You, the governments of the of perhaps thirty years of age. past generations, have often help- They call her old Kate, but we ed one man to accumulate a for- mean not old in years but in mistune from denuding the sandy ery and poverty. Kate works in pect you will understand that she works the pockets of the busy farmers and shoppers. Dressed in filth and rags, Kate roams the market and with her agile nand ard in reading ability. dips her living here and there. In every person's life there is one most essential subject on the school it. yearning: Kate's is liquor. For programme. Phonics, already famliquor Kate will do anything. | iliar to the child in his Primary Written as part of the Christ- When under influence of it our Reading, now become most useful heroine is the youngest and pret- in acquiring skill in Spelling. The out of this world. There is no home is sometimes permitted to Everyone knows what another poverty or misery when she seeks call the letters by name in oral the same "family" as - round, 3. Do not suppress a healthy more easily and acceptably than Eastern Germany and the other numbers of either U. N. troops of eit war will mean. Poverty, terror her only relief. Now you are spelling. In the classroom, emand death. Some of our soldiers thinking, "Why isn't she correct- phasis is placed on the phonetic Korea, men are fighting and dy- bleeding faces and smarting shins is broken into three parts, p-ea-ch. ing at one time.

with the blood of their companions. friend and so has Kate. This Their Christmas dinner — well, friend is Jake the hunch-back who ment in Spelling in Junior Grades cess, so that it will seem import- types of stores, the service station, learned a great deal about these there may not be any Christmas sells pencils in the market. Sell- are: only real joy will be the satisfac- are not the only ways of making and strengthening their own de- found a way of making a lot of money fast. Both their bodies be-It will not be fun, but they are long to the University of Toronto. doing it for our country and they This will save the City the exknow it. Because of this, they will pense of burying them and will Guest speaker at last week's meeting of Richmond Hil Have you ever seen an eight- Lions Club, DAVID HOGG shakes hands with Lion President MEL MALTBY. His address dealt with his recent trip to ing ability. All normal children tude of experiences which help to around Pusan the American and side. New York — of which a visit to the United Nation's organiz- learn to mouth the printed word develop this readiness for reading. South Korean armies had surged not one momentary thought for thetic and very moving and such ation was a feature. Members of the Richmond Hill, Thorn-symbols orally or silently, but hill District and Maple Lions Clubs co-operated in making the unless that word conveys an visit possible.

Phonetics And Spelling

By Junior Teachers Richmond Hill Public School

We shall assume that a child, | ognizes the word to be spelled. on reaching his seventh year, will have obtained a satisfactory stand- ing, this should be clarified.

use in written English work. Some suggested aids to improve-

2. If he does not grasp its mean-

3. Have him pronounce the word essary that a readiness for read-Spelling then, becomes the next clearly before attempting to write

4. Assist him in dividing the parents who: word in phonetic sounds or groups other words that can be grouped in possible.

around, found, sound, etc.

On the far-off shores of policemen have ended up with od. As an example the word "peach" words than he is capable of grasp. ognizes the difference between the ing. In a few days it will be when trying to correct Kate's The child recognizes each phonetic The proper foundation in spell- each.

Christmas, but these brave men faults, and many of them even sound or group of sounds from pre- ing leads to improved work in Engwill not be able to come home to now look the other way just for vious study. Spelling orally does lish as the child progresses. After servant. a turkey dinner, brightly lit safety's sake when Kate is pilfer- not help the child, either to recog- learning to write a correct sentence nize the word or to keep the phon- he learns how to compose a para- press their thoughts in under- Many of the children had not seen etic picture in his mind for future graph or a short letter.

Learning to spell should be made struction and practice of all school subjects depend largely on read-

Is Slogan For Education

Week, March 4th - 10th

Our Investment In Education

in shaping the all-round development of the child.

investment in our people, is Everybody's Business.

cation is the ability to read. In- tion and speech habits.

printed language to the child!

1. Read to their children

standable language.

School with full recognition.

imagination by calling it untrue,

Primary Reading

By Miss Margaret Fockler

Richmond Hill Public School

The basic requirement of edu- | help them develop good clear dic-

Canadian Education Week is being observed in all parts read until after his sixth birth- parallel and right up to the Manidea the child is not reading, and day and sometimes much later. hence is not able to receive the in-he has reached the stage of readi-The Primary teacher finds that ness will greatly retard his under- troops, who crove th U.N. forces be the total destruction of the teaching children to read is her standing in reading as well as his back, inflicting heavy losses and force. However, the troops the chief task. And what could be interest and pleasure.

more rewarding than the opening of the whole new world of our stories of the everyday happenings of six and seven year olds. However, learning to read does Even the beginning stories of not begin in Grade One. It is nec- twelve or fourteen lines with in- quarters. Some of these will be and new soldiers would be rushed teresting pictures will have an el. mentioned here. It is only fair to to the front immediately. ing be built up through the pre- ement of surprise or a bit of hu- assume that Russia has the atomic A bomb dropped in Korea would school years. This i done by mour to delight the reader. Many bomb, and is ready to use it, be- complete the destruction of Kor times it is an experience familiar cause our secrets are poorly kept. ean homes, and should the ator to the child and he lives it over Therefore, if the atomic bomb bomb be dropped in unfavorable 2. Answer all of their questions again with the children in the were dropped, it would incur Rus- weather conditions, and if 5. Familiarize the child with as patiently and accurately as story. A story which holds mean- sia's wrath and they would prob- should be impeded in its move a mere repetition of meaningless countries they control. phrases such as appear in the 6. Do not confuse the child by but by enjoying his make-believe older readers.

If the story introduces somereal and unreal and the place of thing new to the child then experiences must be provided to give 4. Help their children to be ob- meaning to the story. When 'Elmer' arrived in town we became greatly interested in elephants. 5. Teach their children to ex one, so through pictures, discuss-6. Enlarge their experiences showing the many ways in which ion, and a very comprehensive film a meaningful and interesting pro- through local trips to various an elephant uses his trunk, we interesting animals. Soon after 7. Discourage baby talk and this, the children read a story of a little girl who saw an elepnant at a zoo and thought the animal had two tails. Because of the previous experience the children understood the humour and were delighted with the story, as a re-

> Now, why is it important to bother learning about elephants in pictures of past experiences is to then be selected from Shop, Home develop a habit of meaningless Economics, another language, or reading which leads to lack of inthe Commercial Option. It will be terest and retarded reading.

lect a course which does not in- ing word building techniques to enlarge the reading vocabulary.

The six year old with normal health and regular attendance will in his first year read and enjoy

In this day when radio, tele-

This commercial year provides an Recently a six year old boy said find out what happens."

ant to the child to learn to spell the bank and other places. dinner for most of them. Their ing pencils and picking pockets | 1. Be certain that the chila rec- well. September Reopening Of High School sult the oral reading was excell-

With the opening of school in September, Richmond Hill - and, if intending to go to uni- Grade 1? To allow a child to District High School will have undergone a period of reno- versity, must select one language continue to read words which do vation and will blossom forth in its new finery as a well in addition. The fourth option can not convey correct ideas or call up equipped, modrn high school.

Trustee, Teacher, Parent, Pupil At this time it will be able to | years). Co-operation Is The Foundation offer two other courses in addition to a much expanded General high school graduation in prepar- Education and Health, Mathema-"As the twig is bent so is the lic School we are trying to combine ation for University, Normal tics, Agricultural Science, French, clude a language other than Eng-

(2) Agricultural Course-Stress-

Art (to the end of Grade 10). Music (end of Grade 10) Shop (in 9 and 10 leading to credit continuing into Grades 11 are advised to select mo

It is expected that all subjects in recognized that the student who Course. The courses offered will Grade 9, as in the past, will be does not aspire to higher educa- by teaching sight words at the becompulsory and will consist of tion on the university level may se- ginning of the year and then us-(1) General Course leading to English, Social Studies, Physical tree inclined" - a well-known old two things - to educate our child- School, Ryerson Institute of Tech- Art and Music, Shop or Home Ec- lish and still graduate from High riculture suited to the farming sory subjects (English, Social Stuarea of the community — of defin- dies, Physical Education and his fourth or fifth year. To qual- vision, movies and comic books Health) will have to be selected ify for the High hool Graduation are taking the place of much in-(3) One Year Special Commer- from Latin, French, Art, Music, Diploma Special Commercial - he telligent reading, we need more Mathematics, Agriculture, Science, must have completed Grade 11 or than ever to help children realize The enlargement of the General Commercial Option, Shop or Home 12 with three options besides the the information and pleasure deever. Today we like to think that in any way with our school to feel Course involves the offering of a ec. (In a few cases a fifth option Commercial option (or without it). rived from the printed word.

As at present art and music are excellent training equivalent to to me, "I like to read, it's fun to Languages - (French, German, not taught beyond Grade 10, stud- given in a Business College. ents intending to graduate (i.e. Graduates can claim the High If we can teach at home and complete Grade 12 are advised to School Graduation in addition to school so that every child will, Agricultural Science (General select them only as a fifth option, business training. Such people are have that interest at six and six-Science with some special applica- Students who plan to secure their in great demand by all business of- teen, the education of our children Intermediate Certificate only (com-ifices. plete Grade 10) may select them and 12 for credit in succeeding and science as two of their options.

A Canadian Christmas

morning. It was one of those to "try out" their gifts.

Written by Rosemary Cozens, the children, rocketing gleefully XC Richmond Hill High School, from the houses, loaded with skates, sleds, skis, and drunk with One could tell it was Christmas happiness, making for the stopes School may be better prepared to chimes pealed out, clear and joy- in a way, symbolic of this great In this area there reside 490 stu- fill their place in their vocations of ous, echoing over the hills. A day. Again the chimes rolled out, their educational facilities. In an MORLEY J. KINNEE, Chairman, morning jaunt, drinking in the far to "Rejoice, and be ye merry". lone skier paused in his early summoning people from near and make Saving a habit

N-340A

The Primary Child At School

By Miss Jean Lee Richmond Hill Public School

ary grades there are certain basic child at home for his prime requirements that make his school school work? There are sever life a success or failure.

Grade One to such an extent that to see that he has a clean han of Canada from March 4 to March 10. Education is being they are just daily routine.

stressed as the foundation of good citizenship. All of us in Most important of all is its atthis community are interested in improving the level of titude to his fellow pupils. The pictures from magazines accu prosperity and our standards of living. But perhaps we child who can play well with others ately and paste them neatly have not been sufficiently concerned with the community inon the playground and enjoys paper to make their own pictur vestments in education required to bring about this improve- sharing in classroom games will (3) The child and all his clot gather a wide circle of friends. The ing should be clean and kept tid Providing education is under present conditions a com- child who is not socially adjusted Children who suck their finge will find great difficulty in gain- and get dirty at their play ca munity responsibility. The problems of administration, fining friends, and later on in life in not have neat books. ance, and sources of revenues; the problems of adequate finding his place in the world.

planning and budgeting for future growth and development; the problems of securing and retaining the most capable men Secondly is his attitude to all of and women teachers; recognition of their important status his school work. All children cannot attain the same goal of success. in the community; and close co-operation among parents, Most important is that he do his teachers, church, business, industry, and farming, are all best and be rewarded for it. Primatters which concern us vitally, because we are all partners mary pupils are eager workers. numbers. Having them cour They like to draw, paint, cut, During Education Week, as opportunity is given to the print and read. Each room is number sense helps greatly. citizens of this community to consider how they can best as- divided into several groups, each Above all, parents should s one doing its own task. Our main that their child is well-rested ar sist those charged with the responsibility for education in our towns, cities and villages, to do their work better and to objective is to teach each pupil attends school as regularly to concentrate on his own cask possible. bring about a better appreciation if what is being accomplishand do his very best. Accuracy in When these points are accomed, and of the task that lies ahead. Clearly, Education, as an drawing and printing is not as lished your child should be read mportant as neatness.

Before a child enters the prim- How can parents prepare the

These requirements should be ac- (1) Train your child to butt complished before the child enters up his coat, tie his shoelaces as kerchief in his pocket daily. (2) Encourage your child to c

(4) Listening attentively stories and obeying class instru tions mean that the child has ha good home training.

(5) Parents often like to he their children at home with the beans, etc. and giving them for a happy school life.

The U.N. And The Atomic Bomb

By David Hogg, Grade 12, Richmond Hill High School

During the autumn, the war in on curtain" would take exception The Kindergarten plays an im- better, in favour of the United Naportant part in providing a multi- tions. From a narrow beach-head the total dstruction of the other A normal child is not ready to ahead over the the thirty-eighth churian border. Then, from out Forcing a child to read before of bleak Manchuria, appeared vast hords of well-trained, exprienced Chinese troops, the effect would many defeats. It was then that Chinese would lose in such an a Grade One reading consists of President Truman came out with tack would be merely a drop the statement that the acomic the bucket when compared to the comb might have to be used.

Arguments sprang from all stun the army for only a momen ing for the child is read much ably annihilate whole towns in ment towards the Chinese, vas

Such an act as dropping the the same time. atomic bomb would most certainly It is my feeling that the war mark the opening of a third World Korea should not necessitate th War, more terrible than any war dropping of the atom bomb. the world has yet experienced. It all countries pitched in with ai would probably include almost all to the gallant United Nations for the countries fighting either for ces now fighting in Korea, democracy or communism. Russia need for the atomic bomb wowl and her satellites behind the "ir- probably be averted.

Korea had taken a turn for the to such a move, and would fore another war. This war would on Before the atom bomb is aro ped, the question, "What will w gain?" should be asked. It very true that if the bomb wer dropped on a concentration troops they can mass. It would

Korean refugees could be killed a

See Love For Lovely Lumber John C. Love Lumber Company, Ltd. Yonge Street At Woodward Avenue

(Just North of Steele's Corners) Thornhill, Ont Telephone Thornhill 350

HOUSES AND FARMS

FURNACES AND OIL BURNERS

Richmond Hill Electrical Shop 12 Yonge St. N. Telephone Richmond Hill 296

anywhere in the house to use it. No installation does not have to be bolted down. Simpler, stronger only one control-costs far less than others.

SEE IT ON DEMONSTRATION AT

HAROLD MORTSON ONTARIO RICHMOND HILL TELEPHONE 93

THE GREATEST WASHER OF ALL TIME

dents who look to this Board for life.

extended beyond the borders of Richmond Hill Village to include four municipalities, namely Vaugh- is therefore the sincere desire of ridge. The sun peeped over the tions, ice-covered cones and shining the stunding there sure the stunding there sure of snow. Standing there sure ren thoroughly and, at the same nology, Nurses Training, etc. And perhaps in no way is that time, to make them take pride and saying more applicable than it is a pleasure in that learning.

when applied to elementary educa-One thing above everything eltion. For what the child learns will help us to achieve that goal then means everything to it as its the co-operation of members of the ite value to farm boys. school board, of parents, of teach-The old days when school was a ers and of the pupils themselves, cial Course. hardship are, we hope, gone for I should like all those associated education is no longer a "chore" that we are working as a team, wider range of options which will may be permitted.) but something which the child en- plugging away consistently and co- be as follows: joys - that it will look back on operatively to reach our goal. That is my message to all teachers and That doesn't mean, of course, parents in Richmond Hill as wo obthat school time is nothing but serve Education Week - and playtime. It means work - hard know that I speak for all members

Preparation For The Future By Morley J. Kinnee

By James Pollard

Chairman, Richmond Hill Public School Board

Chairman, Richmond Hill District High School Board The members of Richmond Hill and to give greater educational ad-District High School Board are | vantages, the addition to the presdesirous of recognizing Education ent Richmond Hill school will play Week. The traditions and prining of the Fall term we shall be ciples of Richmond Hill High able to offer greater variety of for Christmas examinations. School have always been held in subjects for study, as well as better high regard. With the formation conditions under which to carry of the High School District two out these studies. years ago, this influence has now Plato exclaimed, "The direction extended beyond the borders of in which advention starts a man glorious days of sunshine on glit- above it all stood a great tamar-tering snow, with a light breeze ack, laden, not with glittering an Township, the westerly portion every Board member that the stu- horizon, making purple shadows in caps of snow. Standing there, surof Markham Township and the dents who come under the influence villages of Richmond Hill and of Richmond Hill District High ed day. From the distance, the and a solitary cottontail, it was, endeavour to meet this response R. H. District High School Board, fresh country air. And then came For it was Christmas.

Mathematics work. But, in Richmond Hill Pub- of the board in expressing it. tions to agriculture).

Home Economics (as for shop) onomics.

In Grade 10 a minimum of four A student may enter the One from 30 to 40 books. ing practical and experimental ag- options, in addition to the compul- Year Special commercial Course in as one of four required options. For the most part all students