The fresh blanket of snow really fooled us. There was every indication that Spring would be a little early this year. We weren't the only one who was overly optimistic. The road superintendent of Whitchurch suffered a spell of spring fever early this week. He had the grader start operations on the North Road, much to the delight of the residents whose cars had been pot-hole leaping for some weeks. The kids have had to put away their marbles and skipping ropes but the three kids born last week at Valley Field farm are quite indifferent to the change in the weather. The snow will be a welcome sight to all firemen north of Steeles Ave. Over the week-end there was an epidemic of grass fires, twenty in all, the most recent one a field on the King side road which was extinguished by the Aurora Fire brigade Monday afternoon.
