Trinity Church Thornhill

Parish Guild
The regular meeting of the Parish Guild was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Chas. Sowdon with a large number of members present. Feature of the evening was a demonstration by Mrs. Wes. Blackburn. With one of her bunnies present Mrs. Blackburn showed and explained the process of raising and showing angora rabbits, showed how they are plucked and how the wool is spun. Then from samples she told of her process of dyeing the wool with her own vegetable dyes, and displayed a beautiful sweater which she had knitted from her own wool.
Mrs. Blackburn, in a most interesting way kept the members spellbound as she told of a craft of which she is a master.
The next meeting will be a devotional meeting to be held on Tuesday in Holy Week, March 20, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Sissons, Concord. ....

W.A.
The W.A. of Trinity Church meeting in the Parish Hall on Thursday, March 8 decided that the Turkey Supper will be held on April 20, beginning at five o'clock. There will be three sittings, one at five, one at six and one at seven o'clock. Tickets for each sitting will have their own special colour, and those attending and buying tickets beforehand are asked, where possible, to buy their tickets for the hour when they expect to be present.
Tickets may be obtained from any member of the W.A. or from the secretary, Mrs. Russell Elgie, in Thornhill. ....

The Rev. M. M. John
Last Sunday the guest preacher at Trinity Church was the Rev. M. M. John of the South India Church. Mr. John, who is doing post-graduate work in Religious Education at the University of Toronto gave an interesting talk on the history and work of Christian Missions in India. He is the grandson of one of the first two natives ordained in the Church of England in South India and comes from a Community of Syrian Christians who trace their history to Apostolic days — St. Mark by legend having introduced Christianity to South India.
Mr. John told of the changes taking place in India today, and explained how we in the Western World could help. He declared that in the day of St. Paul a cry had gone from the West to the East for help, and that now the process was reversed, and that the cry was from the East for help from the West. ....

Athletic Club Euchre
The euchre arranged by the girl supporters of the Langstaff Athletic Club and held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Little, Garden Ave., last Wednesday evening, was so successful and enjoyable that everyone wanted another as soon as possible. The Littles have kindly offered their home again for next Wednesday, March 21. There's room for lots of friendly card players and the "do" starts at 8.15.
Winners last week were: Ladies, Mrs. Brodie; Mrs. Miller; Mrs. White; Gents Mrs. Little, Mr. Harman and Mr. Mears. ....

not yet "flew the coop". Hope a little serving of "corn" will make them feel better. ....
The shut-ins can dream that that they're with Mr. Alfred W. Curtis of Morgan Avenue, who is spending the traditionally blustery month in Florida.

Please see Coming Events for announcement of next meeting. ....
We are sorry to learn that Mrs. I. Lindsay recently lost her mother and that Mrs. Jeff Johnstone was given the sad news of the death of her cousin, Mrs. Rodgers of Newmarket, a week ago Tuesday after visiting her in apparent good health the day before. ....

Mr. Ted North of Boyle Drive is at last beginning to make a little progress in Sunnybrook Hospital, and Michael Oddy is back at school. We are glad to learn too that Mrs. J. Butcher was able to get up at the beginning of the week and that Mr. Butcher was starting on solid food, although still confined to bed. A few more faces are beginning to be seen about again, but there are still many who are still "cooped up with the flu" and have
