 Wedding Anniversary
 Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Salmon, Oak Avenue, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Fraser in Toronto, recently.
 Mrs. A. Manilla, of Edgar Avenue, a resident of Richvale for 15 years celebrated her 60th birthday with a party on March 17. Between 60 and 70 guests were present, many of whom came from Toronto and Lake Wilcox. The party began at dusk and lasted almost till dawn, with dancing to the music of an accordion. Lovely gifts and flowers were showered upon the guest of honour, which included a radio, and from Finland a basket of three dozen Talisman roses and spring flowers. The beautiful, three-tiered birthday cake was baked by Mrs. Manilla's daughter Mrs. John Fisher, Edgar Avenue.
 Excavation for a new house on Spruce being built by Wilfred Burnes was begun this week.
 Reverend Neil Smith and Mrs. Smith and their three children, John, Catherine and Elizabeth are moving to West Hill. They will be very much missed here and the good wishes of the community go with them to their new home.
 Miss Dorothy Dejean of Chicago and Mrs. R. C. Findlay of Buffalo, were guests of the J. J. Taylors during the holiday.
 A special speaker, Mr. John Kirk from International Water Supply, is expected to address next meeting of the Ratepayers, April 5.

District Scout and Cub News
 Thornhill Cub News
 The Thornhill Cub Packs obtained over 500 orders for Hot Cross buns and delivered them last Thursday. This was a very successful venture and the Leaders and Cubs were extremely pleased with the results of their efforts.
 This week no regular pack meeting is being held as the Leaders are taking the Sixers and Seconds to the Coliseum on Thursday to see the Scout and Cub Cyclorama.
 like to thank all who bought Hot Cross Buns and contributed to the very successful sale.
 They would appreciate any extra wire coat hangers anyone could spare. The boys will be calling for them from time to time.
 The date for the paper drive to be April 14, all being well. Scout and Cub mothers are reminded of tonight's meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Baskerville, Oak Avenue, at 8.30 o'clock.

Thornhill Scouts
 Nineteen members of Thornhill Scout Troop hiked out Bathurst Street last Friday, cooked their lunch outdoors and passed several tests. After a full day of woodmen's activities they returned in the evening to the Scout Hut where Mrs. Bill Hansen and Mrs. Peter Woodger had Hot Cross Buns and drinks ready for them.
 The Patrol Leaders took a Bronze arrowhead course at York Mills on Monday. The course lasted the whole day and the advanced knowledge gained by the boys will help them in the running of the troop.
